

Women's Leadership Center sponsors art exhibition, auction

2/16/06

The Women's Leadership Center at Alfred University will sponsor a silent auction and exhibition of art work "that reflects the ideals of beauty, strength, confidence and courage." An opening reception will be held from 7-9 pm Friday, Feb. 24, at the Women's Leadership Center, located in The Commons on the Alfred University campus. The exhibition and silent auction will feature work by AU students and faculty members, as well as those from other area schools. Bids will be accepted on the artwork through March 10, with proceeds to benefit Alternatives for Battered Women in Rochester (<http://www.abwrocheser.or...>) Deborah Howe Allen from Alternatives for Battered Women will be on hand for the Feb. 24 reception. The reception is open to the public, free of charge. Kaci Smith, a senior in the School of Art & Design at AU, curated the exhibition. Smith is a graduate of Wheatland-Chili Central School and is the daughter of Anna Smith of Rochester, NY. Additional information about the exhibition and auction may be obtained by calling the Women's Leadership Center at 607.871.2971 or by e-mailing wlc@alfred.edu.
