Congratulations to All Graduating Students!

Please take a minute to fill out the Career Development Center's graduate survey. Whether you have your plans settled or not (e.g. employment or graduate school), we'd like to hear about it. The CDC uses this information to understand the job and grad school market for AU students. The info is confidential and is not reported in a personally identifiable way.

If you have questions about the survey or need career assistance of any kind, please contact us at 871.2164 or cdc@alfred.edu

Ned Allen's Recital

Thursday at 7 p.m., come see the culmination of my vocal work here at AU. I have been taking private voice lessons with Rebecca Weever for all but one of my semesters here. It will be in the upstairs of Susan Howell Hall, and it will go for under an hour. There will be a small reception afterward with cookies and, if you are all good, juice.

I will be singing selections from Schubert, Quilter, Handel, Bock, Niles, and Lennon and McCartney. If it matters, I am a Baritone, which is that weird one in between Tenor and Bass.

'COLORSCAPES'

Family and friends in town? Bring them to the Ceramics museum Wednesday through Friday, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m., top floor of Binns-Merrill Hall, for a viewing of the current exhibition, COLORSCAPES. There will be special hours during Senior Shows, Saturday, May 5, we are open noon - 4 p.m. All are welcome!

"COLORSCAPES" is curated by guest curator Kala Stein, visiting instructor in Ceramics at the college. The exhibition surveys three prominent colors in ceramic history - brown, white, and green. Over 60 pieces from the collection are on display with the addition of contemporary pieces on loan. The works are presented in three compositions to create a sense of a great ancestry in color.

Hornell Community Theatre Presents - ♦Old Ringers♦

"Old Ringers," a hilarious, adult comedy, will be presented May 3-5 & 10-12, 2012 at 7:30 p.m. at the new Hornell Community Arts Center (formerly, Ponderosa) on Broadway in Hornell.

"Old Ringers," written by Joe Simonelli, follows a group of senior citizens struggling to make ends meet in an unpredictable economy.

Penny Smith will direct Hornell Community Theater's 13th production.

The show features the talents of Missy Logan, Debbie Bossie, Robin Kerr Wilson, Nancy Nisbet, Dawn Hopper, Chris Van Leeuwen, and John Ashworth.

"We have a nice mix of veteran actors and newcomers," said Smith. "They have been a pleasure to work with! I am also pleased to have Elena Wallace return as my Assistant Director."

Tickets for "Old Ringers" are $10 and will be available only at the door.

Artist as Entrepreneur: Boot Camp

The New York Foundation for the Arts (NYFA)'s "The Artist as Entrepreneur: Boot Camp" is an intense 5-session course that trains 50-60 artists in the fundamental principles of sustainability - and ultimately profitability - in the arts. This includes classes on finance, accounting, law, marketing, and fundraising. The structure is a blend of formal lectures, breakout groups, take-home assignments, and one-on-one consultations.

This July, NYFA and NYU Steinhardt Performing Arts Administration Program will collaborate in presenting "The Artist as Entrepreneur: Boot Camp," for members of the performing arts community including, dance, theater, film, music, music composition and more. The program will take place on the NYU campus and be led by a team of NYFA staff and expert presenters from the performing arts community.

Now in its third year, "The Artist as Entrepreneur: Boot Camp" has earned rave reviews from participants and generated significant interest from the wider community. Participating artists have produced two arts festivals and developed networks and opportunities that continue well beyond the close of the program.

The Artist As Entrepreneur Boot Camp runs on July 13-15, and 21-22, and will take place on the NYU campus. Five sessions: July 13 (evening introductory session), and July 14, 15, 21, and 22 (daylong sessions, approximately 10 a.m. until 5 p.m.).

For questions, please contact us at bootcamp@nyfa.org with "NYFA/NYU Boot Camp" in the subject line.

Deadline: Friday May 18, 2012
