Norovirus

There have been cases of the Norovirus at local ERs. The Norovirus is a virus that causes irritation of the stomach and intestines and generally presents as vomiting and diarrhea. Symptoms of the virus will continue for several days but you should notice gradual improvements.

If you feel like you have the Norovirus:

For the first 8-12 hours drink only clear liquids (water, Gatorade, apple juice, 7-up, etc.
After that, begin bland foods (bananas, plain rice, applesauce, toast, mashed potatoes, etc)
Wait until you feel well for 24 hours before trying spicy/greasy foods or any dairy products

Do Not:

Use over-the-counter medication to stop the diarrhea, unless told by your doctor or Health Services or
Drink beverages with caffeine or ingest dairy during this illness

Call your doctor if you experience any of the following:

Increase of constant pain
Inability to retain fluids
Continuously high fever
Decreased urination
Red or black bowel movements
Confusion, unusual sleepiness or drowsiness
Abdominal pain that remains in just one area

Tax Returns Prepared for Free

Visit the Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA) site at Alfred University and have your tax return prepared and filed for free by an IRS-certified volunteer preparer.

As part of their career development, our MBA-Accounting candidates are running a VITA site this year. VITA is an IRS program designed to help low and moderate-income taxpayers complete their annual tax returns at no cost. The program's original concept was to provide local taxpayers with free tax return preparation by accounting students.

To set up an appointment, simply dial " 2 1 1" on your telephone. (Dialing 211 will connect you with a United Way representative who will make your appointment.)

VITA headquarters is in Seidlin Hall, Room 016

Tax work will take place Thursdays only, 5-7 p.m. beginning Feb. 7, 2013, and ending March 7,

For more information, or if you have any trouble setting up an appointment, please email the Alfred University VITA site at bamberg@alfred.edu.

Institute for Cultural Unity Seeks Student Employees!

The Institute for Cultural Unity (ICU) is looking for enthusiastic and motivated students to become Institute Coordinators.

The Institute for Cultural Unity is a resource center that develops self-awareness and respect for others through the sharing of experiences and cultures. The ICU is located on the 1st floor of the Powell Campus Center. Institute Coordinators will be responsible for:

- * communication on behalf of the Institute for Cultural Unity (including talking with tour groups, networking with alumni, welcoming students to the space, and using social media communications with members).
- * acting as peer educators (including attending trainings, leading training, performing conflict mediation, and building a resource library).
- * managing the facilities (including reservations, ensuring cleanliness of spaces, and preparing spaces for events).

To apply, please fill out the attached application and return via email to icu@alfred.edu or deliver it to the Institute for Cultural Unity on the 1st floor of the Powell Campus Center.

All applications must be returned by Friday, Feb. 1. Group interviews will be scheduled between 10 a.m. and noon on Saturday, Feb. 9. Applicants are encouraged to attend the first ICU training on Friday, Feb. 8 from 3-5 p.m.

Becky Prophet and Zachary Mazejka are 2013 Spirit of Service Award Winners!

We would like to congratulate Becky Prophet (Theatre Faculty) and Zachary Mazejka (Student) on winning the 2013 Spirit of Service Award!

Other nominations from Alfred University were Faculty Members Robyn Goodman, Nancy Furlong, and Wes Bentz, and Students Autumn McLain, Casey Duncan, and Shane Farnum.

Nominees and Award Winners were announced at the 3rd Annual Celebration of Service on Jan. 24. The Celebration is a part of Dream Week, a collaborative effort with Alfred State College to honor the life and service of Martin Luther King, Jr.

The Spirit of Service Award recognizes Students, Faculty, and Staff from Alfred University and Alfred State College, as well as Community Members, who demonstrate a strong commitment to serving others. This award is intended to honor people who are actively living out the principles that Martin Luther King, Jr. stood for, including: equality, social justice, community, and service.

Award winners from Alfred State College are Sandra Dennison (Auxiliary Campus Enterprises and Services, Inc.) and Leslie (Pheonix) Teagarden (Student). Other ASC nominations included Faculty/Staff Members Mark Payne, Melvin Chambliss, and Debra Mayes, and the Brothers of Pi Rho Zeta (Students).

The Community Award went to Jeanne Hyland, owner of Hair Care. Bob Amico was also nominated.

Congratulations to all nominees and winners; we thank you for your selfless service to the community.
