

Women's Leadership Institute scheduled for July 27-31, 2008

3/07/08

The Alfred University Women's Leadership Center will host the Women Leaders of Tomorrow Institute Sunday, July 27 through Thursday, July 31. Throughout the program young women will have the opportunity to discover their leadership potential through a series of skill-building workshops, self-reflection exercises, and collaborative projects. The Institute covers a number of topics ranging from defining leadership, to creating a personal mission statement, to learning how to manage conflict effectively. This program is designed for students entering their sophomore, junior, or senior year of high school, who are committed to a process of self-reflection and growth. The institute is directed by Amy Jacobson, director of the AU Women's Leadership Center and Mark McFadden, director of the AU Career Development Center. Students will arrive on Sunday afternoon and leave after lunch on Thursday. The cost is $595. This includes a $100, non-refundable deposit and covers tuition, supervision, program materials, recreational activities, room and board, and meals. Students will stay in residence halls on the Alfred University campus. To apply, students must complete the application form, submit an up-to-date high school transcript or report card, two letters of recommendation from high school teachers, and a $100 deposit. All application materials must be submitted by Monday, March 17. Applications can be sent to Office of Summer Programs, Alfred University, Saxon Drive, Alfred, NY 14802, or faxed to 607.871.2045. For further information contact the Office of Summer Programs at 607.871.2612, or go to the Web site at <http://www.alfred.edu/sum...>. For specific information concerning the Institute content contact Jacobson at 607.871.2971.