

Footlighters Stage Sophocles' Oedipus

The Alfred University Theatre's Footlight Club which will be presented this Friday and Saturday evenings at 8:00 p.m. in the Men's Oedipus at Colonus will be pre-gym as part of the highlights of the Fine Arts Festival.

This year's production, which is the second of the famous Sophocles trilligy, which is done in arena style is directed by C. Duryea Smith III. Ronald M. Brown is serving as technical director.

Glen VanIngen will appear in the role of the blind and troubled Oedipus as he searches for peace and courage. The plot revolves around the attempts of Creon, son of Oedipus to trick his aged father into returning to the kingdom of Thebes. This is necessary in order for Creon to be successful in gaining the throne from his brother. Theseus, king of Athens, offers to give Oedipus protection and peace if he will stay in his kingdom.

Also featured in the play are Joanne Wendover in the role of Antigone, the faithful daughter of Oedipus, Jerome Reicher as Creon, Dickson Shaw as King Theseus, Grace Brookheim as Oedipus' daughter Ismene, Samuel Chorroras as Polyneices, Cy Berlowitz as the Countryman, Robert Meltzer as the Messenger.

The chorus will consist of Larry Berkowitz, Stuart Serxner, and Howard Siegal. Soldiers and guards will be portrayed by Andrew Lopez, Neil Ritz, Carxel Tefft, Allen Stook and Ralph Pizzo.

A special exhibition of "Footlights and Skylights" photographs from the George Eastman House will be on display.

Chorus Offers Requiem Mass

The Requiem Mass in C Minor by Luigi Cherubini will be presented by the Music Department as a part of the Fine Arts Festival on Sunday, May 17, at 3:00 p.m. at the Seventh Day Baptist Church.

The Requiem is a late work of Cherubini who composed in the nineteenth century. Cherubini's significant contributions were in the development of the French opera, and in the field of instrumental and church music.

This will be the final presentation of the year for the University Chorus. Other activities of the year have included a University assembly program and the annual Christmas presentation of Handel's Messiah.

The University Chorus is open to all interested students, faculty, and townspeople.

Miss Elizabeth A. Bratkowiak Appointed As Gym Instructor

Miss Elizabeth A. Bratkowiak has been appointed physical education instructor at Alfred University effective next fall.

Miss Bratkowiak is currently physical education instructor for women at State University Agricultural and Technical Institute in Alfred. She will assist Assistant Professor, Miss Lavinia E. Creighton.

A native of Dunkirk, Miss Bratkowiak graduated from Brockport State Teachers College in 1957. While in college she was active in athletic and social organizations. She won the Women's Outing Club Award during a New York State University ski meet. She was a vice president of a college Rod and Gun Club and President of the Winter Sports planning committee. Other positions she held were vice president of the Freshman Class and the Newman Club.

At the Ag-Tech, she has supervised Women's Intramural sports, has had charge of the riding stables and taught riding. She has served as head of physical education for women since September 1957.

During three summers, Miss Bratkowiak was an instructor in swimming and various sports at girl scout camps. She has also spent one summer as sports director at a private camp.

She has begun work for a Masters Degree in Education at Alfred University.

Dean Nelson Marshall Resigns Post For Rhode Island Teaching Position

Dr. Nelson Marshall, Dean of the College of Liberal Arts, has resigned to accept a position as professor of biological oceanography at the University of Rhode Island next fall.

He will also serve as administrative associate in Narragansett Marine Laboratory and on a part time basis as Dean of the summer session at the University of Rhode Island.

Marshall has been Dean of Liberal Arts for the past four years. In that capacity he has served on numerous University committees.

A native of Yonkers, Dr. Marshall received his BS from Rollins

College in 1937. He earned his MS at Ohio State University in 1938 and his Ph.D. at the University of Florida in 1941.

His principal academic work has been in the field of marine biology.

Marshall has held teaching positions at the University of Connecticut, the University of Miami, and the University of North Carolina. He was dean of the College of William and Mary from 1947 to 1951.

Prior to his present position at Alfred, Dr. Marshall was visiting investigator for the Bingham Oceanographic Laboratory at Yale University.

Marshall is president of the Wellsville Rotary Club, a member of the Wee Playhouse, and active in the Alfred-Almond Citizens Conference. He is also a member of Sigma Xi, American Institute of Biological Sciences, and the Institute on Religion in an Age of Science.

He has written numerous articles on marine biology. While in Alfred, he has written four articles which will appear in future issues of three magazines and "Collier's Encyclopedia."

Dr. and Mrs. Marshall and their four children will leave Alfred in the late summer or early fall. No successor has been named to fill his position.

Engelmann Is Awarded Grant For Austrian Political Study

Dr. Frederick C. Engelmann, associate professor of political science, has been awarded a grant by the Rockefeller Foundation for a year's study in political research in Austria.

Dr. Engelmann's project will be "The Austrian Coalition: Stability at the Expense of Democracy?"

Since the end of World War II, Austria has been governed by a stable coalition of the Social Democrat and Austrian People's parties. Both these parties administer Austria jointly, governmental positions being divided between the two according to a proportion of votes cast for them.

