

Alfred University alumnus to share his experiences during Environmental Studies Speakers Series
10/17/17

Michael Talbot, a 1986 alumnus of Alfred University, will speak at this week's Environmental Studies Speakers Series, scheduled for 12:20 p.m. Friday in Roon Lecture Hall, Science Center, on the Alfred University campus.

Talbot, who is superintendent of Public Works for the City of Auburn, NY, will speak on "Landfill Operations, Curbside Material Collection and Its Impacts on a Small Community."

He earned a degree in geology from Alfred University.