

The Leroy Holmes Band to Visit AU As Climax for St. Pat's Festivities

Leroy Holmes

Leroy Holmes and his band will come to Alfred to supply the music for the St. Pat's Ball, Saturday, March 15.

Conductor, arranger Holmes was born in Pittsburgh and brought up on the West Coast. He attended Los Angeles City College, Northwestern University and later Juilliard School of Music, in New York City.

Holmes organized his band in 1934, his first job being in Phoenix, Arizona. After a short time, he broke up the band and went back to the Coast as an arranger for Vincent Lopez.

Holmes replaced Glenn Miller in this job and stayed in the position for the next few years. Lopez and the band came to New York and added two new singers, Betty and Marion Hutton.

By 1940, Holmes had changed his job to work as arranger for Harry James, doing arrangements for Helen Forrest and Dick Haymes.

The purpose of the celebration is to acquaint all students with the customs and traditions of France.

The officers of the French Club are as follows: president, Jim Tuzzeo; vice president, Carl Blanchard; secretary, Carol Milner, treasurer, Sanford Smith.

During French Week, a contest will be held in the Student Union. Each day of the week a different sentence in French will be posted in the union. A free ticket to the Alfred Community Theatre will be given each day to the person providing the correct translation of the sentence.

Gouter will be sold in the student union on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday at 4:00. Gouter is a chocolate filled pastry.

Imaginative Scenery and Costumes To Enhance St. Pat's Performances

by Barbara Strauss

This year's St. Pat's play, "Brigadoon," will have the Scottish accent on all phases of production—from musical numbers like "Heather on The Hill" and highland flings to brilliant-hued tartans.

The set designs have been submitted; the plans accepted. Work on the scenery has begun under the supervision of technical director Professor C. Duryea Smith and a technical crew. The sets are described by Director Ronald Brown as being "highly imaginative in color."

Costumes, under Janet Weiss, will be designed and created rather than rented. The citizens of the village of Brigadoon celebrate fairtime with their brightest clan plaids, so the galaxies of colors resulting from flashing kilts and tartans should be a delight to the eye.

The first complete rehearsal of the show took place on Saturday with the orchestra, dance groups, and chorus participating. The dance routines, according to Professor Brown, are beginning to take shape and are extremely inventive.

The roles of Charley Dalrymple, the enthusiastic wedding groom, and Jane Ashton, the New York sophisticate who originally held hero Tommy's interest, are being played by William Crandall and Diane Graessle, respectively.

The two public performances that will be given in addition to the St. Pat's show, will be presented on Monday, March 17, and Tuesday, March 18.

Saints Back Again After the Parade

by Maxene Gorewitz

Coming to Alfred for their second consecutive St. Pat's Weekend are the St. Lawrence Saints.

The Saints will provide after-the-parade entertainment Friday afternoon, March 14 from 3-5 p.m. in South Hall.

The Saints are a fifteen voice professional group. They have appeared on both radio and TV as well as at colleges and high schools since their formation in 1950.

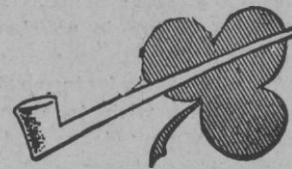

tory when the Massachusetts State Legislature passed a special resolution which allowed them to perform at a legislative session.

The Saints' repertoire ranges from the classics to jazz and rock and roll. The group also includes comedy in their routine. The Saints employ solos with choral backgrounds as well as ensemble renditions.

Unique is their technique of providing entertainment by providing a steady stream of narrative. Using all manners of musical tempos, the Saints also sing rounds.

The choral group is composed entirely of students and is conducted by a student leader.

Among the songs the group presented last year was a double rendition of "Aura Lee," first doing the original and then the "rock and roll" version, "Love Me Tender."

Among their appearances on TV was a guest spot on Steve Allen's "Tonight" show.

An interesting sidelight about the Saints is that they made his-

Ed Board Chosen To Guide Review

Those people interested in working for the Alfred Review attended an organization meeting last Wednesday in Alumni Hall.

The editorial board for this year's issue of the magazine were chosen at this time. Carole Silver and Stan Moskowitz are to be co-editors-in-chief. Charles Froome, Ruth Raider and Evadna Sterrett will take the positions of associate editors.

The business manager for this year's magazine is Dotty Frey and business secretary is Di Graessle. Faculty advisors are Dr. Ohara and Mr. MacDonald, both members of the English department.

An innovation this year is a board of lower classmen who will act as a consultative body and who will sit in on meetings of the regular editorial board as training for future leadership on the Review.

Manuscripts for the Review should be submitted to Box 176, without names on them and should be enclosed within a self-addressed envelope.

The College of Europe (Belgium) is offering competitive scholarships for 1958-1959 to college graduates. Anyone interested should see Dean Gertz. Applications close March 8, 1958.