The coalition has been extremely stable, with these two parties together receiving a majority of the votes cast in four elections.

The problem of Dr. Engelmann's project will be to determine whether this stability constitutes, at the same time, democracy. Dr. Engelmann will study the outcome of this coalition as regards policy-making.

The project will consist of detailed research into the institutions and movements involved and a test of these in relation to prevalent theories of democracy.

Dr. Engelmann has been a member of the Alfred faculty since 1950. He has been an associate professor since 1956. Last year, he served on the Administrative Council and was president of the Alfred chapter of the A.A.U.P.

Recipient of a B.A. from U.C.L.A. in 1943, Dr. Engelmann received his Ph.D. from Yale in 1954. The topic of his doctoral dissertation was: "Cooperative Commonwealth Federation of Canada, A Study of Membership Participation in Party Policy-making."

Dr. Engelmann has also received a supplementary grant from the AU Research Foundation and has been the recipient of two previous research grants from this foundation. He has published several articles in academic journals.

Dr. Engelmann and his family will leave for Austria in September and remain until August. While there, the family will reside in or near Vienna.

Spitz Talks Tonight on Democracy's Problems

Dr. David Spitz will speak on "Democracy and the Problems of Theory" under the auspices of the political science club tonight at 8:30 p.m. in Howell Hall.

This year Spitz is visiting professor of political science at Cornell University. He has been on the staff at Ohio State University since 1947. He specializes in political theory and American government.

Spitz is the recipient of several fellowships. In 1951-52 he won a Ford Foundation Fellowship. He received two Rockefeller Fellowships in 1955-56 and 1959-60. He earned his B.A. from City College of New York and his M.A. and Ph.D. from Columbia University.

This year Spitz began work on a new book concerning the theory of democracy.

More Study?

The library will be open from 9:00 to 12:00 a.m. the three Sundays preceding exams, May 16, 23, and 30.

It will also be open from 1:00 to 4:00 p.m. as usual.

English Department Presents Discussion of Victorian Works

The English Department will present a discussion of nineteenth century literature as a part of the Fine Arts Festival program next Thursday at 4:00 p.m. in the library.

The theme of the discussion will be based on some of the works which appeared during the publishing boom in England in 1859. The panel will trace the effects of the past century on the literature.

On the program is Darwin's "Origin of the Species" which is interesting for its profound effect on the Victorians. It was disturbing to the nineteenth century as it seemed to replace a personal God of love with a "blind process."

The panel will also discuss Mill's "On Liberty" which tries to establish a place in society for the individual regardless of his insignificance.

The "Rubaiyat" translated by Fitzgerald expresses the disenchantment that the Victorians felt the tense literature of the period had produced.

"Adam Bede," the first major novel of George Eliot, who is considered to be the first of the modern novelists will also be discussed.

The panel which will hold these discussions is composed of the faculty members of the English department.

From the Editors . . . Where is the athlete of the year?

Some of those attending the assembly last Thursday noted the conspicuous absence of the award naming the "Athlete of the Year."

This absence was probably most noted by those men who were theoretically eligible for the award—the senior varsity letter winners.

Upon inquiry, it was discovered that the decision as to who shall receive this award lies solely in the hands of the Varsity A Club. The active body of this group consists of all varsity letter winners on the under-graduate level.

Once the group operated as a service organization providing ushers at games, etc. This function has been transferred to other organizations on campus. Varsity A at one time also served as a "voice group." This function has also deteriorated, and by last year the activities had diminished to an annual meeting.

At this meeting the governing body choose thir "Athlete of the Year." This award was initiated by the group in 1957 when the recipient was Charlie Schultz. Last year's awardee was Willy Clark.

It would now appear that the group has dissolved completely. This year time was not even found by the group to make its own award. The blame for this cannot lie anywhere but with the men involved.

It is difficult to pin point the reasons for the situation, although the crux of the trouble undoubtedly is our athletes use all their enthusiam as teams without saving any to devote to athletics in general.

However, the motivation (rather lack of) or the guilt appears to be of little consequence. Shift your attention rather to the results. Alfred, which claims to be at least relatively sport-minded, has neglected to make an award which is duplicated in some fashion by virtually every other school in the country.

Gentlemen — may we offer our services. Our office is at your disposal for the rest of the week, if there is any interest in rectifying the situation. Trite but true—"It's never too late!"

RADIO ENGINEERS

Radio engineers are needed in the Federal Communications Commission at various locations in the U.S. and its territories.

College graduates and seniors who have successfully completed, or expect to complete within 9 months, a 4-year professional engineering curriculum in such fields of engineering as radio, electricity, electronics, communications, or physics may be qualified for positions paying at least $4,490 a year. If they have maintained a "B" average or were graduated in the upper 25% of their class they may be qualified for positions paying $5,430 year.

Students interested in learning more about these jobs and how to apply should inquire at the Placement Office for information. Applications will be accepted by the Board of U.S. Civil Service Examiners, F.C.C., Washington 25, D. C., until further notice.

CONTEST

Escapade Magazine announces a $1,000 contest for the best short story written by a college or university student. First prize of $500 will be awarded for the best short story and prizes of $125 will be awarded for the next four stories chosen.

