

AU men's basketball team loses on the road

1/23/04

ROCHESTER, NY The Alfred University men's basketball team lost to RIT, 79-61, Friday evening. Leading the charge for Saxons (2-12, 1-2 Empire 8) and controlling the inside, was freshman forward Dillon Stein (N. Huntington, PA/Norwin) who had 19 points, five boards and two steals. Junior forward Tate Williams (N. Clarendon, VT) contributed with 13 points and a game high 11 rebounds. Sophomore guard Chris Lemasters (Mansfield, PA/mansfield) had eight points, five rebounds, and was a perfect four for four from the free-throw line. The Saxons are in action next on Jan. 24 at 4 p.m. when they travel to Nazareth.