

SOPHS NOSE OUT JUNIORS BY ONE POINT MARGIN

Class rivalry reached a high pitch last Wednesday in the outdoor inter-class meet, when the Sophomores nosed out the Juniors by a 54-53 score to get revenge for the indoor meet a short time ago, which the Juniors won by a half point. The class of '32, built up a substantial lead in the running events. However, a win in the relay race and a third and fourth place in the javelin gave the Sophomores the necessary margin for victory in the final tally.

Olander took individual honors with a total of thirteen points, closely followed by Warde with twelve points. The best performance was perhaps turned in by Clarke, '34, who cleared 11 ft. 4 inches in the pole vault and then tried twelve feet to break the college record. Although he seemed to be reaching the height he did not have enough snap to carry him across.

Buckley, '33, showed great improvement by taking first in both the low and high hurdles. Warde '32, and Vance '32, took the distance events, although Wessels, Tenbroeck and Lyons were well up at the finishes and should show well for the coming Frosh meets. Ryskind, '33, with a fast start nosed out Graham '32, in the 100 yd. dash. However, Graham evened the score by copping the 220 yd. dash. Stalman '31, and Shappee '33, had a close battle in the broad jump, which Shappee finally won by an inch margin. The relay race was an exciting finish for the meet. Robinson took the lead for the Juniors, but Ryskind '33, built up a long lead for the Sophomores' third man. Graham, running anchor for the Juniors, with a great spring came within inches of nipping Shappee at the tape.

Summary:

100 Yard Dash—Ryskind '33, first; Graham '32, second; Egger '33, third; Vance '32, fourth. Time, 11 seconds.
220 Yard Dash—Graham '32, first; Ryskind '33, second; Robinson '32, third; Shappee '33, fourth. Time, 23 3-5 seconds.

440 Yard Run—Merck '33, first; Graham '32, second; Berls '33, third; Stanton '32, fourth. Time, 53 seconds.
120 High Hurdles—Buckley '33, first; Robinson '32, second; Stanton '32, third. Time, 17 2-5 seconds.

220 Low Hurdles—Buckley '33, first; Schiffner '33, second; Hubertus '34, third; Stanton '32, fourth. Time, 28 seconds.

HISTORIES OF LOCAL RESTAURANTS AND HOSTELRIES ARE VARIED; TINY'S IS LATEST AMONG PRESENT EATERIES

First with the arrival of, and now with the assurance of permanence it is with a pleased and appreciative eye that Alfredians take in that eatery on wheels which is most often referred to as "Tiny's". To those who came in advance of this covered bean wagon, the ghost of its predecessors arose—and perhaps writhe—to testify to the progress which has been made.

Back in the days of the dim past, probably before the W. C. T. U., a tavern was conducted in what is now the home of Professor and Mrs. Wingate. There, various forms of nourishment were provided. Later, a hotel was opened on the site of the Carnegie Library; a certain brand of oyster stew was served there, which still furnishes pleasant memories to more than one alumnus.

Fire wiped out this building, and one then heard of Burdick Hall, the public school, being moved from the present site of Kanakadea Hall across the stream and serving as a hotel. Whether or not students were accustomed to frequent this hostelry is not known. Eventually an enterprising individual opened up in his gener-

Kanakadea Banquet Set For Thursday

Over one hundred thirty Junior class members and guests will await the presentation of the 1932 Kanakadea this Thursday evening in the Parish House. The annual banquet was scheduled to take place formerly at the Howell Social Hall, but it was felt that due to the uncertainty of the exact number of banqueteers, it would be more convenient to hold the affair in the customary place.

The list of speakers and guests is being kept a secret so that there will be no leak concerning the identity of this year's dedicatee. However, it was intimated that the dedicatee has not held the honor in recent years, nor has it gone to him or her, as the case may be, within the past decade.

A hurried pre-view of this year's book revealed an edition that should be novel in color, arrangement and theme. The photography in the edition is vastly improved and is a credit to the Arthurs Studios which handled the work for the first time this year.

More than two hundred schoolboys from Western New York and Pennsylvania were guests of Alfred University last Friday to compete in Alfred's Twenty-Third Annual Interscholastic Track and Field Meet. While the number of entries was not as large as last year, nevertheless a classy field competed and the stiff competition furnished the crowd with some thrilling battles and finishes.