Any story not in the top five that the editors feel is acceptable for publishing will receive $100.

The contest rules are as follows:

1. The short story contest is open to any regularly enrolled college or university student anywhere in the world.
2. Manuscripts must not exceed 3,000 words in length.
3. Each entrant may submit one manuscript only.
4. Each manuscript must bear, in the upper left-hand corner, the true name of the contestant, the name and address of his university and his address. All manuscripts must be typewritten, double spaced and only one side of the paper.

5. All entries must be postmarked before midnight December 1, 1959.

The judges will be made up from the editors of Escapade and their decision is final. In case of ties, duplicate prizes will be awarded. Winners will be notified by mail and the prize winning story will be published in the June 1960 issue of Escapade. Anyone connected with Escapade is ineligible.

Address all entries to: College Contest Editor, Escapade Magazine, Escapade Building, Derby, Conn.

Latin Club Will Honor Romans

by Gail Lauder

On Thursday evening the ghosts of the Romans will walk again at the annual Latin Club banquet. The banquet, most important event in the Club's schedule, will be held in Howell Hall at 5:00 p.m.

The meal will be in true Roman style, as the members will be attired in togas (sheets with safety pins), and will dine on foods that the Romans were accustomed to eat. There will be long loaves of bread and honey, olives, and simulated wine. The patricians will be served by the Frash slaves who will wear short slave tunics. The slaves must wait on their masters hand and foot and pick up their olive pits.

The entertainment will be two short plays which will be performed by some of the Club members. The titles of the plays are "The Bore" and "Baucis and Philemon."

Confirmation

St. Alban's Episcopal Mission, the newly created Mission of the Episcopal Diocese of Rochester, will observe the ancient rite of Confirmation this Sunday at 4:15 p.m. in the Gothic Chapel.

Kollwitz Work Now Featured

The Gold Key will display the prints of Kaethe Kollwitz in the Alfredana Room of the library during the Fine Arts Festival this week.

Mrs. Kollwitz, born in 1867 in Koenigsberg, East Prussia, received her first formal instruction in drawing from Rudolph Mauer when she was thirteen. It was Mauer who first introduced her to the technique of etching and intaglio printing. At eighteen she studied with Karl Stauffer-Bern and three years later she attended the Herterich Academy.

Line, not color, interested Mrs. Kollwitz. For this reason she turned to the graphic arts and acquired a mastery of etching. She perfected herself in observation in order to capture realistic impressions.

Mrs. Kollwitz has produced four famous print cycles which portray her compassion for the tragedies and sufferings of a common people. They are The Weavers, The Peasant War, War, and Death. All were inspired by the social problems with which she was familiar in Europe during the late 1800's.

Current Question Posed on Campus: Which Knight Is the "Real McCoy?"

by Oliver Sudden

Is the Knight which the Class of 1960 has in its possession the real thing? This is the current question on campus and opinions are strong, both pro and con.

At the Moving Up Day Assembly Dean McMahon stated publically that "The 1907 Kanakadea has a picture — evidence that the Black Knight on campus is not the Knight".

Some members of the Class of 1960 and its sister Class, 1962, claim that it is genuine. Others maintain that it really makes no difference whether or not it is the original. It's the symbolic meaning of the Knight that counts — the Black Knight is the symbol of the spirit of the even classes.

If the Knight on campus is not the original, what happened to it? There are numerous answers to this question, none of which can be proved.

The actual where abouts of the Black Knight has been uncertain since the "big fight" of 1922.

At that time someone hid it under a rock in the creek during the fight, Dean McMahon stated. When the person who hid it returned, the other class jumped him and the big fight ensued which ended up at Delta Sig. "I don't know what happened to it from here on",

Ken Mattucci, president of the Class of '60, on left, holds the Black Knight which is in the possession of his class. On right is the original. Are they both the same figure?

McMahon stated. He further reported that he'd "heard" that one of the classes had put it in a bank vault somewhere.

DeForest Truman, an employee at the Alfred Sun and who once had the Black Knight concealed under his bed, has another story about its whereabouts, also based on hearsay. "Trummie" stated that rumor had it that the Knight had been thrown into Canisius lake.

In reminiscing about the Knight, he recalled that at the figure had both arms and one leg off, probably as a result of the "big fight". (The Knight held by Mattucci is also minus both arms and one leg.)

Another rumor has it that the brick in the Carnegie Library building.

Mrs. Robert Campbell, sister-in-law of "Soupy" Campbell, the last known person to have had the knight, believes that the figure was broken into several pieces which are in the possession of various alumni.

Two questions regarding the Black Knight remain unanswered. The first, "Is the figure on campus the original?" is still unproved. The second, "Where is the Knight concealed?" is a closely guarded secret known only by a few members of the Class of 1960.

Campus Festivities Honor AU Parents

In observance of Parents Weekend Alfredians welcomed approximately 573 parents to the campus "mid the empire state hills" this past weekend.

Parents began arriving Saturday morning and began their visit by registering in Howell Hall. Then they toured the campus with their sons and daughters noting the various exhibitions along the way and also meeting faculty members.

Military Review was held on Merrill Field after which the parents proceeded to the Men's Gym for a box lunch. President Drake addressed the gathering and the chorus sang. Later a meeting of the Parents Association elected officers.

