

Bergren Forum to Offer a Look Back (and forward) at AU Art Education

3/27/00

Alfred, NY -- At the next Bergren Forum, Donald Royce-Roll, associate professor of art history and head of Alfred University's Division of Art History, will talk about the past century as the future, as it was predicted in April 1900 when the School of Clay-Working and Ceramics was born. "Art Education at AU for the next (20th) Century" is his topic. His appearance is sponsored by the School of Clay-Working and Ceramics, now the College of Ceramics, which is celebrating its centennial. The holder of a Ph.D. from Cornell University, Royce-Roll has taught at Alfred University since 1987. The Bergren Forum, which starts at 12:10 p.m. every Thursday, is in Nevins Theater in Powell Campus Center. The audience is encouraged to bring lunch; coffee and tea are free. The weekly event, which is free and open to the public, is sponsored by the Division of Human Studies.