The only record to fall was the four-fifths of a mile relay mark when Peck, Nesbit, Hucker, and Dentinger of Buffalo Bennett negotiated the distance in the fast time of two minutes 46 2-5 seconds to lower the former mark of 2 minutes 48 4-5 seconds held by Buffalo High and Schenectady. Cook Academy, bunching their points in the field events, won the team trophy with 51 points. Buffalo Bennett was a close second with 48 1-2 points, showing up well in the running events. The individual trophy went to Flint of Cook Academy with 13 points by virtue of first places in the shot put and discus and a third in high jump.

Sawyer of Bolivar High School captured the 100 yd. dash and 220 yd. dash in 10 1-5 and 23 1-5 seconds respectively to make him third high scorer of the day. This was considered as very good time considering the muddy condition of the track. Fritts, team mate of Flint, looked like the individual high scorer until the latter garnered a third place in the high jump, the last event of the day, to give him a two point margin over Fritts. McKusick was easily the best of the field in the 440 yd. run. Buffalo Bennett High made a clean-up in the 220 low hurdles when Mervin, Hanny, and Hucker finished, one, two and three respectively. The mile run resolved itself into a battle between Hyland of Corning Free Academy and Webster of Genesee Wesleyan, with Hyland the winner in the nice time of 4 minutes and 45 seconds, within one Continued on page four.

Footlight Club Elects Officers

Last Tuesday evening the Footlight Club, one of the oldest of Alfred's extracurricular organizations, held its annual election of officers. The five new officers will assume control of the organization following the production of the Commencement Play in June.

Succeeding James P. Morris, Francis McCourt assumed the presidency of the club. B. Stockton Bassett replaced William Murray, the retiring business manager of the club, to complete the managerial board office elections.

Annette Clifford '32, then was promoted to the vice presidency of the unit, and Helen McCarthy received the secretary-treasurership for the coming year. Virginia Taylor '33, was chosen as historian of the group for next year.

During the past season the Footlight Club members either sponsored or produced five plays in Alumni Hall, celebrating their Silver Jubilee in the 1930-31 session. At the various meetings of the society plays were read or discussed, resulting in considerable educational value to the members.

INTERSCHOLASTIC CONTESTS IN ALFRED RAISE QUESTIONS AS TO THEIR NEED FOR PUBLICITY AND OF HIGH COST

Considerable comment was made last Friday as to the desirability or value of conducting interscholastic track meets here in the future. It was decided finally that a reporter of the Fiat Lux should investigate the matter and present the interscholastic situation in the Fiat columns.

A hurried investigation revealed that such meets involved considerable time and work. The expense for this one day of activity equalled an amount which would finance a tennis season or pay for a year's assembly programs. Whether an interscholastic event is worthwhile under such conditions remains a question which cannot be answered conclusively.

The main purpose of the meet as stated by a number of officials is to bring a large number of secondary schools into contact with Alfred. Whether publicity at such an expense is justifiable cannot be answered to any definite degree. Another purpose was cited as promoting the track and field sport among schools in this vicinity. Just why Alfred should assume

SCHLEHR, MORSE TO HEAD SCHOOL PAPER IN '31-'32

The staff meeting of the Fiat Lux at the Gothic last Wednesday evening saw a new staff take office. Raymond Schlehr '32, of Cleveland, Ohio, was chosen for the position of editor-in-chief for the coming year in place of Harold Gullebergh '31, retiring editor.

Frederick Morse '32, of Stamford, Connecticut, became Schlehr's co-partner on the managing board as business manager, succeeding Frederick L. Chubb '31. Morse's election was manifested by an unanimous vote of the staff.

Five new associate editors likewise took office. This number included Lois Acker '32, Annette Clifford '32, Michael Durante '32, Crawford Hallett '31, and Wadsworth Giller '32. The remaining member of the board of associates is Robert L. Flint '32, who already has completed one year as an associate editor.

To complete the business staff selections, Louis Schiffner '33, and Eugene Crandall '33 became advertising manager and circulation manager respectively with the unanimous approval of the business staff. These two men succeeded Frederick Morse '32, and Dale Lockwood '32, in their new offices.

Several reporters then took office with the promotions of five former reporters to the associates' board. This group included, Virginia Taylor, Gladys Heard, Georgianna Kennedy, Agnes Rutherford, Mildred Wesphal, Anne Whitfield, Phylbia Sheheen, Ruth Kenyon, Robert Spreen, and John Keene.

Following the elections came the resignations of Roberta Leber, Garnet Blackmore and Paul Webster, each of whom have served as associate editors during the past two years. Their reason for resigning at this time, it was reported, was to permit the incoming associate editors to acquaint themselves with their new duties during the last four issues of the year.