During the afternoon the parents attended open houses at the various student residences, including sororities, fraternities and dormitories, giving them an opportunity to visit their son's and daughter's rooms.

The highlight of Sunday afternoon was the Military Stakes held on Merrill Field, in which the ROTC competed for the Best Company Trophy.

Profs. to Receive Grants for Study

President M. Ellis Drake announced today that the Alfred University Research Foundation has approved research grants for four members of the University faculty.

Awards worth up to $1,000 each have been made to Malcolm MacDonnell, and Professor Richard D. Sands, Dr. Frederick Engelmann and Dr. Anna L. Motto. have received awards worth $ 300.

Professor MacDonnell will "attempt to demonstrate an electrophysiological interaction between the auditory and visual sensory systems."

Dr. Motto will use her grant to continue her work on the life and works of Lucius Annaeus Seneca. On the basis of this research she will write an article on "Recent Senecan Scholarship" for the "Classical World."

With their awards Dr. Engelmann and Professor Sands will study the political role of the Canadian Labor Movement and research in the field of organic chemistry, respectively.

A.U. to Present Summer Institute

A six-week Summer Institute for high school science and mathematics teachers will be a feature of the Summer School at the University.

This program which is sponsored by the National Science Foundation will run from June 29 through August 7 and will feature a choice of courses in mathematics, biology, chemistry, physics and earth sciences. Also, a series of lectures on recent developments in science and mathematics. A total of six graduate credits may be earned during the six-week session.

American Ceramic Society To Hear Reports During Meeting

Chicago will be the meeting place for the American Ceramic Society on May 17. Approximately fifteen people from the College of Ceramics will be present at the four-day convention.

Several members of the Ceramics College staff will present research papers at the convention. J. R. Tinklepaugh will present two papers: "Metal Fiber in Ceramics" and "Thermal Conductivity in Ceramic-Metal Laminates." Richard R. West and L. B. Coffin of the Research Department in the Ceramics College will speak on "A Simplified Whitewares Control Test." Coffin joins D. O. Anderson in reading a paper on "Design and Operation of an Experimental Continuous Rolley Conveyer Tunnel Kiln."

Dr. Wayne E. Brownell is chairman of the program in the Structural Clay Products Division. Dr. Harold E. Simson will serve as program chairman of the Glass Division. The Ceramic College Librarian, Emily Van Schoick is, the chairman of the Committee of Nomenclature and Glossary.

Dean John F. McMahon will be a panel moderator on the "Renascence of Structural Ceramics." He will discuss the application of design to structural clay products in meetings of the Design Division. Theodore A. Randall, Acting Chairman of the College's Design Department, will also be present at the design discussion.

There will be a meeting of the Ceramic Education Council at which Robert M. Campbell, chairman of the Department of Ceramic Engineering, will present a special report.

President M. Ellis Drake will speak before the Alfred University Alumni Association. The meeting, to be held during the convention, will be presided over by Professor William B. Crandall.

The Klitzkes to Depart From Alfred After 6 Active Years in Community

by Marilyn Chapel

Dr. Theodore Klitzke of the College of Ceramics has announced his acceptance of the position of head of the Art Department at the University of Alabama.

Dr. and Mrs. Klitzke have been active members of the Alfred community since their arrival here six years ago. Aside from his regular position in teaching History of Art, Dr. Klitzke has done many other campus projects.

The Fine Arts Festival to be held this week has been his supervision for the past six years. He is responsible for the foreign films program held weekly in Binns-Merrill Hall, and has also held several exhibitions of his private print collections.

Dr. Klitzke, in teaching in the Design Department, has particularly oriented his course to the designer, to give meaning to the design program.

"I think I've accomplished to make History of Art a pertinent subject for the design students, to show ultimately their position as craftsmen in the world today."

In his liberal arts course, Dr. Klitzke has emphasized the "philosophy and ideals of man, and the outlook of the artist and his place in the world."

When questioned about his plans for the future, he expressed the desire to complete his book on the history of American art while he is at Alabama.

Mrs. Margaret Klitzke, the acting Dean of Women, is also looking forward to living in the south again, having previously lived in Texas and Mexico. Dean Klitzke has been very active in her field of social work while at Alfred. She was the county supervisor of the Children's Services in Allegany County until 1957. In addition to her present administrative duties, Dean Klitzke is very active in state charities, and is president of the Committee for Children's Public Welfare in New York State.

Dean Klitzke has felt that this past year has been a wonderful experience for her. "In my capacity as Dean of Women I have gotten to know the girls at Alfred; and find them very warm and sincere."

Mrs. Klitzke's future plans are not definite although she does expect to return to some form of social work in Alabama.

by Marilyn Chapel

The campus was buzzing this weekend as the parents descended upon Alfred. The activities centered around them, as each fraternity and sorority opened its house for informal teas, dinners and parties.

A buffet dinner and entertainment for the parents at Howell Hall on Friday evening were the opening events of Lambda Chi's Parents-Alumni Weekend. A formal banquet and dance was held at the Hornell Moose Club on Saturday, and dinner at the house Sunday afternoon.

