

Winter Concert to showcase young talent in community

12/03/19

The Alfred University Junior Strings Program will present its annual Winter Concert Tuesday, Dec. 10 at 6 pm in Miller Theater. This concert is free and open to the community.

The program, under the direction of Professor of Music Dr. Lisa Lantz, is now in its 22nd year and features over 40 children ages 3-14 years from several area school districts and counties.

In addition to season favorites, several soloists from the private studio of Eugenia Meltzer and accompanied by Kurt Galvan will also perform. They include violinist Isabel Metz performing Praeludium and Allegro by Fritz Kreisler; violinist Grace Lee performing La Folia by Archangel Corelli; and cellists Bea Beaudry, Karrie Edwards, and Eugenia Meltzer performing a cello trio Berceuse by Franz Schubert.

A special feature will be the new Twinkle Class of 2019.

A reception will follow in the Miller Theater Lobby.