However, the Fiat Lux still remains under the control of the retiring managing board until June. It is the duty of each staff to edit 30 issues per year, and the regime of the active staff does not terminate until that number has been published.

This task instead of permitting the high school county, sectional and state meets to perform this function also remains a mystery.

At all events 96 different schools were represented in Alfred on Interscholastic Day. Twenty-four were entered in the track meet; less duplicates, 67 participated in the stock judging contest and the remaining five took part in the speaking contest. During May 7 and 8, practically every student in each of those schools either heard of Alfred or visited the school during the meet or contests. The total registration in these schools is estimated to be approximately 13,000 students. To count the interested parents and newspaper readers, the affair assumed primary or secondary importance in the eyes of a quarter of a million people. In this light the cost of publicity becomes a lesser evil although the effects of it have yet to be proved to satisfaction.

Probably the most beneficial results of the event is the training and experience given to student officials, managers, waiters and Freshmen on duty.

To The New Staff

As with every other extra-curricular group on the Alfred campus, each year must see the old give way to the new. Thus it is with a spirit, partly of resignation and certainly of good will, that the old staff welcomes the election of the managing board for the coming year.

To Raymond Schlehr, editor-in-chief-elect and to Frederick Morse, business manager-elect, go the responsibilities of an eighteen year old enterprise and an ancient tradition. The Fiat Lux took form primarily as an organ of student opinion, and during the several years of its existence it has had its original purpose changed on more than one occasion. This, we feel, is due more or less to the recent war and its various effects on American colleges as a whole.

"What is student opinion?" some will ask. For that matter, should these columns work toward that end? Two main resolves are formed in regard to these questions, both of which are conclusive in their own right and both of which are opposite in result.

To future managing boards we say with experience that one can only follow his own course of action according to the circumstances that surround it. There are two sides to every question and in this case no one can truthfully claim a conclusive proof of the problem.

We Thank You

As a student paper and as a spokesman for the school as well, the Fiat Lux wishes to thank the townspeople and alumni for their whole hearted support of the three recent interscholastic events of last week. During the trio of contests nearly a hundred visiting high school students were housed for one night or longer—some-what to the inconvenience of their hosts. Without local co-operation in the affair, large scale interscholastic events would be impossible. Thus to the silent partners in our recent success—"We thank you!"

That Last Word

An editorial according to a widely used dictionary is "an article expressing an editor's opinion". Strange as it may seem, we have heard many opinions concerning the meaning of the above term, and more curiously that that—we have yet to hear one comment that has agreed with an accepted definition.

We hope that your dictionary can be referred to more frequently to settle future disputes. It saves time and more important still—embarrassment.

We do not expect all points in our circulation to agree with what we believe to be right and true. However, do not think either that our stand in any case is adamant if more logical reasoning can be brought to our attention.

FROSH GIRLS MAKE GAIN ON JUNIORS IN CAGE TOURNEY

The Frosh girls' cage team strengthened its lead in the interclass league rating last week by downing the Juniors, their closest contenders, in a thrilling 36-33 battle. Both teams displayed the best brand of basketball that the tourney has seen thus far, and the closely contested battle made it the most exciting of the post-season series.

The upperclass cagers held a scant edge on the game until the last few minutes of play. However, with only thirty seconds to go, the Frosh crept into a one-point lead. A yearling field goal following shortly afterwards put the game on ice.

Gardiner '32, capped the high scoring honors of the game and tournament with a total of 25 points. Bastow and Eaton, Frosh forwards, followed with 14 point scores.

SWIMMING CLUB TO CONDUCT MEET

On Tuesday, May 19, the Swimming Club will hold a meet at the Y. M. C. A. pool. The events will be long and short swims in free style, back stroke and breast stroke, relays and diving events.

Individual awards will be made to the winners of this meet and the class scoring the highest number of points will be recognized in some manner.

Those people who wish to enter this meet please give their names to either Marian VanDuyne or Gladys Heard by May 15.

Scalp And Blade To Make Nominations

The Scalp and Blade Fraternity which recently announced its intention of awarding a plaque inscription to Alfred's most outstanding athlete, will make its nominations during this week.

These nominations then will be forwarded to the coaching staff. The coaches will vote on the nominees and will present the award at the Moving-up Day exercises in Alumni Hall.

The Scalp and Blade which has been working in collaboration this year with the Intramural Association hopes to establish boxing as an intramural or interclass sport next year. It promoted Alfred's first padded glove tourney last March.

