Congressman W. H. Judd Slated As Main Speaker For Founders' Day Fete

President Drake To Confer Honorary Degree On Distinguished Legislator During Formal Convocation Exercises

The honorary degree of Doctor of Laws will be conferred on Congressman Walter H. Judd of Minnesota at the Founders' Day program Thursday by Dr. M. Ellis Drake, acting president, as representative of the Board of Trustees. Dr. Judd, the featured speaker in this celebration of Alfred's 113th anniversary, will be nominated for this degree by Dr. Willard J. Sutton of the College of Ceramics.

Thursday mornings classes will end at 10:30 to allow seniors and faculty members to meet at Physics Hall and Kanakadea Hall, respectively, and prepare for the procession to the Men's Gym. Classes will be held Thursday afternoon as usual.

The program, the first formal convocation of the year, will be opened by a procession played by Prof. Ada Becker Seidlin and will be followed by an invocation by Dean A. J. C. Bond of the School of Theology. A reading from the Scriptures by Rev. Myron K. Sibley and a prayer and meditation on "The Meaning of Founders' Day" will be preceded by the rendering of "Fiat Lux" the Centennial Hymn, by the assembly group. The University Chorus will then sing two Bach selections, "Break Forth, O Beauteous, Heavenly Light" and "Oh Dearest Jesus, Holy Light."

The featured speaker, Dr. Judd will then deliver his address, "Which Way Towards Peace?" followed by the presentation of the honorary degree.

Student Senate Discusses Post Office Crowds

Noon-time congestion in the Post Office and a proposal for the establishment of a co-operative book store for the campus were the subjects of debate at last Tuesday's meeting of the Student Senate in Physics Hall.

President Jack Jones AT, reported that the post office is doing only two thirds of the business required to become a first class post office which would deliver mail by carrier to all houses. Jones appointed Thomas McShane '50, William Bayuk '50, Daniel Foster '51, Richard Homer '52, and Barbara Hurlbert '52, to serve on a committee to investigate the problem and bring in definite proposals for action to tonight's meeting.

A resolution was advanced by Justin Pierce '49, that senate representatives approach members of their respective houses on the question of establishing a student co-operative bookstore for the campus. Pierce objected to the Box of Books policy on ordering books and felt that the long lines of students waiting to buy books at the beginning of each semester would best be solved by a student operated book store. This proposed store, he stated, would buy and sell used books in addition to new volumes and would be able to reduce the high cost of books.

Mary Eagle '49, William Schwartz '52, and David Pixley '52, were named to a committee to investigate the possibility of including plusses on semester and mid-semester grades. This system would give the students a closer evaluation of their work and would have the effect of raising point indices. The committee will approach the University officers about the proposed system.

In response to previous Senate action President Jones cited a letter from University Treasurer Lebohn to Fred Palmer, superintendent of buildings and grounds, advising that the fire extinguishers at Bartlett be placed in glass cases.

The president announced that all organizations desiring funds from the Senate treasury must present their budget for the preceding year with their request for money.

Dr. Walter H. Judd

Congressman Judd Re-elected Despite Democratic Sweep

Despite a democratic landslide in Minnesota, Dr. Walter H. Judd was re-elected as representative from the 5th Congressional District by a majority of 13,000.

Considered "an impossible candidate" this is but one of the several victories Dr. Judd, a one-time medical missionary to China, has won since he was first nominated in 1942.

As a missionary, Dr. Judd realized the brutality of the Japanese in China and decided to fight against United States aid to Japan. Financing his own campaign, he made 1400 anti-aid talks in 46 states in two years, the last one being Dec. 7, 1941.

Impressed by his honesty and foresight, a member of the Minneapolis Junior Chamber of Commerce one day asked Dr. Judd to run for Congress from the 5th District. Supported by the "Judd for Congress" volunteers consisting mostly of the average everyday American, he was elected and has since been re-elected three times.

Greatly respected in Congress, Dr. Judd is noted as a speaker and is one of the few who gets a larger audience of Congressmen when it is known that he will speak.

Blue Key Announces Basketball Dances

Blue Key again will sponsor dances after weekend basketball games, it was announced Sunday following their weekly meeting.

