Electronic Forms Service Now Available from ITS

In an effort to streamline AU's data collection process, ITS is now offering an Electronic Forms service to the campus. AU offices may now convert existing paper forms to online forms using Adobe Acrobat 9 Pro.

Specially formatted PDF forms can be submitted to an E-Forms administration page on the staff portal. The forms are reviewed by ITS and published to the E-forms pages on the staff and student portals.

Once the forms have been filled out, they can be retrieved from a restricted folder on AU's U drive. For the safety of the AU community, ITS cannot publish any forms asking for Social Security numbers or any other sensitive personal information.

Any staff member interested in submitting E-forms for publication must obtain permission from a supervisor and complete required E-Forms training. Training will be provided on an as-needed basis.

Collegiate Main Street Luncheon

On Thursday, Dec. 10, there will be a Collegiate Main Street luncheon from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m., hosted by Jeannie Hyland of Hair Care, Jenn Albrecht, and Len Curran of Alfred Hair and Tanning, and John John and Chelly Ninos of the Collegiate. At the luncheon, the Thursday JET specials will be served: baked ziti, lasagna, salad, and rolls. The organizers are looking for donations of baked goods (possibly with a holiday theme) for a bake sale and help in spreading the word.

Tables will be set up on the Main St sidewalk unless the weather is very inclement, in which case it will be in 17 N Main, where the Art Gallery just vacated.

Each lunch will be $10, and all proceeds will go to the Alfred Fire Relief Fund. This is a good time for all the Collegiate family to gather together (especially before the holidays), eat our favorite Thursday food, see old friends, and remind ourselves that we are still one united community with much to be grateful for.

If you would like to help in any way, you can reach Jeannie at Hair Care (587-8400) and Jenn and Len at Alfred Hair & Tanning (587-9071).

On that same day from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m., nine area artisans will be selling their work at the Crandall Fire Hall with a portion of each sale to benefit the Alfred Fire Department. Prices will range from a few dollars up. Pottery, toys, ornaments, wood carvings, jewelry. Please note that parking is not allowed in the Fire Hall lot; use the side streets for parking.