Letter to the Editor

Dear Editor:

The great service programs of the American Red Cross are the practical expression of an idea—that neighbors want to help one another. The Red Cross provides a means—an organization through which this may be accomplished.

Last year Alfred failed to meet its quota of $1428. We are anxious to do so this year in order that valuable services need not be curtailed. These services include:

1. Aid to victims of natural disasters.
2. Assistance to servicemen, veterans and their families.
3. Training in the Health and Safety programs.
4. Blood program.

The Alfred University Red Cross Drive for students will be held February 24-March 10. We appreciate your support in the past and hope that your contribution will be a generous one this year.

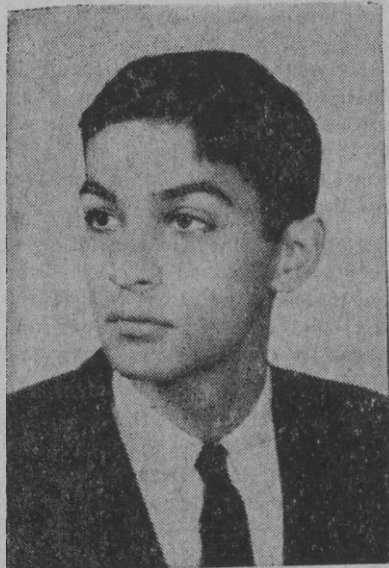

James Herrick, Alfred Fund Drive Ch.

A chest x-ray is required of all new students at Alfred University. Person falling in this category should report to the Ag-Tech Gym on March 6, between the hours of 1:00 and 4:00 p.m. There is no charge for this x-ray.

Any other students on the campus who wish to have a chest x-ray may do so at this time with no charge.

Leadership Conference Will Consider The Student in College Government

Richard N. Aswad of Harpur College and Harvey P. Dale of Cornell University will speak at the Leadership Training Program Conference on Saturday, March 1, in Myers Hall. This year's program will stress the role of the student in college government.

Richard N. Aswad

At 10 a.m., Dick Aswad will open the day's activities with a talk on "Theories of Student Government." He holds the offices of President of the New York State National Student Association (NSA) and President of the New York State University Student Governments.

In addition to these duties, Dick Aswad serves as Chairman of the National Executive Committee of the NSA, and as Chairman of its Interim Committee. He has formerly been president of the United Student Government of Harpur College.

Following a luncheon, "Roles and Duties of a Student Leader" will be discussed by Harvey Dale, First Vice President of Cornell Student Government. He spent three months at the International Student Relations Seminar Study at Harvard University, and is a member of the National Executive Committee of NSA. Previously he held the position of vice president of this organization.

After each of these talks, discussions will be held in smaller groups. Such topics as "Student Government—Student Press Relationships," "The Price of Student Leadership," "The Student's Role in College Policy Making," and "The Qualities of Leadership" will be debated. Committee reports and summation discussions will culminate the day's events.

All student and faculty members interested in attending the Leadership Training Program may obtain their attendance blanks in this issue of the FIAT LUX. For further information, please contact Nancy Cashmere at Sigma Chi Nu.

"Vertebrate Religion" Stressed as The Base of Religious Emphasis Day

by Olyce Mitchell

"When it is time for religious services many students are either 'Holy Rollers' or 'sack-religious' (either they roll over in bed or they hit the sack)" stated Thursday's assembly speaker, Chaplain Richard Bredenberg opening Religious Emphasis Day.

He said that for them God exists only to help when they're in trouble. He listed three reasons for this: "Most of us have inherited our religion. We have never examined it for ourselves; We're in a religious group because of social pressure—it's the popular thing to be on God's side; We join it as an 'insurance' for a better lot in the hereafter."

He then defined sin as "an act or attitude by which the reality of God is denied or violated." The attitude or relationship of a person with God determines which side of the issues in life he's on.

VERTEBRATE RELIGION

He asked the students to examine reality (God) for themselves now that they're grown up. Only when they find it for themselves do they really have it. "This is hard to do—but the person who does it has a 'Vertebrate Religion,' one that is strong."

Many have a spineless religion. They don't take the trouble to deny or confirm God. Often they have no definition of Him. They have substituted a creed and then stopped thinking about the reality of God and the reason for the universe.

IS THERE A GOD?

"The atheist is important as he shoots holes in this theory." He, along with the skeptics, is looking for a rational answer to the question, "Is there a God?" Bredenberg compared trying to prove the existence of God with trying to prove the existence of love—"It can't be proven in rational terms."

Also, knowledge of God, like knowledge of love, cannot be communicated. Each person must find it for himself. Therefore, the doubter must make the leap of faith and say, "I will believe in God and act accordingly." Only by making this leap can a person have a true conviction—a "Vertebrate Religion." "I dare you to try it," challenged Chaplain Bredenberg.