"We broke even last year," and as a service organization, that is all we ask," said Jerry Smith '50, president. He said Robert Immediato '50 would be chairman of the dance committee, assisted by Juan Jova '50 and Robert Prokopec '50. The first home game is Dec. 4.

Two juniors and one senior were elected to membership in the honorary fraternity. The senior is Jesse B. Shapiro and the juniors are Donald R. Alverson Jr., and William G. Schmidt. All three men will be formerly tapped in a forthcoming assembly and initiated at a dinner meeting sometime in December.

Final report was made by Eugene Holman '49 on the football concession committee who reported that Blue Key netted $47.26 on the venture. This amount, minus $6 which will be given to the hawkers, will go toward Blue Key's project for the year, Alfred University directional signs.

Rush Schedule Announced By Interfrat Prexy

Preferential night for all men being rushed in the organized Interfraternity Council rushing program will be Friday night at all University fraternities, Charles H. Clark '50, Council president, announced this weekend.

"Rushes should remember that they may call at any or all houses," Clark said.

The remainder of the rushing schedule is as follows: Silent period begins at midnight Thursday and continues through 6 o'clock when rushes will receive preferential cards in the mail and must return them before the post office closes that day. Tapping will be between 5 and 8 p.m. Monday.

Clark explained that during silent period, fraternity men and rushes may not speak to each other except for the customary "hello." He said preferential cards will be mailed to rushes before 10 a.m. Friday, and cautioned rushes to check not only their post office box but the general delivery window as well. Every rushee who attends a house on preferential night should receive a preferential card in the mail the next day.

Upperclass men will have no quizzes on Friday, Clark said, as a result of an agreement between the faculty and Interfraternity Council. The list of pledges for each house will be published in the Fiat Lux next Tuesday. Members of the Council will meet between 6 p.m. Friday and 5 p.m. Monday to approve the Craft School list.

Tutoring For Lower Classmen Arraigned

The Best Laid Plans...

The committee in charge of the Autumn Festival seems to be doing a thorough job of planning. Practically everything is all set, and the students in the various departments are working hard in preparing their exhibits.

Most students on campus are looking forward to the farm, radio, flower, laboratory, and other displays. Students in Liberal Arts, Ceramics, and the Craft School have not had an opportunity to see what the Ag-Tech students do. Probably many students in Ag-Tech do not know much of what goes on outside their department.

The displays, therefore, should interest many people. There is also a good variety of assemblies and shows scheduled. These include movies, music hours, a political discussion, an organ recital, the Footlight Club play, and others.

The work of the planning committee is almost over. The success or failure of the Festival depends partly upon the rest of the campus. Assuming that those in charge have done their jobs well, it is now up to us to support them.

Adoption Of Orphans

Sorority houses are discussing plans to adopt at least one war orphan this year. The Union University Church is now supporting a ten-year-old Italian boy.

The plan has received a great deal of support from these organizations. We feel that there are many organizations on campus which could take up this idea. Some of these are the Interfraternity Council, the Student Senate, and the Ag-Tech Student Council, and perhaps by smaller clubs depending upon the financial standing of the group.

The amount required to adopt a child is $15 a month. This seems to us very little for an organization to give when it provides for food and clothing for one child. Mechanics of the plan are worked out by the Foster Parents Plan for War Children, Inc.

We suggest that campus leaders look into this matter by getting in touch with the Foster Parents Committee, and try to get the plan started in their various groups.

THE RAVING REPORTER

by Douglas Grewer

The SAC has sent a proposal to the Student Senate asking that some action be taken to alleviate the crowded conditions in the Post Office. As a person who comes in contact with this problem daily, what suggestions do you have for remedying this situation?

Charles E. Bryant '50—Brunettes in shorts directing traffic.

Robert Prigge '51—Establish a compulsory minimum of persons per box. This should help alleviate general delivery and eliminate congestion at the General Delivery window.

Terry Basso '50—Two windows open all the time would be helpful, one for General Delivery and one for stamps and packages.

Roger Gentsch '50—The people that don't like the congestion should pick up their mail at an hour when the Post Office isn't so crowded. Me, I enjoy bucking the crowds and meeting my friends.

Shirley Champlin '50—My gosh, we can't do anything about it.

Charles Hoffman '49—Do away with 11 o'clock classes.