Delta Sig's award for "Most Outstanding Pledge" went to Alfonso Rodriguez at their Spring Formal at the Hornell Country Club. Saturday's picnic was held at the Rod and Gun Club in Hornell.

Kappa Psi had a buffet dinner and party on Saturday for the visiting parents.

Concert, Carnival, Carillon Highlight This Year's Moving Up Day Festival

McMahon's Speech Is "Letters Home"

Moving-Up Day, 1959, began Wednesday, May 6, with exchange deserts between the fraternities and sororities.

The University Band, under the direction of Ray Smith, presented a concert at 8:00 in the Men's Gym. The annual carnival and informal dance followed the concert. Dance music was provided by the Statesmen Dance Band composed of students from Ag-Tech and the University.

Carnival booths set up by the fraternities and sororities featured everything from rat races to ricksha rides. First prize in the sorority division went to Pi Alpha's "Ricksha Ride". Sigma Chi won honorable mention for its "Black Knight". In the fraternity division, Klan's "Sorority-Fraternity Wheel"

Frosh and sophs battle in the annual push ball game.

Activities Concluded At Annual Assembly

This year's Moving Up Day assembly began with the annual procession of seniors in their caps and gowns Thursday at 11:00 a.m. in Alumni Hall.

Nancy Cashmere outgoing Senate president, opened the assembly with recognition of, and awards for the outgoing senate officers. These included Sam Iorio, vice-president; Stu Wunch, treasurer; Stan Pavlica, NSA coordinator; Mary Cavanaugh, recording secretary; Al Tuckman, publicity director and Brenda Johnson, corresponding secretary.

Miss Cashmere then presented the Senate gavel to Henry Nestor, the new Senate president. Nestor, who presided over the remainder of the assembly program, began by "welcoming" those present.

The next event on the program was the dedication of the yearbook. Linda Goldman, editor in chief of the Karakadea made the speech honoring Dr. Ernest Finch, head of the English department. Dr. Finch accepted the honor with an expression of his gratitude.

A presentation of class officers followed. They are Jake Fredericks, Ken Matucci, Ray Pardon and Duke Stanton. The senior class presented a gift to Bruce MacDonald to express their gratitude for his four years of help as their advisor.

Fredericks, this year's senior class president, then presented the senior class cane, the symbol of office, to Ken Matucci, next year's senior class president.

captured first place, while Tau Delt's ever-popular "Rat Race" received honorable mention.

Booths were judged on appropriateness, originality, and popularity. A record total of $431.82 was collected from all the booths this year, a $20 increase over the previous record set last year. The money will be turned over to charity.

At midnight, the scene of activity shifted to Terra Cotta Field for the annual push-ball game. The might of the Sophs prevailed over the Frosh, giving the class of 1961 an undefeated record in pushball.

Thursday following a carillon concert by Dr. Wingate, the annual Step Singing was held in front of Howell Hall. Omicron won first place in the sorority division, with Sigma Chi receiving honorable mention. In the men's division, first place went to Lambda Chi and honorable mention to the independent group.

The Moving Up Day assembly was held in Alumni Hall after the Step Singing. The seniors appeared in caps and gowns, the 1959 Karakadea was dedicated, awards were presented, and new members of honorary fraternities and sororities were announced.

AUCA Picnic

On Sunday, May 17, AUCA will hold its final meeting of the year. Members will leave from Myers Hall at 2:00 p.m. for Burdick's farm.

International Club

The International Club is planning its annual Spring Picnic for Saturday, May 16, at Letchworth Park.

Members and guests will leave from in front of the Post Office at 9:00 a.m. for the all-day affair. In addition to food, there will be a program of sports and election of officers for next year.

"Letters Home" was the topic of the Moving Up Day assembly talk by Dean John McMahon.

McMahon read letters written home by students in the freshman through senior classes just after the Moving Up Day celebration.

The freshman began his letter with an apology for not having written in a long time and a plea for some money. After telling how much fun moving up was, he again asked for money.

The letter from the sophomore began with "Gather 'round for words of wisdom" and went on in high sounding language, to tell his folks not to worry about him or his low marks—"I'm a junior now" and plan to do big things on campus.

The junior realizes with a shock that he is now a senior as a result of Moving Up Day. His pals are either graduating and leaving or moving up to their last year. A sense of gratitude sweeps over him as he tells his parents he appreciates all they've done for him. "I think I'm improving, at least I'll try to be a little better than I have been."

These are my last days at Alfred, the senior writes. The words he uses to express his emotions are "thankful, happy, humble, pleased, anxious, eager, and hesitant." Yet the senior writes, "I'm on my own and am ready for what is ahead."

After reading the letters McMahon addressed the seniors. At no time have men had so many travel routes open. "The routes open to you are as varied as the travel routes. May you have a good route and a comfortable speed." McMahon concluded his talk, "And now there is nothing left to say but 'Bon Voyage'."

New Women's Group Founded; Seniors to Comprise Gold Key

A new women's honorary organization has been formed on campus recently. The Gold Key, women's service group, has been established to replace Phi Sigma Gamma, local group for outstanding women on campus.

