

Wellsville Creative Arts Center exhibits Alfred University students' work

7/07/08

There is an art show featuring the work of emerging Alfred University artists running through July 31 at the Wellsville Creative Arts Center (WCAC). The show contains pieces from recent graduate students Caitlin Biemer of Great Meadows, NJ; Bryan Ramey of Elizabethtown, KY; and Matthew Torres, a senior from Perth Amboy, NJ. Biemer studied fine arts while at Alfred. At the Wellsville Creative Arts Center exhibit there are prints of four of her original manga-style illustrations. Ramey, who studied art and design at AU, is showing four of his watercolors, and Torres, studying art and design in his senior year, is exhibiting four oil paintings on canvas. The show is open to the public during regular Coffee House hours Monday-Thursday, 9 a.m.-9 p.m., Friday and Saturday, 9 a.m.-10 p.m., Sunday, noon-4 p.m. 124 N. Main St. in Wellsville.
