New Absence Regulations

New regulations in regard to absences from class have just been released. Students who are ill are expected to remain in the infirmary, but in the event that it is necessary for any reason that the student remain at his place of residence, the illness must be reported to the infirmary by the head of the house, the house mother in the case of the domitories and sororities, and the presidents of the fraternities.

As soon as the student is able to be out, he must report in person at the infirmary, and only on the basis of this report will the infirmary issue excuses from class.

Why Ration?

With the beginning of rationing of canned goods next week a lot of people are asking why we must ration food in the land of plenty.

There are several reasons why rationing is necessary. Some of our food is being shipped abroad for lend-lease. Lend-lease food is helping to win the war-food for the Russian Army's smashing blows at the retreating Nazisfood for the British Eighth Army driving into Tunis- food for the munitions workers back in England. We sent a lot of lend-lease food abroad in To sustain the United Nations' offensives of 1943 we shall need to send more this year, about twice as much. The food we sent last year and the food we will send this year has been relatively small, however, in terms of our total food supply.

Of the five meats to be rationed soon, beef, veal, lamb, mutton and pork, we exported over a billion pounds under lend-lease. That was only the Times and Tribune can sell their five percent of our total supply. Out of every twenty pounds of meat, journalistic souls to the advertisers, American civilians and the U.S. armed forces took nineteen pounds.

We lend-leased about four percent of our supply of fluid milk. We kept for ourselves over nine and a half quarts out of every ten quarts of milk printed under the by-line that remarkwe produced.

Less than one percent of our butter went abroad. One egg out of every those of the author and do not necesten was shipped. One out of every 100 cans of food produced here went for sarily reflect the attitude of the paper

Actually then, the total demand for American food is greater than the supply because of the heavy need of food for the United States armed the editors haven't come to realize forces, as well as for our fighting allies because American civilians are able to yet. and want to, buy more food than ever before.

We Must Win

The American forces in Africa suffered some reverses last week. We were told that this African campaign would be no picnic and apparently the authorities meant it.

The gains in Africa were not too well established. They came as a re sult of lightning-like moves and as a result many positions were probably not

It may be winter in Alfred, but it looks as though Spring were just around the corner. Warmer days and melting snow suggest that soon we can be looking forward to new pleasures of the Spring Social Season.

The Intersorority Ball marked the high spot of last week-end's festivities. The annual ball was held at the College Gym by the three sororities, Pi Alpha Pi, Sigma Chi Nu and Theta Theta Chi. Couples danced to the rhythm of Andy Grillo's band from eight 'til twelve. A winter night scene decorated the gym. Snowflakes were suspended from the ceiling, and stars on a blue background helped to create the winter atmosphere. Colored lights turned on the scene provided a soft glow and setting for the dancers. #### (ACP) Beyond The Valley

By George Hyams

An English economist named Towney has said, "Either war is a crusade or it is a crime. There is no half-way house." That is an interesting and important commentary and should be taken quite seriously. War is a strenuous and costly business. Unless the results are in some way worthwhile the fee is a little stiff.

But there are certain elements in America today that look upon the crusading spirit with a smirk and long for the good old days when a glossy finish withheld rottenness from public view. To get down to cases, Alf Landon, (remember him) made a little speech the other day. The sum and substance of his oratory was that Henry Wallace's speeches and their content smacked of Hitlerism.

We are in no position to describe the workings of the Landon mind, but he indicates that he justly deserved what happened to him back in 1936. It is the first time that we had heard that giving people all over the world a little freedom of speech, freedom of religious worship, freedom from fear (of war, dictators, etc.,) and freedom from want (of knowledge where the next meal is coming from or when you can get a job,) was an old Nazi idea. But Landon has it all figured out.

Henry Wallace has said that it is blitz....that they try their hand at Dr. and Mrs. F. W. Ross were Sun-making a world that is fit to live in. But the Landons of this world seem to Barbara Hill '42, and her mother, have a dreadful fear of what the comthe show to run.