The new organization had its inception when the present senior members of Phi Sigma Gamma decided that their organization lacked any concrete structure. With the aid of Dean Margaret Klitzke, they organized a new group, with hopes of strengthening it in the future for eligibility to join a national society.

The Gold Key will tap junior women in the Liberal Arts and Ceramic Colleges who have shown, by evidence of their academic and extra-curricular achievements, that they have aided in the development of A.U. The minimum index requirement is 1.8.

This year, the group has selected some seniors into membership as they would otherwise not have been recognized for their contributions. In future years, though, the group will tap only juniors who will then be active their senior year.

As part of the Fine Arts Festival, the organization will sponsor an exhibition of the work of Kaethe Kollwitz, a prominent modern woman artist.

The Gold Key members plan to include in their activities for the coming year the sponsorship of at least one woman speaker and a spring exhibition of the works of an outstanding woman in the creative field.

'59 Yearbook Dedication Presented to Dr. Finch

Linda Goldman, editor of the Kanakadea, dedicated the yearbook for '59 to Dr. Ernest Finch, head of the English department, at the Moving Up Day exercises last Thursday.

Upon receiving the honor Dr. Finch said, "I have always wondered how people feel in this position. Now I know—breathless." He went on to tell the audience that he was very grateful and that teachers often find it hard to know if anything they do takes hold. This honor shows that it does.

Dr. Finch received his BA and MA at Cornell University. He was an instructor in English at Syracuse University for several years. He then took a part time position as instructor of English at Ithaca College where he was also a student of music. During his last four years at the college he was director of the drama department.

Upon leaving Ithaca Dr. Finch returned to Cornell for a year's work on his Ph. D. He completed his requirements for the degree in the following two years while teaching at the University.

Dr. Finch has been at Alfred University for nine years. He is a member of Phi Beta Kappa and Phi Mu Alpha, a musical fraternity. He is also a member of an honorary dramatic fraternity and is affiliated with Eta Mu Alpha.

Tennismen Bounced by Roch.; Clark Gains Fourth Victory

The Smithmen dropped their third tennis match in four outings last Tuesday afternoon as they were stopped by the University of Rochester 6-3. The Saxons were defeated earlier in the season by U. of R. by the same score. In that match Alfred scored in three singles matches while last week they won one single and two doubles matches.

Ollie Clark, one of the standouts of the team thus far, continued along on his way to an undefeated season as he won number four. He put away the Yellowjackets' Rollie Hirsch 6-0, 6-1. The last time Clark played Hirsch, he won 6-4, 6-2.

Alfred's Rog Ohnsorg and Rochester's Howdie Pratt locked horns in a 31 game marathon. Pratt was the victor by a 7-5, 11-9 score. Scott Lyng downed A.U.'s Bob Good 6-1, 6-0, while Ed Horning was topped by Rochester's Jim Putnam 6-3, 6-2.

The Warrior's Archie Bresnick and Joe Green had the tables turned on them as they were both defeated by the men whom they had stopped two weeks ago. Bresnick was defeated by Dave King 6-4, 0-6, 6-3 in a very close match that could have gone either way. Last time out Bresnick won 6-2, 8-6. Green was stopped by Al Criss 6-0, 6-3. When Green won on April 25 the score was 6-1, 8-6.

The Saxons managed to take 2 out of 3 doubles matches. Green and Clark combined to defeat Hirsch and Criss 6-3, 6-1. The A. U. duo of Bob Meltzer and Frank Phillips won their second match in as many starts when they defeated Seider and Keach 6-3, 6-0. Alfred's Good and Ohnsorg lost a tough match to Putnam and Lyng, 1-6, 6-3, 6-2.

Women's Awards

All girls are invited to the W.A.A. Awards Session on Monday, May 18 at 8:15 p.m. The meeting place will be posted. All girls who have participated in extra-curricular activities of the W.A.A. will receive awards.

Women Compete In Spring Sports

SOFTBALL

Last Tuesday night the Theta softballers downed the Pi girls 18-7. Pat Gregory hit the only homer of the game for Theta. On Thursday night Omicron beat Sigma 22-8.

Tonight at 6:45 there will be a game between Omicron and Theta and tomorrow night's game will be between Pi and Sigma.

ARCHERY

The Intercollegiate Telegraphic Archery Tournament is now being played. This national women's contest will close at sundown on May 19. There are six girls who are taking part in this now. They are: Gina Shamus with a score of 347, Peggy Rushmer with 259, Emmy Booy with 247, Beverly Simon with 183, Dorothy Hull with 181, and Betty Blank with 112.

There are two more girls needed to make up the team. Anyone who is interested in shooting will please contact Miss Creighton.

Shooting will be held on Wednesday and Thursday at 4:30 and on Saturday at 8:30. Evening hours are by special arrangement only.

Honorary Societies Tap New Members

Each year, at the Moving Up Day assembly, the honorary fraternities and societies announce new members. These students have been recognized for outstanding achievement in their various fields.

Pi Delta Epsilon, a national honorary journalism fraternity announced the following new members: Richard Altman, Steve Cohen, Maxine Davis, Jake Fredericks, Emma Lynn Heed, Jay Henis, Kathy O'Leary, Ruth Raider, Donnie, Nona Serlin, Ruth Silverman, Joe Weschler and Paul Wright.

