

Lexington (NC) Glassworks gathering
8/06/15

Alfred University Alumni Billy Guilford, Ashleigh Hardes, and Geoff Koslow, all members of the Class of 2010, invite you to come to Lexington Glassworks Friday, Oct. 16 from 6-9 p.m. to mingle with other AU alumni, parents, and friends and experience the art of glass blowing featuring Angus Powers &00, associate professor of glass at AU. Witness firsthand the artistic abilities and dedication it takes to create some of the most beautiful glass pieces in the country.

Cost for the event is $10 per person. Complimentary hors d'oeuvres and a cash bar will be available.

Lexington Glassworks, the creation of owners/glass artists Billy and Geoff, is a 5,000-square-foot contemporary glassblowing studio and gallery featuring live demonstrations, custom lighting, handmade glass, and a taproom highlighting local beers served in hand-blown glass. Billy and Geoff bring a combined decade of glassblowing experience and arts management to their Glassworks operation. To learn more, visit www.lexingtonglassworks.com

Lexington Glassworks is at 81 S. Lexington Ave., Asheville, NC (828.348.8427)

Please RSVP to the Office of Alumni Engagement by Monday, Oct. 12 in one of the following ways:

Online: www.alfred.edu/alumni/register

Phone: 607.871.2144