DISCUSSIONS

A luncheon was held in Howell Hall following the assembly for the representatives of the campus religious groups, the residences, and faculty members connected with religious activities. At this meeting, some questions regarding religious activities on the campus were discussed. Ways to improve Chapel services and suggestions concerning the Chaplain's duties were among the questions discussed.

This first Religious Emphasis Day will be followed by others.

Former A.U. Student Returns To Campus as English Teacher

A former Alfred student, David F. Petteys, has returned to the University as an instructor in the English department.

Mr. Petteys was born in Hornell and resided there until he graduated from college. He was an English major at Alfred University, and during his school years, did much writing of poetry. He was one of the founders of the Alfred Review, and hence, an outstanding contributor to the magazine. Moreover, he also donated his talents to the drama club, for he was skilled in photography work.

After graduating from Alfred in

'51, he moved to New York City where he continued his photography work for a number of years. Following this, he spent some time in the service, and when his term was fulfilled, he settled down to pursue higher intellectual learning. At Columbia University, he received his M.A., with honors, in contemporary literature; his master's essay was centered about John Crowe Ransom. During his stay at Columbia, he worked under Tyn-dall, an outstanding man in modern literature, and wrote his dissertation under the guidance of Charles Van Doren.

gin of victory. Harry held Rochester's top man, Dick D'Amico, to five points; and Girmindl had himself a night with 24 points and a 50 percent average from the floor.

In the closing minutes Gary's deadly one-hander matched the Rochester squad bucket-for-bucket. (It is hard to praise Warren Sutton again because fine performances have come to be expected from the big freshman center, and he remained true to form last Wednesday.)

The defeat proved to be a costly one for the Rivermen, as it knocked them out of contention for a playoff berth in the NCAA small college championships. Buffalo has already received the nod and their 70-65 win over UR Saturday night will help to determine which district they represent.

"There But for You . . ."

LAST YEAR Buffalo filled a vacancy in the Mid-West zone, played host in the opening games, and was finally eliminated by Kentucky Wesleyan, runners-up in the tournament.

As news of the nominations came across the television set in the Union lounge an hour or so after the Rochester game, one of the ball-players flung his hat across the room in disgust. Four days earlier a basketball had bounced around the rim four times before it finally decided to go in and separate Buffalo from Alfred by only four points.

Work Started on Annual Key Show

Preparation for the Annual Blue Key Talent Show is now well under way. Auditions were held Sunday, Feb. 23, and several new and interesting acts have already been observed by Blue Key's program committee.

Each year, special presentations are offered by the faculty, members of the St. Pat's Board and the Blue Key. This tradition will be continued this year and upperclassmen will be glad to know that these groups are preparing new acts and skits for the year's show.

Red Cross Drive Begun This Week

The Annual Alfred University Red Cross Drive is being planned for two weeks, from February 24 to March 10.

Students in the various houses on campus will be asked to contribute. The fraternities and sororities will be headed by Dr. Melvin Bernstein and Mr. Robinson, and the dorms and the Castle will be responsible to Mrs. Wm. Small-back, Mrs. Klinefelter, Mrs. Elizabeth Houghton and Mrs. Lillian Pope.

Last year, due to an unfortunate conflict with the Alfred Ambulance and Bethesda Hospital Drive, Alfred failed to reach its set quota. It is hoped that this year Alfred will not only reach its quota but surpass it.

Kirkendale Will Recount U.S. Foreign Aid Views

by Ronda Shaner

The speaker for the assembly program February 27 will be Professor Kirkendale, assistant professor of Ceramic Engineering at Alfred.

Professor Kirkendale will speak on United States Foreign Aid as he has personally observed and helped administer it during the past few years. He will demonstrate how foreign aid is carried out with special reference to technical aid. He has had experience in administering this aid in the industrial division.

Since 1947, Professor Kirkendale has been on the staff of the Alfred College of Ceramics. In September 1954 he took a leave of absence and went to Israel as Ceramic Industrial Advisor under the I.C.A. program there.

While in Israel the Israeli-Arab war began and Professor Kirkendale and his family were evacuated to Italy. He was unable to return to Israel for seven months.

Under the I.C.A. program, Professor Kirkendale later served as ceramic advisor to the Ethiopian government until he returned to Alfred in September 1957.

His work abroad was primarily in the ceramic field. This included the exploitation of the raw materials, consultation, manufacturing, and the advising of the Israeli and Ethiopian governments in regard to exportation and importation.

