Cohen Artistic Promise Prize Exhibitions: Ladia Guerra & Victoria Kue

Ladia Guerra and Victoria Kue
Cohen Artistic Promise Prize Exhibitions
Friday, February 2 - Friday, March 16, 2018

Ladia Guerra: The Sweat Life

Ladia is fascinated by the artificial world created by contemporary society and is interested in the actions we take to make our lives happier through consumption and social pressure. She observes this by researching American pop culture through social media, television, and personal experience and manipulates her observations through the self. The self acts as a blank canvas to express feelings about her upbringing and her culture.

"The Sweat Life" explores domestic spaces and the way in which we interact in and view them. The artist has created video works conveying the feeling of loneliness, belonging, and the somewhat grotesque nature of private domestic spaces. The videos insight laughter, feelings of unease, and offer a psychological twist on what a domestic space can be through the lens of commercial objects and characters.

www.ladiaguerra.com

Victoria Kue: what's her face.

Victoria's studio practice stems from her query of autobiography and the investigation of the female narrative within her Hmong-American perspective. Victoria's observations from cultural, bodily and emotional experiences direct her approach to material and representation. Her sculpture, installation, drawings and abstractions evoke conversations about self-identity through patterns, color and language.

"what's her face." pushes back at the familial interrogation of a sexually active Hmong-American woman who negotiates and claims ownership with her identity, body and sexuality. Using the house as the setting to confront self-identity, "what's her face." explores placement, function and language within domestic objects as a way to recognize the discomfort, struggles and paradoxes within sexual relationships.

The 2016 Cohen Artistic Promise Prize recognized two graduating seniors whose work, hunger, sustained growth and ambition marked them out as those who would continue on as artists beyond their academic training. The Prize, which granted the recipients concurrent solo shows at the Cohen 18 months following graduation, was designed to foster the growth begun in school, encourage the continuation of artistic practice and support the drive needed to reach full artistic potential.

New Paper Time Sheets

*All Hourly Employees and Supervisors of Hourly Employees*

Human Resources has revised the paper time sheet to include a position title number which will help us easily identify what position these hours are for. This is especially helpful when an employee has multiple jobs. That number can be found on the employees BannerWeb time sheet, either by the employee or the Supervisor.

We have also included an in-out-in-out section on each day, please be reminded that per NYS law if an employee works over a six hour shift they are required to take a 30 minute unpaid meal break.

There is also a reminder at the bottom of the time sheet that the Supervisor is the one who needs to bring the time sheet back to Human Resources, not the employee.

This change is effective as of 2/16/18, any copies of old paper time sheets that you have should be discarded. The new work study time sheets are pink and the non-work study are green. Students/Employees should come to Human Resources for a paper time sheet if they need one.

**Please note, this is just for late time sheet submissions if hours are missed being put into BannerWeb. Everyone should still submit their hours on BannerWeb, however, if you miss the submission deadline this is where a paper time sheet will be relevant.**

Any questions, please contact Kayleigh Misner.

Alfred Box of Books Library: Reading & Discussion on James Baldwin's America

SUNY Alfred State and Alfred Box of Books Library with funding and support from Humanities New York will be presenting a Reading and Discussion Program on James Baldwin's America. This six week program will run on each Tuesday afternoon from 5 to 6:30 p.m. March 20 through Tuesday, April 24. This reading series will meet at the Alfred Box of Books Library and will be led by SUNY Distinguished Professor Emeritus Joseph Flynn. Joe introduced the first courses in Afro- American literature at Alfred State in the early 1970s and remains an active scholar in that field.

James Baldwin was an American writer and novelist whose works are socially relevant narratives on race and class struggles in America. Born in Harlem in 1924, the grandson of a slave, Baldwin grew up in poverty. His early experiences gave him a lens for viewing the world and writing on social issues. Notes of a Native Son a collection of essays was published 60 years ago.

Our reading and discussions will focus on Baldwin's essays, poems and short stories and will give participants an opportunity to understand the historical events surrounding Baldwin's writings, his view of race and class struggles in America, and how these conversations are still relevant today.

Interested participants are asked to email Alfred Box of Books Library at Alfred@stls.org no later than Friday March 9. Please include name, occupation, email and telephone number and tell us why this group would help you in your work, community or family. Accepted interested participants will be notified when the book is available to pick up at the library.

Any questions can be sent to Alfred@stls.org or you can call the library at 607-587-9290.
