Betty's Summer Vacation: last 2 days (Fri/Sat)!

Be sure to come to the Theatre Department's production of "Betty's Summer Vacation" by Christopher Durang. Relentlessly fierce, shocking and funny, this four-time Obie award-winning satire mercilessly exposes the "tabloid-ization" of American culture, as television and other media satisfy our obsessive appetites for devouring distasteful sides of human behavior.

Strong adult content; not recommended for children.

Tickets required. Reservations may be made via The Box Office link below, e-mailing performs@alfred.edu or calling 607.871.2828.

In a Mood

Did you know that 15% of AU students believe depression has interfered with their academic performance? The good news is, depression is very treatable through counseling and medication.

If it feels like more than heavy books are weighing you down, come to Depression Screening Day, Tuesday, Oct. 5 in the Knight Club from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. You can meet the AU Counseling Service staff and take a fast, free questionnaire to assess your mood.

For more information, contact AU Counseling Services at the Wellness Center: 607.871.2300.

Unique AU Scholarship Opportunity for Your Child or Someone You Know

The Annual Engineering and Materials Science Day is slated for Thursday, Oct. 28, 2010. High Schools in our region are invited to bring a maximum of 10 junior and/or senior students to Alfred University to participate in a scholarship opportunity.

Space is limited and applications to participate must be received no later than Thursday, Oct. 21.

The focus of the day is the Inamori School of Engineering Scholarship exam. Scholarships will be awarded based on the exam results. First, Second, and Third place students will each receive a 4-year scholarship that can be applied toward tuition in any of our engineering programs at AU (provided certain academic standards are maintained).

First place is $10,000 ($2,500 per yr), Second place is $8,000 ($2,000 per yr), and Third place is $6,000 ($1,500 per yr).

The day also includes tours of the laboratory facilities in the Inamori School of Engineering and lunch on campus.

For more information or an electronic registration form your school should contact: Marlene Wightman, Director of Continuing Education/Outreach, Phone: 607.871.2425, wightman@alfred.edu.

Advocacy and Activism for a Changing World

Join us at the Women's Leadership Center for our next Women of Influence speaker, Ms. Enid Borden '72. Ms. Borden is the president and CEO of Meals on Wheels Association of America where she lives and works to eradicate hunger and poverty every day.

Her presentation is titled "Advocacy and Activism in a Changing World" and will be on Thursday, Oct. 7, from 3:30-5 p.m. Her speech should be particularly interesting to AU students, many of whom are deeply involved in causes and social issues.

Ms. Borden will also discuss her recent involvement working with former President Bill Clinton on a task force addressing poverty in America.

Don't Merely Exist. Lead. Women's Conference 2010.

Find inspiration and encouragement to become a more confident emerging leader at the Women's Conference 2010. This capstone project of the Women's Leadership Academy of Alfred University will be held on Alfred University's campus on Saturday, Oct. 23.

The theme of the conference is "Don't Merely Exist. Lead." It speaks to all the opportunities available to young women and men. It also speaks to the challenges of making a difference, trying something new, and protecting your work/life balance.

Registration is $25 per person or $20 per person for a group of five or more. The registration fee pays for workshop sessions, a networking luncheon where you will meet and network with college students from outside Alfred University, a panel discussion, and various presenters from the western New York region.

To register for the conference go to <http://people.alfred.edu/...> or call the WLC at 607.871.2971.
