

Kalyn: AU 'has been a part of my life for as long as I can remember'

1/27/12

Kalyn Broderick, a senior comparative cultures major in the College of Liberal Arts & Sciences, says Alfred University "has been a part of my life for as long as I can remember." The daughter of James and Peggy Broderick of Hornell, Kalyn says the "lessons I learned, in and out of the classroom, will resonate with me for the rest of my life." Hear Kalyn and other Alfred University students say "Thank You" to the Alfred University donors who have made their Alfred experience so valuable. <http://www.alfred.edu/tha...>