Warriors Defeat Rochester; Bow to Statesmen at Geneva

by Jay Henis

Last Saturday was a frustrating day for Coach Pete Smith and his warriors. Besides the scheduled basketball contest with the Statesmen from Lake Geneva, the Saxons had to participate in an unscheduled tussle with a few uncooperative roads. The result was a split. They managed to push their bus through to Geneva but they lost the basketball game, 65-48. Last Wednesday, however, the purple and gold knocked off the University of Rochester in the highest scoring game of the year at the Men's gym, 80-78. Tonight they will meet Brockport at Brockport. Hobart, paced by Gary Mendez who scored 18 points, had little difficulty in beating the Saxons for the second time this season. It was the kind of a game in which the Statesmen could do no wrong and the Saxons could do (no right?)

After AU gt off to a quick 6-3 lead Hobart began to score. And they scored and scored and scored. They outscored the Saxons 15-2 in the next five minutes to open up an 18-8 lead. At the half the score was 31-21.

After three minutes of the second half Hobart opened up a 16-point lead and from there on in they just coasted. Alfred was unable to get a real offensive going as their shots bounced off the basket as though there was a lid on it.

Tuesday, however, the story was much different as the ball acted like there was a magnet in the basket. Four men broke into double figures for the Saxons; Gary Girmindl leading them with 24. It is hard to single out one player as the "Hero" of the game. Harry Bubnack put in 18 points, but that does not even give an indication of his true contribution to the victory. Harry tied Rochester's high scorer, Dick D'Amico, in knots and kept him that way.

Tonight Alfred will travel to Brockport to meet the Golden Eagles. They will be trying to avenge a 61-58 defeat earlier in the season.

Grapplers Bow To Ithaca 23-10; Will End Season With Buffalo

Saxon wrestlers were up at Ithaca last Friday night before the final duel match to be held with Buffalo in the Queen City this Saturday. After Alfred held a momentary 10-5 advantage, the Bombers pulled away to win, 23-10.

Jim Tenzel, at 130 pounds, and Frenchy LeBlanc, resting at 137, scored the only Warrior points as they pinned their Ithaca opponents.

This was preceded by a pin of Alfred's Frank Gilligan, and followed by two pins, two decisions and one forfeit by Coach Alen Yunevich's grapplers.

The contest brought Alfred's record to 3-5 as they prepare for their final match with the Bull wrestlers. After that will be possible entries in the Case Invitational Meet to be held Friday and Saturday, March 7-8.

The Huddle confidentially informed FIAT correspondent Crowbar this past week that several articles have been lost by students and found by Huddle employees. Persons interested in retrieving lost possessions should speak to Bess or John Zulia. If not reclaimed by June, everything goes to Crowbar.

Seniors Don Ties and Jackets; Buffalo Receives NCAA Berth

by Pete Shapiro

Garment District

TWO WEEKS from tonight, three loyal sons of Alfred will be performing what is for them a most unusual role. Droppers-by at the Men's Gym will see seniors Harry Bubnack, Bob Greene, and Howie Jarolmen donned in the tie-and-jacket uniforms of coaches rather than the white satins of Alfred courtmen. They will be piloting freshmen and varsity teams in a post-season match to raise funds for the proposed Basketball Hall-of-Fame in Springfield.

The haberdashery may be unusual, but the honor is well earned: Greene and Jarolmen have each given four years of service to the Saxon hoopsters, while as a transfer student, Bubnack gave his limit of three. Greene, a 6'2" forward from Suffern, carved himself a niche in the Alfred record book when his total after the R.I.T. game placed him fourth highest among Alfred scorers. His point average has been in double figures for the past two years.

Semper Fideles

IN THE backcourt, Bubnack has worked more quietly—in the statistical sense. However, the man who insists that Syracuse is a suburb of Minoa has used a booming set shot and quick-to-respond defense many times to Alfred's advantage. Harry's finest hour came in a losing cause and away from the home court. One wintry night up in Rochester last year, he caught fire and could do no wrong as he tallied 23 points to lead Jay McWilliams' club to a near-upset. Bubnack praised a loyal group of Cub Scouts in the back of the Palestra—chanting "Har-ry Bub-nack"—for some of his inspiration. The River City became an honorary suburb of Minoa.

Finally we look at Jarolmen, who has had to fill the often unrewarding spot of a reserve. As a freshman, the pride of Yonkers was top scorer on the squad with 214 tallies, third highest in history. Last January 18 the "Bear" demonstrated the sub's role in winning ball games. Coming off the bench fresh, but cooled off, Jarolmen's hustle and spark insured Alfred's 69-64 win over Hartwick in the vital closing minutes of the contest. The victory marked the beginning of the string of five straight home triumphs that will carry over into the 1958-59 season.

Fine Finale

WEDNESDAY night's home finale against Rochester was a suitable last appearance for the three courtmen. The squad played its best defensive game of the season to hold the almost overpowering Yellowjacket offense to 78 points, while Alfred rolled up the season high of 80 tallies. Although Saxon foul shooting almost caused their defeat, we must point to Bubnack and Gary Girmindl for the mar-