Stanley Lytle AT—Congestion at the Post Office could be avoided by having all mail addressed to students in care of their respective college. A pigeon hole system could be set up in each of the colleges.

Rebecca Held, grad.—Everyone who owns a box should have a representative to collect the mail of all subscribers, thus eliminating five out of every six persons in the Post Office.

Francis Pixley '51—I think we should have smaller people or larger doors.

Jane Marshall '51—Put Post Office boxes in all Dorms.

Charles Schane '49—Have a student branch of the Post Office at the Brick and Bartlett, then have an assigned hour for group representatives to pick up the mail.

Steve Prusik '51—No statement for the press.

Chickie Ballman '52—Personally I like it crowded; you meet more people that way.

Robert Lober '52—Widen the door.

Memo

TO: THE BOSSLADY
FROM: JERRYSMITH

(Warning to sophomores and those with sophomore attitudes: Opinions expressed in this column are those of the writer—perhaps of him alone—and in no way can be construed to be the policy of the Fiat Lux. Any complaints concerning items appearing in this column must be directed to the writer, Box 921, and not to the editors of the Fiat Lux.)

Now then, we have one comment which we must make. A letter-writer last week indicted the Fiat editors for not suppressing a column which appeared in the issue of Oct. 26. We bear no brief for that columnist. He erred and has admitted it.

One point in question: The letter-writer wrote: "Criticism, is necessary, of course, but only after the issue in question has been thoroughly investigated and a constructive solution proposed."

We agree. In rebuttal, however, the Fiat is not the only newspaper which prints columns making comments the editors do not agree with. Newspapers all over the country do it and have done it for years. Drew Pearson, for example, is one who "flails the air," to steal a phrase, yet is printed day after day by the leading newspapers. The Fiat—which serves not only as a campus weekly, but also as a training ground for future journalists and letter-to-the-editor writers—attempts to emulate the daily newspapers.

Therefore, we make one suggestion to future letter-writers: investigate the issues before you attempt general indictments.

Another laughable address has turned up. The Perth Amboy Mosquito (must be from Jersey) wrote to Matt ((Dear Mom) Melko at Albert College, Albert, N. Y.

One group of students turned the sharp edge of defeat (cliche—so what?) after the Dewey defeat, when Lambda Chi sent the following telegram to President Truman:

"We, like 40,000 other Lambda Chis, are proud of you Brother Harry. Yours in Zeta Alpha Chi."

Republicans on campus, however, will be cheered with the knowledge that the village of Alfred voted for Dewey six to one. Even Dan Reed won over his opponent five to two.

We stopped at the south entrance of the tunnel under Burdick Hall one day last week to talk with Fred Palmer, the building and grounds superintendent who continues to forget to fix the eaves on Burdick Hall, while he was supervising the pumping of water out of the Kanakadea.

Students have made jokes about the roaring Kanakadea before, so we decided to investigate before we indicted. A pump about the size of a type-writer was set up on the creek bank and a pipe extended from the pump to the rear of Burdick where the water went into a sewer leading back into the Kanakadea.

The "channel" of the creek had been deepened to about three inches which left the width about six inches. We asked Fred what was the capacity of the pump.

"Three thousand gallons per hour," he said quickly and then in anticipation of our next question, added: "But it is only pumping about 500 now."

Thoroughly amazed by the fact that there ever was 500 gallons of water in the Kanakadea, even in Spring, we asked him the reason for depriving the Mighty K of water.

"We are pouring concrete for a new floor in the tunnel," he answered. Further investigation gave us the following facts: The tunnel was built about 1887 or 1888, probably about the time Burdick Hall was moved from the site now occupied by Kanakadea Hall. When first moved to its present site, it was used as a hotel but in about 1896 the owner rented or loaned the building to the University as a dormitory. When the owner died about 1902 he gave it to the University. Incidentally, a livery stable used to be on the West Bank of the Kanakadea behind Greene Hall.

Dr. Warren To Release Study On Health Conditions In Vicinity

The fifth annual survey of the Alfred University area has been completed and will be released this week according to Dr. Roland L. Warren, who conducted the survey.

The survey, which describes general health conditions and hospital services, will be distributed to doctors, hospitals and health associations in a tri-county area including sections of Allegany, Steuben and Livingston counties. The survey includes eleven basic questions about the health of 74,106 people.