The Gold Key, a new honor society, tapped Pat Gorman, Georgia Machotka, Barbara Miller, and Judy Vaughn, from the class of 1959. Those new members from the class of 1960 include: Judy Alsberg, Barbara Broudy, Judy Fairbanks, Betty Gilmore, Margaret Griffin, Linda Johnson, Gail Kelts and Olene Mitchell.

The honorary athletic organization, Alpha Tau Theta, offered membership to the following women: Nan Coots, Pat Gregory, Carol Rosen, Grace Vaccaro, Linda Brayley, Shirley Haskins, Annjie Mitchell, Jan Puellan, Ann Gunnarson, and Elaine Scott.

Engelmann, secretary of Eta Mu Alpha, tapped new members: Linda Goldman, Georgia Machotka, Jean McMaster, Stan Moskowitz, Ruth Raider and Robert York from the class of 1959. Judy Fairbanks and Gail Kelts are the new members in the class of 1960.

Alpha Lambda Delta's new members are: Gloria Bletter, Judy Douglas, Marion Rothberg, Maxine Neustadt, Wendy Schoenbach, Cathy Wirth, Linda Yablon and Alise Ogden.

The sophomore honor society, Owens, tapped twelve new members: Gloria Better, Marilyn Chapel, Rose Marie Ciullo, Judy Douglas, Sandy Kaplan, Alise Ogden, Marion Rothberg, Allie Russel, Wendy Schoenbach, Carol Sloan, Susie Wolfe and Linda Yablon.

The new members of Blue Key include: Joseph Baim, Franklin Bullis, Alfred Bitner, Robert Snyder, Bryan Rogers, Richard Mistler, Art Bresnick, Donald Rice, Benjamin Sshneider, David Schulz, Thomas Schulkind, Sanford Smith, Conrad Wexelblatt, Joel Conwicke, Ronald Rossi, Joel Moswitz, Wilson Perry, Norman Severin, Steve Chaleff, Richard Gross, Jerry Pearlman, Arnold Miller, William Bucci, Raymond Pardon, and Vernon Burdick.

HARRY LAWTON, JR., received his B.S. in Physics at Union College, Schenectady, N. Y., in 1950, joining General Electric that same year. He received an M.S. degree in Management Engineering from Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute in 1958.

"Long-range programs are important —for both men and missiles"

"In a company dedicated to research and development, a young man's opportunities to learn more—to increase his technical skills—are almost unlimited," says 31-year-old Harry Lawton, Jr., a General Electric engineer engaged in the development of inertial guidance and fire-control systems for ballistic missiles. "And to maintain America's scientific leadership, we're going to need all the technical training and skills we can produce."

"An important aspect of my job at General Electric is the continuing opportunity to learn more. I've been able to continue my education in the company's Physics Program for college graduates. And I also have the advantage of association with top technical experts in my work. Opportunities like this have helped me realize that long-range programs are important—for both men and missiles."

Harry Lawton is one of several hundred technical graduates who are devoting their skills to the development of 14 government missile projects to which General Electric is a major contributor. More and more our scientific progress and our national security depend on men like this—men who bring high qualifications to their work and who continue their quest for knowledge, both on and off the job.

General Electric believes that individual initiative and career growth are essential to America's continued technological leadership. To this end, the company encourages all of its employees—including more than 30,000 college graduates—to develop to their fullest capabilities by providing opportunities for increasing knowledge and working skills.

(Special to the FIAT LUX)

HAMILTON — The mark of a champion is being able to bounce back.

On Saturday the Saxons will be defending their New York State track and field championship at R.P.I.

In their final dual meet before the "Big One," the Purple and Gold of Coach McLane went down for the count for the first time since May 4, 1957, when Colgate turned the trick.

Colgate's strong Red Raider squad KO'd the Warriors to the tune of 96-35, before a large Colgate Parents Day crowd.

Bright light for the Saxons was State mile and half mile champion Frank Finnerty. The Buffalo senior took his usual double win for the Saxons and once again he re-wrote the record books. This time he not only lowered an Alfred standard, but set the track record.

Finnerty was timed in 4:15.1

for his mile effort. This betters his all-time Alfred mark, set in the State championship meet last year, at 4:16.5. In beating Colgate's Bill Benson by more than 30 yards, Finnerty also eclipsed the track standard set by Raider Russ Bradshaw, on the exact date, six years ago.

ANOTHER ONE

In the half it was a slightly different story. Finnerty took the lead and maintained it throughout, beating team-mate Larrie Sweet. Here too Finnerty hit the record books. His 1:55.2 is a meet record. Sweet was just behind with a clocking of 1:56.9.

Two other track records fell. A 6'0" high jump by soph George Davis of Colgate gave him victory over Saxons' Steve Cohen who went out at 5'11" and Steve Kelly at 5'9".

The Raider mile relay team of Jim Gunther, Warren Davis, Carl Brownell and Bill Donahue downed AU's quartet of Don Ulmer, Sweet, George Glaess and Finnerty in 3:22.5.

