

THIS MONTH IN THE ARTS

ALFRED UNIVERSITY

DECEMBER 13, 2021

PEACE + JOY
THIS HOLIDAY
SEASON AND THROUGHOUT THE YEAR

School of Art and Design + Performing Arts Division Dean's Office

Arts@Alfred

---

Arts News

Share Arts @ Alfred

Summer Arts BIPOC Residency

Arts at Alfred University's BIPOC (Black, Indigenous, People of Color) Artist-in-Residence program provides artists with opportunities to dive deeply into their artistic research and practice, and creative endeavors. The goal of the residency is to provide a cross-cultural destination at Alfred University for early-career BIPOC artists to enhance social/racial justice or combat structures of white supremacy. This will serve artists who have been historically underserved and remove systematic barriers.

Fall 2021 Senior Shows

Alfred University's School of Art and Design is hosting its annual Fall exhibition of work by students receiving their BFAs at the conclusion of the fall 2021 semester.

January Public Webinar given by Jenni Sorkin

Jenni Sorkin, Getty Research Institute Senior Scholar-in-Residence, 2021-22 and Associate Professor, History of Art & Architecture University of California, Santa Barbara will give a public lecture via zoom webinar on Thursday, January 27 at 5pm. Registration and lecture details coming in early January.

Solo exhibition by Paul Catanese in the TSI Harland Snodgrass Gallery

Artist Paul Catanese will have a solo exhibition in the TSI Harland Snodgrass Gallery in Harder Hall, School of Art & Design at Alfred University. The exhibition will be on view January 17 - 30, 2022.

Womxn of Alfred Exhibition at the 2022 NCECA Conference

Womxn of Alfred, an exhibition on view during the 2022 NCECA Conference, highlights mentorship, intersectional feminism, and empowerment through artworks by female/trans/femme graduate candidates and their faculty, Turner Teaching Fellow, and technicians at the New York State College of Ceramics at Alfred. Participants include Linda Sikora, Megan Smythe, Hannah Thompsett, Adero Willard, Javaria Ahmad, Margeaux Claude, Katie Fee, Noah Greene, Jackie Head, Jolie Ngo, Paige O'Toole, Rose Schreiber-Stainthorp, and Victoria Walton.

Peer Bode Retired Professor of Video Arts featured in film series at MoMA

Retired Professor of Video Arts Peer Bode will have his work "Front Hand Back Hand". Peer Bode. 1977. Video (color, sound), 2:57 min. featured as part of the film Series Modern Mondays at MoMA

Sondra Perry featured in Season 2.0 of the podcast series

Alfred University alumna Sondra Perry ('12) is featured in Season 2.0 of the podcast series, Barbara London Calling, one of 12 conversations with groundbreaking artists working at the forefront of media technology.