UNIVERSITY AND ACADEMY ORGANIZATION.

A University Charter was granted, March, 1857, locating a College with University privileges in connection with Alfred Academy. By this arrangement the two Institutions become, as far as possible, united. A large and permanent Board of Teachers have charge of the various departments, ranging through both the Academy and University, securing, thereby, an efficiency and thoroughness unattainable by any other arrangement.

DEPARTMENTS.

The general Departments of the Institution are two—a Male Department and a Female Department. Ladies and Gentlemen are provided with separate buildings, and are under special and separate supervisions, but, as far as practicable, recite together. There are also established, as subdivisions of the general departments, a number of special departments.

COURSES OF INSTRUCTION.

The Courses of Instruction embrace every Department of Science and Literature usually taught in the best Academies and Colleges of this country. It is intended that ample advantages shall be furnished to both Ladies and Gentlemen for obtaining a useful and finished education. Four Courses of Study have been established, namely, the Philosophical or Teachers', the Scientific, the Ladies', and the Classical.

1. The Philosophical or Teachers' Course is arranged for those who, while not intending to complete either of the longer Courses, yet are desirous of preparing for teachers, or for efficient laborers and influential members of society.

2. The Scientific Course is designed for those desiring a thorough education with reference to future scientific pursuits.

Candidates for admission to either of the above Courses, must pass a satisfactory examination in the following studies, so far as they are usually required for teachers of common schools : Reading, Penmanship, Geography, Arithmetic, English Grammar, and History of the United States.

3. The Ladies' Course is arranged to meet the growing demand for a higher standard of female education. It is intended to harmoniously blend thorough intellectual discipline with the cultivation of a refined and elegant taste, high moral principles, and pure religious sentiments.

4. The Classical Course is designed for those seeking thorough education with reference to the learned professions.

5. Candidates for admission to either of the two last-named Courses, must pass a satisfactory examination in the following studies—Greek being elective for the Ladies' Course :

Arithmetic ; English Grammar ; Geography ; Latin—Crook and McClintock's First Book in Latin, Prose Composition, Caesar, Cicero's Select Orations, and Virgil's six books ; Greek—McClintock's First Book, Prose Composition, Anabasis three books ; American History ; A. Algebra.

6. Those students who have sustained a good moral character, and completed either of the above courses, will be admitted to a Degree, after having passed a satisfactory examination.

The degree of Bachelor of Philosophy or Laureate of Philosophy, will be conferred on those who complete the Philosophical or Teachers' Course ; and the degree of Bachelor of Arts or Laureate of Arts, on those who complete either of the other courses.

Those who shall pursue, for three years after graduation, Literary, Scientific, or Professional studies, and who shall, in the interval, have sustained a good moral character, will be entitled to the Master Degree in their respective courses.

MISCELLANEOUS INFORMATION.

LOCATION.

The Institution is located at Alfred, Allegany Co., N. Y., two miles from the Alfred Depot, on the line of the New York and Erie Railroad. The location is retired and healthy—in a rural district, surrounded by romantic and delightful scenery. Few spots are so well adapted to the quiet and successful pursuit of Science and Literature as the village of Alfred.

MORAL AND RELIGIOUS INFLUENCE.

The location is amid a people of stern integrity, and of industrious and unobtrusive habits. Students are not exposed here to many of the ordinary allurements to vice and dissipation. The members of the Board of Instruction belong to different religious denominations, and adopt an enlightened religious policy.

ROOMS AND BOARD.

The New University Building contains the Boarding Department, and rooms for the accommodation of about one hundred young ladies, besides rooms for Professors and their families, and also Society, Music, and Paint Rooms. Rooms for ladies are handsomely furnished and carpeted, with a sleeping room adjoining each, furnishing accommodations rarely found in other Ladies' Seminars. The Boarding Hall is under the immediate supervision of one of the Faculty. Gentlemen boarding in the Institution, room in a separate building. There is also abundant accommodation for rooming and boarding in private families.

LIBRARY.

The Institution Library consists of a choice selection of Histories, Biographies, Greek and Latin Classics, Mathematical and Scientific works, and Standard English Literature. Additions are made to it yearly.

The object of school government being to secure the greatest possible amount of physical, intellectual, and moral good to the Students themselves, no unwarrantable means will be made use of to enforce the observance of the above Regulations; yet our constant endeavors will be to make the means resorted to as effective as human means may be.

Parents who place their children in this Institution, and all Students who are sufficiently old to understand the necessity of order, can not be too well assured that the foregoing regulations form the most essential part of the contract between them and us; and that whatever student wantonly violates them, and shows himself incorrigibly determined on pursuing his waywardness, will be expelled from the privileges of the Institution, and will not be permitted to enter it again, without special proof of reformation. Nor will an expelled Student have any deduction made from full term charges.

THE INSTITUTION AND THE PUBLIC.

The Trustees of the Institution, in presenting their Twenty-seventh Annual Catalogue to the public, would return their acknowledgments for the marked favor and liberal patronage received from its numerous friends and patrons. Their highest ambition and only object have been to found an Institution of unsurpassed excellence—a Seminary that shall bless the Church and the world. They have appreciated the necessity of laying the foundation of intellectual and moral attainments and discipline upon a broad and permanent basis ; and they have provided, in a liberal manner, the appliances and facilities for securing these objects. They labor to send forth young men and women, so educated as eminently to qualify them for the realities and responsibilities of active life.

BENJAMIN F. LANGWORTHY,

President of Trustees.