Steve Kelley gave the Alfred team a first when he took the broad jump at 22'½" and Charlie Williams took the two mile run in 9:56, beating Saxon Carl Blanchard, who ran the distance in 10:02.7. Williams took the race going away by 20 yards.

Don Ulmer's unbeaten string in the sprints went out the window as he was nipped in a three way race to the wire by Colgate Captain Carl Brownell in both the 100 and 220. In both events Warren Davis gained second and Ulmer third.

Tom Wonnacott gained the lone Saxon point in the hurdles when he took third in the highs while Alfred's two remaining points went to Sweet for third in the quarter and Tom Powhida with a third in the shot.

FUTURE

Now the Saxons have two big track dates left. Following the State meet at Troy, they close out their dual campaign against Cornell University on Terra Cotta Field, Saturday, May 23.

But that's the future. The present is the State championship meet coming up on Saturday. Defending champions wearing the Purple and Gold colors will be Finnerty in the half and the mile; Steve Kelley in the broad jump; and Steve Cohen in the high jump. Alfred's other winner was last year's "Senior Athlete of the Year," Bill Clark, in the high hurdles.

Alfred won the crown by 2.2 points over Union with Hamilton a poor third. This year the three schools are rated about even to fight it out for the crown.

Summary:

Mile—1) Finnerty (A), 2) Benson, 3) Kennedy. Time 4:15.1 (record) 440—1) Gunther, 2) Donahue, 3) Sweet (A). Time :50.2
100—1) Brownell, 2) Davis, 3) Ulmer (A). Time :10.2

Netmen Win 2nd Match; Defeat Buffalo St. 7-2

BUFFALO (Special) — Saxon tennismen can hit the .500 mark tomorrow.

Invading the Alfred campus will be the R.I.T. Tigers, looking for revenge. R.I.T.'s lone defeat last year came in their finale 5-4, at the hands of the Saxons.

The Purple and Gold gained victory number two of this campaign when they downed Buffalo State last Friday, 7-2. The road victory found AU winning four of the singles and sweeping the doubles events.

Freshman Ollie Clark took 6-1, 6-1 sets from Sid Mann of the Teachers in the four spot. The win gives Clark his fifth singles victory in as many outings this year.

State's Charles Garfinkle downed Ed Horning 6-3, 6-0 while Bob Sprenger took 6-4, 6-3 wins over Rog Ohnsorg. From there on it was all Alfred.

Bob Good gave the Saxons victory one of the day as he downed Hank Dowski 6-4, 6-2 in the number three position. The final two singles matches saw Art Bresnick top Bill Ottowitz 6-2, 6-2 and Joe Green gain 6-0, 6-0 wins over Jerry Cawley.

In doubles it was Good and Ohnsorg teaming up in the number one spot to gain 6-3, 6-2 decisions over Gartinkle and Ottowitz. The Springer-Cawley combo lost to Saxons' Clark and Green 8-6, 6-3 while Bresnick and Frank Phillips wrapped up the win with 6-0, 6-0 sets against Nick Ordian and Wal-ly Lamb.

After tomorrow's match with R.I.T. on the local counts Coach Pete Smith's netmen close the home campaign meeting Brockport State on Saturday. Alfred's final match of the season is at Ithaca May 19.

Match time tomorrow and Saturday is set for 1 p.m.

Linksmen Fifth at Endicott; 4 Saxons Compete in Contest

ENDICOTT (Special) — Gary Girmindl's ninth place finish led the Saxons to fifth place in the Harpur Invitational Golf Tournament on Saturday.

LeMoyné took the crown with 324. Union placed second while Rochester and Wilkes were third and fourth. Alfred gained the five spot with 344.

Girmindl shot an 82 for the 18-hole event, won by Jack Bower of Ithaca in a playoff with teammate Gene Stefanacci. Both had rounds of 78 and Ben Gidley of Union took third with a 79.

The remaining Saxon players were Lyle Wiedeman with an 86, Bob Blackmar at 87 and Mike Tobias with an 89 round.

The Saxons have two home matches this week. Rochester invades the Wellsville links this afternoon and both Brockport and Niagara meet the Saxons at AU on Thursday.

Golfers Lose To Rochester; Season's Record Now 1-2

The Saxon golf team lost its second match of the season to the University of Rochester last Wednesday by a score of 7½-1½ on the winner's course.

Lone winner for Alfred was Gary Girmindl, who beat Pete Kirby 2 up. Girmindl fired a 77 to Kirby's 80.

The duo of Mike Tobias and Bob Blackmar tied the Yellowjackets' Dave Watson and Bob Patterson 1 even to account for the point split in the team score.

Tobias tied his round with Patterson as both men fired 82's. Patterson won, however, 2 and 1.

Lyle Wiedeman beat Stu Miller in strokes 88-89. Miller won on points however, 5 and 4.

Alfred's Blackmar lost to Watson 1 up, and Bob Parke lost to Les Kish, 5 and 4. Earl Lind beat Bob Cranston 4 and 3.

The Rochester duo of Kirby and Miller downed Girmindl and Wiedeman 2 and 1. The twosome of Parke and Cranston were defeated by Kish and Lind 4 and 3.

The Saxons are hosting the Rochester squad today, and are gunning for their second win of the season.
