Study Abroad Opportunity for Liberal Arts Students

Great new study abroad opportunity for liberal arts students! We have just created an exchange with the University of Winchester, a small university in Winchester, England. Winchester, home of King Alfred, is a lively city with a rich medieval history located about one hour from London.

The university offers courses in a variety of fields including (but not limited to) performing arts, English literature, psychology, history, religion, American studies, criminal justice, education, and archaeology. On-campus housing is available.

Students wishing to participate in this exchange will pay their tuition and fees at Alfred and their housing and meals at Winchester.

For more information, please attend the study abroad info session on Wednesday, Feb. 23 at 5:30 p.m. in Seidlin 016; or contact the Office of International Programs in Perlman Hall at 871.2269, visit www.alfred.edu/studyabroad and click on the UK on the map.

We have room for several students in the fall 2011 and/or spring 2012 semester and there is still time to apply before our March 1 deadline for the fall semester.

Think B4 You Speak: Shared Stories

Attention Alfred Students:

Remember the Think Before You Speak t-shirt pledge done last semester to get people to start thinking about how the things they say affect those around them?

This event focused on the usage of the phrase "That's so gay," and other derogatory phrases. There was a survey to go along with the pledge that asked students to contribute a story if they had ever been affected by the phrase, or if they ever used the phrase.

We aren't going to use these stories; although they were anonymous, people didn't know that there was a possibility of them being made public. That's where you come in. We need your stories. We would like to use them to raise awareness about the usage of these phrases in the context of Alfred University.

If you submit a story it will be completely anonymous, just know that these will be shared with the University.

Please use the attached link to submit stories!

Byrdcliffe Artist in Residence Program

The Woodstock Byrdcliffe Guild offers month long Artist in Residence (AIR) opportunities for visual artists, composers, playwrights/screenwriters, and writers of fiction, nonfiction and poetry. Longer residencies are available for ceramic artists. The AIR sessions generally occur during the months of June, July, August, and September. The Woodstock Byrdcliffe Guild's goal is to provide solitude in a community and uninterrupted time in which to concentrate on creative work alongside fellow artists. Opened in 1903, the Byrdcliffe Art Colony was placed on the National Register of Historic Sites in 1979 for its architectural and historical significance. It is located in the Catskill Mountains, 1.5 miles from the center of Woodstock, New York.
