Registration for Spring Semester and Allen Term

First-year students can begin registering for Spring Semester classes at 8 a.m. today, Tuesday, Nov. 12 on AU BannerWeb. That means all degree-seeking (matriculated) undergraduate and graduate students are now able to register for next semester.

Registration for the online courses available over winter break in Allen Term 2013-14 is available each day to all students. See the Allen Term Web page for more information.

Registration is available from 8 a.m. to midnight each day on BannerWeb. If you need help with registration or have questions, stop in at the Student Service Center in Seidlin Hall 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., telephone 607.871.2123, or email registrar@alfred.edu.

Parking Prohibited on South Lawn of McLane Center

Parking on the south lawn of McLane Center is no longer allowed.

Due to the continuing precipitation, the area has become impassable and unsafe. Please take extra time to find alternative parking on campus. Spaces are available in the Ade Hall and Ford Street parking lots and Pine Hill extension.

Thank you for your understanding.

Follow Safety Precautions!

In light of the recent reported incidents on campus, we urge you to be aware of your surroundings at all times, but particularly after dark. Report any suspicious activity to Public Safety immediately. Have Public Safety (607-871-2108) and 911 preprogrammed in your cellphone.

Attached is a list of measures you can take to enhance your safety on campus.

Lee Borson Visiting Artist

Lee Borson - Visiting Artist in Sculpture/Glass Area
Date: Nov. 12
Location: Binns-Merrill Hall, Room 106 (C)
Time: 5 p.m.

Lee Borson's will host a week-long workshop in the glassblowing studio starting Tuesday, Nov. 12 through Friday, Nov. 15 from 9 a.m. - 4 p.m. We will convert the studio into a small-scale factory to produce forms to be displayed at a forthcoming exhibition at Mass Moca.

The Lava Field, in the upper mezzanine, will be made from over 100 clear, hand-blown, blob-shaped vessels, the constant motion of which mimics the viscous, colored goo in a Lava Lamp.

Responding to the Troubled Student

On Thursday, Nov. 14 from 10:15 a.m. until noon in the Nevins Theater, representatives from Public Safety, Wellness Center, and the Office of the Dean of Students will present a program on how to respond to the dangerous, disruptive, and distressed student.

Participants will receive an overview of specific suggestions and techniques when responding to these types of stressful incidents. This program will increase your knowledge and skills in managing student behavior, differentiating between different types of concerning behaviors, and knowing the appropriate response.

Also, participants will learn about appropriate roles, personal safety issues, and campus resources.

Holiday Cards for Soldiers

Alpha Phi Omega will be hosting a table in Powell during lunch and dinner hours with holiday cards that will be sent to veterans and active service members for the holidays. These cards are just thanking them for their service, and we are trying to get as many as we can to send to them.

This event is FREE, and all you have to do is write a thank you card. We ask that you please do not include your first AND last name.

Lecture: The Statue of Liberty and Ellis Island

Speaker: Craig Braack, Allegany County Historian
Wednesday, Nov. 13 at 7 p.m.
Nancy Howe Auditorium
David A. Howe Public Library
155 N. Main St., Wellsville
585-593-3410

In 1886, the Statue of Liberty, a gift from France, was dedicated to commemorate the Franco-American alliance during the American Revolution. Six years later, Ellis Island, adjacent to the Statue on Bedloe's Island, opened as the chief entry station for immigrants to the United States. In this illustrated program, Craig will discuss these two important aspects of our history.

The library-sponsored program is free and open to the general public.