ANDERSON HURT IN FRAT BALL GAME

The Elm Valley diamond was a scene of an accident last Saturday morning when Kling Anderson, backstop of the Klan ball-tossers, was struck in the head by a swung bat. A deep gash was made in Anderson's skull and both teams left the field when the injured catcher was rushed to the Infirmary.

At the time that play was stopped, Beta Phi Omega was holding the long end of a comfortable 6-1 edge. Lawrence and Gaiser were hurling for the Klan aggregation, and Torella was on the mound for the leaders.

SPORT LIGHTS

Many people left the interscholastic meet with a disappointed air. In explanation of their sorrow, they replied that only one record was broken! On a muddy track during a rather damp and cool day, trackmen don't seem to get that record-breaking mood. Besides, these marks are reaching the point where even college tracksters can't touch them. We now point with pride to the relay, discus, shot, hurdles, 220, 100, 440 and javelin.

The Frosh track team appeared to be weak from lack of team balance last Wednesday. And then Cook Academy took the interscholastics to make things look worse. However, if a full track outfit goes to Cook this Saturday, we see something in the nature of a close battle in store. We hope for the distance events, broad jump and pole vault, and trust to luck for the rest of the points.

If Alfred ever has a chance to cop a tennis match, it's tomorrow afternoon. Let's all go see the affair and then we can tell our grandchildren how the Saxons once beat Mansfield.

Many people remarked that it was unfair to have Cook and Genesee Wesleyan competing in the interscholastics. Take a good slant at their respective teams, and their reason is obvious.

Rochester may have beaten St. Lawrence by three points, but then remember that a student strike was in progress at the Hill School. It doesn't pay to cross your bridges before they are hatched.

The Senior girls won a game last week and a shut-out it was too! Of course it was a forfeit, but then a game's a game—whether it's played or not.

Campusd Co-Eds Lose Restaurant Ban

And in those days came the prodigal daughters returning into the fold. Cautiously and with sly, darting glances to right and left they enter the erstwhile forbidden portals of the eateries. Then suddenly realizing the new state of things, they assume their more natural non-chalance.

And toward the men, that cold discouraging look cultivated through the three weeks of enforced seclusion disappears. Be warned men, if you are not in first class condition, stay out of the way! For verily, verily, sayeth the sage, if there be truth in the belief that women and horses are much alike, then woe to the lesser spirits, for long repression is not conducive to docility and calm behavior.

SAXONS TO FACE SCARLET CINDER TRACKMEN SOON

Alfred's varsity tracksters will invade the St. Lawrence stronghold at Canton next Saturday to engage in a dual meet with the Larries. This meet will give the local team an opportunity to even matters up for the defeats in football and basketball during the past year. Confidence runs high among the Alfred squad, in as much as Rochester turned back St. Lawrence last Saturday by a three point margin.

It is not expected that the Scarlet team will offer much competition except in the sprints and the broad jump. Percy, stellar athlete at St. Lawrence, has been negotiating the 100 yd. and 220 yd. dashes in fast time and last Saturday at Rochester, won the broad jump with a leap of 20 ft. 9 1/2 inches. However, Percy can expect stiff competition from Ryskind and Graham in the sprints and Shappee and Staiman in the broad jump. Warde and Vance should capture the distance events easily while McFadden, Flint, Robinson, Havens, and Common should take care of the field events.

This will mark the last bit of competition before the Conference meet the following Saturday, and Coaches McLane and Galloway are whipping the squad into shape in order to match up with the strong team Hamilton is expected to put on the cinder path May 23.

The team is handicapped this year by injuries of Razey and Hughes, both distance stars as well as by the absence of Steele, college record holder in the 220 and quarter mile. Further handicaps are felt by the ineligibility of Elmer Olander, college record-holder in the weights, who already has fulfilled his allotted quota for three years of Varsity competition.

CAMPUS PERSONALS

SIGMA CHI NU

Elizabeth Westbrook of Elmira was a week-end guest at the house.
Marion and Dona Harrington of Forestville were dinner guests Saturday.
Myrtle Klem was a dinner guest last Sunday.
Helen Baker of Houghton College was a visitor at the house last Wednesday.

THETA THETA CHI

Dinner guests this week were Ruth Mitchell, Alice Thornton and Frieda Smigrod.
The alumni who attended the Spring Formal were Ruth Whitford, Margaret Behm, Milderena Saunders and Ella Corson.
Annette Clifford was an overnight guest, Friday night.
Mrs. Waldo Welch spent the week-end at the house.