"The study is designed to supply useful facts about health conditions," Dr. Warren said. "It pleads no causes, directs criticism at no one and praises no one."

Dr. Warren was aided in his survey by several Alfred seniors. Eli Fass, Daniel Groden and Evelyn VanRiper helped with the tabulating of results and Frances Barnett and Harriet Kutscher aided in checking the results.

Among the important health issues facing the community, listed by the study, are the attraction to the area of needed specialists and others of the medical profession, the improvement of public health services, and the willingness to pay higher county taxes to provide facilities for care of chronically ill and aged persons.

Removal Of Signs Recommended; SAC

The Student Affairs Committee made three recommendations at its meeting Wednesday. First, it was suggested that students not make noise when they go through Trailer Town. The committee felt that most offenses are committed when students leave athletic contests. Second, the SAC recommended that the publicity committees of clubs and organizations remove all signs and posters after a dance or meeting. Quite often, signs are left on trees and campus buildings for days or weeks after the event.

A letter was sent to the Registrar suggesting that lists of students and their addresses be made available to all groups that need them. One list could be made of students who live in town, be made of students who live in town, and one of commuting students.

The faculty members of the Student Affairs Committee have chosen ten seniors for "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities." The list will be released after the editors of the book ratify the nominations.

W. V. Nevins Trades Faculty For $463

With Prof. W. Varick Nevins III hammering an imaginary gavel, $463.75 worth of faculty was auctioned off at the two assemblies Thursday under the sponsorship of the Community Chest. These faculty members will donate their services to their buyers for one evening during the next couple of weeks.

In the University assembly the most enthusiastic bidding came when Dean Edward L. Hawthorne and Miss Joy Lind of the Craft School were auctioned off. Prof. Nevins volunteered to jump off the stage if the bidding reached $50 on this one and he was forced to make good on this promise. Lambda Chi finally won this pair. Dean and Mrs. Samuel R. Scholes went to Delta Sig, the Misses Eva Ford and Marie Cheval, Romance language professors, were won by Klan Alpine. Chaplain and Mrs. M. K. Sibley went to Pi Alpha while the Brick got Dr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Barnard and Dean Elizabeth Geen.

At the Ag-Tech assembly, which netted $102.50, Miss Shirley Wurz and the pair, Mr. Eugene Reynolds and Mr. Charles Magwood, went to Theta Gamma. Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. Hinkle and Mr. and Mrs. Milo Van

The freshman class of Frozen Food department at Ag-Tech, accompanied by their instructor, Joseph Pellegrino, visited the Birds-Eye Snyder Inc., food plants at Wayland and Mt. Morris on Thursday, October 28.

At the Wayland Snyder plant the students observed the processing of frozen cut spinach and the sanitation equipment and warehousing of other food products together with the latest packaging equipment at the New York State plants. At the Mt. Morris plant, the students observed the canning of beets.

The field trips are of great importance to the students at the institute as part of their training in the Frozen Food and Locker Plant Management courses.

Hall were purchased by the Ag-Tech girls while Kappa Delta won Mr. and Mrs. H. Leigh Woehling.

Frosh Elect Four To AT Student Council

Clayton Besch, Everett Damon, Dale Loop and Roger Meade were elected Student Council representatives at the Ag-Tech freshman class meeting, Monday. Frank Brooks, class president, is automatically a member, thus allowing the frosh five Council members.

A committee was appointed to set up a rough draft of a class constitution. The following were appointed to this committee: Hugh Chamberlain, chairman; Richard O'Grady, Clayton Besch and Donald Summerhayes.

A publicity and entertainment committee was also formed with William McLaughlin as chairman. John Kirsch, Richard Lang, Dominick Montesanti and Donald Wilder were appointed to assist him.

It was voted that the frosh class meetings be held on the first Wednesday of every month at 7 p.m. An attempt will be made to obtain the use of the Ag-Tech lounge permanently for this purpose.

Hazlett Replaces Paperny

Arling Hazlett '49, was elected director of the Alfred chapter of the National Student Association. Hazlett replaces Ingram Paperny '50, who resigned two weeks ago.

Hazlett announced that the N.S.A. is in the process of preparing a Campus Constitution for Alfred itself. Hazlett said that in connection with the present Community Chest drive the N.S.A. will have literature on the organization placed in the library.

