Young Professionals group organizing in Alfred area

We would like to invite you to a fun evening that will include networking, food and introduction for the Allegany County Young Professional Group (ACYPG). This event is to take place Thursday, April 13th 2017 at 6:30pm, held at the Wellsville Country Club. We are looking forward to you joining us at the opening reception. The ACYPG is the premier focus group that will serve Allegany County's next generation of leaders professionally, socially and developmentally.

We are excited to offer a voice specifically to our generation. We see the need for development and improvement within our county and its young professionals (YPs). Our mission is to source our generation and its creativity, aspirations and ingenuity to develop Allegany County into a place the next generation enjoys living in. We would love for you to join us!

We welcome you sharing this invite with your co-workers, friends and employers.

We look forward to seeing you in April.

The Hunting Ground: Screening and Panel Discussion

Join the Wellness Center in Nevins Theater for a showing of the controversial documentary, The Hunting Ground, followed by a panel discussion.

The Hunting Ground is a startling expose of sexual assault on U.S. college campuses, their institutional cover-ups and the devastating toll they take on students and their families. Weaving together observational footage and first-person testimonies, the film follows the lives of several undergraduate assault survivors as they attempt to pursue-despite incredible push back, harassment, and traumatic aftermath-both their education and justice. IEA Visiting Artist: Zorica Colic

May 8-12, 2017

Sponsored by: The Institute for Electronic Arts and the Division of Expanded Media

The IEA welcomes Zorica Colic of New York, NY, as our artist in residence over the week of May 8th. Zorica, who received her MFA from the Electronic Integrated Arts program of the New York State College of Ceramics at Alfred University. Zorica's work researches how contemporary life is structured and manipulated, with particular emphasis on the implications of the biopolitical management of human life. Through various hybridized forms of display, her works explore the complex relationships between politics, art and consumer worlds, examining how our lives are regulated or defined by taste, by products, and by mass-distributed role models. The goal is to identify new ways to subvert normative mass culture in order to re-contextualize images and signs that have become inflated from over-proliferation.

During her residency Zorica intends to further develop a video project titled Well-beings. These videos bring into focus a person defragmenting into commodity through the technological virtual, while investigating themes such as subtle manipulation of human emotions and behavior amidst current conditions that are hyper-mediated, and increasingly focused on self-presentation. A face no longer functions as the site of identity but rather a terrain equally inhabited by intimacy, familiarity, strangeness, and the anxiety. For her residency, Zorica plans to extend her project into a multi-channel video installation with surround sound, presenting different "heads" or "creatures" put into a conversation.

The Institute for Electronic Art's Visiting Artist Program is sponsored in part by the New York State Council on the Arts with the support of Governor Andrew Cuomo and the New York State Legislature.
