Lights, cameras, revolution!: Roxy Toporowych's Ukrainian love story

The WGST's Riley Lecture is bringing amazing Ukrainian-American filmmaker Roxy Toporowych to campus Wednesday, March 18, to discuss the making of Julia Blue, her award-winning Ukrainian love story set during the country's recent civil unrest.

Roxy, who researched and wrote Julia Blue during her Fulbright to Ukraine in 2014, will present her talk at 5:30 p.m., March 18, in Holmes Auditorium -- hors d'oeuvres will be served afterward.

Her lecture will be followed the next evening by a special screening of Julia Blue, with Roxy on-hand to take questions, at 7 p.m., March 19, in Nevins Theater.

As for Roxy's background, the Alliance of Women Directors states, "Roxy is a graduate of NYU's Tisch School of the Arts and has worked in film and TV set decoration for over 15 years. Credits include: Captain America: Winter Soldier, The Other Guys, Saturday Night Live and most recently Steven Spielberg's West Side Story. Previously, Roxy directed the documentary feature Folk!" (www.allianceofwomendirect...).

Julia Blue, a film festival favorite, has already earned Roxy more than a dozen top awards, including Best Director, Best Film and Best International Feature (juliabluthemovie.com).