KLAN ALPINE

Lyle Cady '28, was a visitor last Saturday, and Dan Gridley '27, dropped in last Friday.
The Klan ball team scored its first run of the season last Saturday. The next thing to do is to win a game. Ah well, we have five weeks left for that.
We always thought that Anderson would find something wrong with his head.

KAPPA PSI UPSILON

The brothers have completed the sidewalk from the drive to the porch and have practically completed the work of staining the shingles on the house.
Brother Nevins' friend from New York was given the regulation college welcome. We are pleased to be able to entertain.
Brothers Hank and Gene have been seen but little around the house this week-end, but then a formal in the spring comes but once a year.
Brother Merck is suffering from an ankle that was severely sprained at the field meet Wednesday.

PI ALPHA PI

Nice party Theta Nu and Kappa Psi!
Viola Graissier of Buffalo spent Saturday at the house as a guest of Janet Reamer.
Marjorie MacDonald of Woodridge was a week-end guest of Miriam VanDuyne.
Mr. and Mrs. Heers, Charlotte and Teddy visited Pi Alpha, and Annette, Saturday morning.
Maretta Wilcox '30, and Janice Patterson of Lambertville, N. J., were here for the Theta Nu Formal and stayed at the house.
Jean Coventry of Cornell was here for the Kappa Psi Formal, and visited Eudora Perry.
Margaret Folsing of Andover was here Saturday, as a guest of Ruby Robinson.

RACQUET WIELDERS
PREPARE FOR MEET
WITH MANSFIELD

The Saxon Varsity racquet wielders meet Mansfield tomorrow afternoon on the State Street courts for their opening match of the season. An elimination tournament is now in progress to produce a team for the meet, and the courts are being put into the best possible condition for the match.
The squad is rapidly narrowing down to a half dozen players who may take Alfred's first tennis victory in six years. Mansfield never has been noted for its strength on the courts, but during the past two seasons has nosed out the Saxons by one-point in two contests, while the third resulted in a draw. The 1931 Alfred netmen appear to have the best chance in years of breaking their tennis jinx tomorrow.
Besides the remaining members of the 1930 Varsity, Wolfe, Lawrence and Holstein of the Frosh class, should strengthen this year's team.

Canine Climber

Mrs. Ladidah—I'm going to enter Fido in the dog show next week.
Friend—Do you think he'll win?
Mrs. Ladidah—No, but he'll meet some nice dogs.

THETA CHI FORMAL HAS SUCCESS IN HORNELL

On Thursday, May 7, Theta Chi held its annual spring formal in the very appropriate surroundings of the Hornell Country Club. A banquet, served at six o'clock, preceded the dancing for which "Johnnie" Fitzgerald and his Bachelors played.
Miss Erma Hewitt, Miss Clara Nelson, Chaplain and Mrs. McLeod, Professor and Mrs. Boraas, Professor and Mrs. Saunders, Coach and Mrs. Galloway, acted as chaperones. Mr. and Mrs. Bassett were guests. The alumnae present for the dance were Ella Corson, Milderena Saunders, Ruth Whitford and Margaret Behm.

THETA NU TAKES FORMAL TO NEW SOCIAL HALL

On Saturday, May 9th, Theta Kappa Nu held its Spring Formal at the Susan Howell Social Hall. Dinner was served at six o'clock and dancing began about nine o'clock. Johnny Fitzgerald and his Bachelors of Olean played lively music for the affair. The chaperones were Professor and Mrs. Orvis, Professor and Mrs. Hildebrand, Professor and Mrs. Merritt, Mr. and Mrs. McLeod, Mr. and Mrs. Galloway, and Coach McLane.

Among the alumni back for the dance were John Call, Waldo Welch, Gene Fulmer, William Young, Clinton DeKay, Paul Gardner, Clarence Atwood, and Dean Fredricks.

The committee for the formal was Paul Maroney, Paul Hill, and William Bottom.

Kappa Psi Holds Party
At Country Club

Forty-five couples attended the annual Kappa Psi Spring Formal, held at the Hornell Country Club, Saturday, May 9. The Pyrex Pyrates from Corning furnished ten pieces of syn-copated rhythm and novelties.

The party started with a dinner dance and ended amid streamers and confetti. Faculty present were Dr. and Mrs. Campbell, Prof. and Mrs. Burditt, Prof. Bond and Miss Harris, Prof. and Mrs. Wingate.

Belle—"Do you college boys waste much time?"
Hop—"Oh no, most of the girls are reasonable."
