

Cohen Gallery to host holiday sale, collaborative Alfred University-Alfred State exhibition and sale
11/21/19

ALFRED, NY – Alfred University’s Cohen Gallery, 55 North Main St., Alfred, will host the Turner-Cohen Holiday Sale throughout much of the month of December. At the same time, the Gallery will host a collaborative exhibition and sale of artwork by students from Alfred University and Alfred State College.

Original artwork created by students in Alfred University’s School of Art and Design will be on sale at the Cohen Gallery for the Turner-Cohen Gallery Sale. Twenty percent of all proceeds will go to the Turner Gallery.

The Alumni Gallery at the Cohen will host the Alfred University-Alfred State College student exhibition and sale of artwork titled “Across the Street: Alfred University/Alfred State Pop-up Shop,” which features work by students in classes on both campuses. Alfred University Professor of Expanded Media William Contino and Alfred State Professor of Digital Media and Animation Michael Haleta bring their students together for an end of year print showcase highlighting a broad range of print media and artwork from students at Alfred University and Alfred State. Works for sale include: prints, jewelry, textiles, clothing and more.

An opening reception for both events, with refreshments, will be held Dec. 6 from 5 to 8 p.m. The Turner-Cohen Holiday Sale and “Across the Street” exhibition will be held during normal gallery hours from Dec. 6-22: Tuesday – Friday, 11 a.m. to 5 p.m.; Thursday, 11 a.m. to 7 p.m.; and weekends from noon to 4 p.m.
