

Art & design dean's work to be displayed in NYC gallery

10/07/08

The artwork of Joseph S. Lewis III, dean of the School of Art & Design at Alfred University will be featured in "Joe Lewis P.I.E. Post Industrial Revolution," which opens Thursday, Oct. 23, from 6-8 p.m., at Kathleen Cullen Fine Arts, 508 West 26th St. Suite 5A. The show runs through Nov. 29, 2008. A nationally known artist, arts administrator, educator, and author, Lewis came to Alfred University from the School of Art and Design at the Fashion Institute of Technology, New York City, where he was dean for three years. Prior to that, Lewis was chairman of the Art Department at California State University-Northridge for six years and was a tenured professor, teaching visual arts. He is a member of the board of directors of California Lawyers for the Arts and a full member of the American Society of Composers, Authors and Publishers. Lewis earned a master of fine arts degree from Maryland Institute College of Art, Baltimore, and a bachelor of arts degree from Hamilton College, Clinton, NY. Kathleen Cullen Fine Arts is open Tuesdays through Saturdays from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. For more information call 212.465.8500, or go to www.kathleencullenfineart.com.