Sororities Consider Adoption Of Orphan As Council Project

The possibility of adoption of one or two war orphans by Alfred's four sororities, Alpha Kappa Omicron, Pi Alpha Pi, Sigma Chi Nu, and Theta Theta Chi, was discussed at a meeting of the Intersorority Council, Wednesday.

"Most sorority women greatly favor this plan," said Katherine Lecakes '49, president. "It provides an opportunity for the sororities, through the Council, to cooperate with each other in doing something worthwhile." The plan will be financed partly by assessing sorority women, and partly by the Council.

During the month of November, sororities are rushing senior nurses and senior transfer women by entertaining them at dinner or lunch. Preferential slips will be signed before the Thanksgiving recess.

'Little Alf' To Tackle Brooklyn College For Final '48 Contest

The Saxon warriors will travel to Brooklyn this weekend to clash with Brooklyn College in the final brawl of the '48 gridiron campaign. The game will take place Saturday afternoon.

Alfred has opposed Brooklyn college in four clashes to date, with the purple and gold coming out on top in all. Their greatest victory against Brooklyn took place in 1941, when Alfred won 29-2. Last year, although heavily favored over Brooklyn, Alfred barely squeezed out a 20-19 victory. In that contest, Alfred rolled up 22 first downs to six for Brooklyn, as the latter eleven flashed a sparkling passing attack in the final period. That game was also the scene of Alfred's best ground attack of the season with a total of 284 yards gained via the land route.

This year Alfred, with three wins and the same number of defeats, faces the possibility of its first gridiron season below the .500 mark in 11 years. Brooklyn has shown up with a very improved team over last year's squad and will be favored Saturday to cop their first win against Alfred. However, the odds on the game will be extremely close, and with Alfred trying to complete a successful season, the Saxons will have an extremely good chance to take this one.

Yunevich said that five linemen who were injured in the St. Lawrence clash should be recovered sufficiently by Monday for a final week of stiff workouts before they meet Brooklyn.

Intramural Football Standings Released

There was little excitement in the week's intramural games due to the pressing rain and muddy field Saturday. The only game played on Saturday was that between Kappa Psi and Kappa Alpha. The outcome was Kappa Psi 12 and Kappa Alpha 0. Earlier in the week Bartlett beat Delta Sig 7-2, and Saxon Heights won a victory over the Aces 18-12.

Frosh Trample Over Rochester By Four Tallies

Last Saturday afternoon marked the end of a very successful Freshman football season, with our Frosh beating Rochester University Freshmen 27-0 on a rain soaked field. The thirty-two man ball club has beaten three teams, Hobart, Ithaca, and Rochester while losing only to Buffalo. The boys have racked up an impressive 101 points, to only 27 for their opponents' combined scores.

In the Rochester game our first score came in the second quarter when Dan Biro threw a 24 yard pass to Chuck Reuning, who carried the ball to the Rochester 1 yard line. Tony Mangefrida carried the ball for the touchdown and a 6-0 lead.

In the third period, Bob Tibbot blocked a Rochester punt and fell on the ball for our second score. Biro converted making the score 13-0.

The final period got under way with Bill Plessner recovering another blocked punt on the Rochester 15 yard line, and Dick Paul went all the way around left end for our third tally. Biro again successfully converted the point raising the score to 20-0.

Biro accounted for the fourth touchdown when he intercepted a pass on the opponents' 22 yard line and ran the rest of the way to pay-dirt. He once again converted to make the final count 27-0.

The only heart breaker of the game came in the third quarter when Bruce Belmer ran 85 yards to the Rochester end zone, only to have it called back.

Sports Sidelights

By Jim Quackenbush

The Alfred Outing Club is well on its way to owning and operating an extremely improved and modernized ski trail. Through their efforts an electric ski-tow, properly designed and installed with greater precision than the older one, will be hauling Alfred students and Townsfolk up to the starting place this winter.

The club, which has done many things for the winter-sports enthusiasts at Alfred, has received a 35-horsepower electric motor from the Ag-Tech Institute, and engineering assistance to install it.

A. L. Blades, Inc., a Hornell construction company, [headed by two brothers that are very interested in skiing, donated a bulldozer and its driver for three days to the Outing Club. With this help many stumps which worried skiers all last winter have been removed, and the ski-trails have been cleared.

