Name change announced for new CSI: Alfred

Alfred University's 'Office of Student Activities and Powell Campus Center' is officially changing its name to the 'Center for Student Involvement.'

"The change reflects the broadening scope of our responsibilities, which comprises more than just student activities and campus center management," said Dan Napolitano, returning Director of Student Activities. Specific changes include the appointment of Mechele Romanchock as Coordinator of Diversity Programming and Tricia Debertolis' new role as the Director of New Student Programs. Alfred graduate students Jessica Ecock, Eric Howard, and Erica Arlequin will also be filling graduate internships as part of the team.

The center's newly created mission statement reads 'The Center for Student Involvement contributes to the overall success of students by providing engaging opportunities and innovative activities with an emphasis on building a strong community where every member is encouraged to contribute and diversity and uniqueness are celebrated.'

The physical space is also undergoing a dynamic transformation under the direction of Nancy Banker, the center's returning support staff and office manager. An open house is being planned for the lunch hour on Friday, Aug. 31 and will also serve as a 'welcome reception' for Romanchock, whose appointment followed many years of students petitioning for a full-time diversity programmer along with the elimination of a previous assistant director position necessary to establish a new position. Romanchock, whose background includes serving in the Peace Corps in Africa and working for Literacy Volunteers of Allegany County, will strengthen and enhance the center's continued diversity initiatives.

The newly restructured center will still be housed in the same office suite in the Powell Campus Center with its phone number remaining (607) 871-2175. E-mail correspondence can be sent to CSI@alfred.edu.

Ceramics payroll now on Banner

As announced previously, beginning Aug. 1, 2007, the responsibility for processing the payroll for employees in the NYS College of Ceramics has been transferred from the State of New York to Alfred University. This method is consistent with the practices of Cornell University and its statutory colleges, and will actually result in real savings of time and effort for several of our employees in the payroll and business offices. This change will have no net effect on levels of compensation or benefits. (See official announcement at link below)

For hourly employees, submit hours worked from 7/29 through 7/31 on the existing timesheet. This will be your final State paycheck and will be received on Aug. 22, 2007. This Aug. 22 partial paycheck will also include the 5 days from the Salary Withholding Program that the State mandates be withheld for new employees that are classified as Management/Confidential or Support Staff. The only deduction from this Aug. 22 partial paycheck other than taxes will be base retirement plan deductions.

The new Ceramics timesheet reflecting the new Banner payperiod is located on the Human Resources Web page at the link below and should be used beginning Aug. 1. The first AU "Banner" paycheck will also be a partial and will be received on Aug. 24.
