

Alfred University alumnus honored as 'Innovation Ambassador

6/08/18

Don McPherson &84 MS, &88 PhD, who in May received an honorary Doctor of Science degree from Alfred University, is one of eight members of the 2017-18 class of Innovation Ambassadors, chosen by the AAAS and the Lemelson Foundation.

McPherson is the co-inventor of glasses that correct for color-blinded and co-founder and chief science officer of EnChroma, Inc., which manufactures the glasses.