

AU men's lacrosse team falls to Oneonta

3/12/05

ONEONTA, NY The Alfred University men's lacrosse team traveled to Oneonta on Saturday afternoon where they fell to the Red Dragons, 12-5 in non-conference action. AU (0-3, 0-0 Empire 8) scored four of their five goals in the final period after being outscored 9-0 in the first half. Junior midfielder Carlo DiRisio (Prattsburgh, NY/Penn Yan) was the Saxons leading goal scorer, finishing with two goals. Freshman attacker Chris Smith (Buffalo, NY/Bishop Timon) also tallied two points (1G, 1A), while junior attacker Adam Griffin (New Hartford, NY/New Hartford) and freshman midfielder Ben Coburn (Liverpool, NY/Liverpool) had one goal apiece. Sophomore midfielder Andy German (Radnor, PA/Radnor) and freshman midfielder Tom Argentieri (Horseheads, NY/Horseheads) finished the game with two and one assists respectively. Sophomore goalie Chris Wszalek (West Seneca, NY/West Seneca) played the entire game in goal for AU making nine saves. The Saxons are in action next on Saturday, Mar. 19, at 2 p.m., home against Brockport.