

Wayne Higby art represents U.S. work in Beijing exhibition of modern ceramics

4/16/15

A modern ceramic exhibition hosted by the Chinese National Academy of Arts runs through Sunday, April 19 at the National Art Museum of China in Beijing.

Work by Wayne Higby AU professor of ceramic art and Robert C. Turner Chair of Ceramic Art, College of Ceramics, is included with that of three other ceramic artists from Europe, Japan, and China countries or regions that have played important roles in the formation and development of modern ceramics in the world.

To read more about this exhibition, please visit: http://www.chinadaily.com.cn/culture/art/2015-04/10/content_20401902.htm