The finances for the ski-hill and the supplies necessary to complete the work on it are being allotted by the University.

Work as this should be taken as an example by the other independent clubs on campus. The Alfred Outing Club deserves the backing of a great number of the students of Alfred for their work—well done.

It is interesting to note what has taken place in the intramural football league lately. Delta Sig out-played Kappa Delta 8-0, earlier in the season on a safety and a sleeper. Kappa Delta at that time was just beginning to play ball, and now is one of the leading teams in the intramurals. A good example of Kappa Delta's improvement was shown when they tied Klan about two weeks ago. Kappa Psi, having an advantageous schedule (as they played most of the easier teams first), was cooled down by Klan Alpine, to drop them from the leaders. Then undefeated and untied Delta Sig was rocked by Bartlett 7-2, to lose their first place standing in the league. Upsets are the symbol of fair sports, and the league has been full of them this year. We feel this a good thing, because it keeps a team on its toes.

Coach McWilliams Begins Daily Drills For Saxon Cagers

Basketball practice began last Tuesday with Coach Jay McWilliams holding daily basketball drills. McWilliams, former varsity basketball coach at VMI, is starting his second year as basketball mentor at Alfred.

A number of new names will be seen on the squad this year, but the squad will be again led by Dick McNamara and Bucky O'Donnell. Chop Argentieri will also be in there a great deal.

This week Coach McWilliams has emphasized the fundamentals of basketball, such as ball handling, lay-ups, passing, dribbling, and set shots. A scrimmage was held Friday evening.

Coach McWilliams is aiming his squad for the court opener against Lincoln College, a school with an extremely impressive record last year. This game will be one of the determining factors in whether or not the Purple and Gold's basketball squad will have a successful season.

Infirmiry Schedules Flu Injection Fors Tomorrow

Influenza inoculations will be given tomorrow afternoon from 2:00-5:00 p.m. at the Clawson Infirmary. There is enough serum only for the students who have previously signed for the shots.

Jeannette Klimajeski '50, was an overnight guest of the infirmary during the week. Other visitors were football and basketball players who have been making use of the diathermy machine.

The touch-football season is nearing completion, but no team is sure to take first place. Who knows, we might see a few more upsets before the season is over.

Toronto Cross-Country Scores 20-35 Win Over A. U. Varsity

In their last home meet of the season the varsity cross country team was overpowered by Toronto, 20-35, making their record three victories against two defeats in dual meet competition this Fall.

The race was run on a new, 4.05 mile course which was mapped out by the members of the squad two hours before post time. The usual racing route includes a road within the cemetery on route 244, beyond the Ag-Tech barns. But early Saturday morning Coach Getz received the information that a funeral would be held there in the afternoon.

William Wilson of Toronto won the race in the fine time of 19:03. Two other Toronto harriers, Jack Doull and Gordon Green, finished before Bob Wightman and Dick O'Neil crossed the line in a tie for fourth place. Al McMullen in sixth and Earl Barr in eighth cinched the meet for the visitors. Paul Flurshutz took seventh, Tom Myers tenth, and Don Rosser eleventh, to complete the scoring for Alfred.

Toronto took command right at the start. Before the quarter mile mark six Canadians were running in a group at the head of the pack, with Wightman and Betlem in the midst of them. Wightman hung on for the greater part of the race but could not match the stretch drive of the three who beat him. Betlam began dropping back at the mile and finished in thirteenth place, the early pace having been too much for him. It was not until the final stage of the race that O'Neil and Flurshutz moved up into the opposition's scoring combination to present any threat at all to a Toronto victory.

The first seven men to finish for Alfred were to be named to represent the school in the Middle Atlantic meet at Allentown, Pa. this Friday and in the I.C.A.A. in New York the following Monday. Six positions were fairly secure but the seventh was wide open and there was much rivalry between John Anderson, Earl Bechard and Frank Schroeder in competing for it. Anderson won the honor in finishing fourteenth; Bechard and Schroeder ran fifteenth and sixteenth, respectively. The one other Saxon entry in the race, Ed Frankel, came in seventeenth.

In their meet this Friday the Saxon harriers will be running against the seven or eight other colleges which belong to the Middle Atlantic Association, all of whom specialize in cross country.
