

Late penalty kick sinks Saxons in opening round of Lycoming Tournament

9/02/07

WILLIAMSPORT, PA The Alfred University men's soccer team dropped its season opener, 1-0, to Washington (MD) College in the opening round of the Lycoming College Tournament Saturday afternoon. Washington's Brian Danver scored on a penalty kick with 13 minutes left in regulation to break the scoreless tie. The loss spoiled a solid debut by AU freshman goalkeeper Eddie Barros (Albuquerque, NM/Sandia), who made five saves in 90 minutes of action. Washington goalie Marc Petrucci also played well, stopping four shots. Alfred (0-1, 0-0 Empire 8) will play Marywood in Sunday morning's consolation game, while Washington moves on to play Lycoming for the tournament championship.
