

Eight venues open for Alfred Art Walk

1/26/18

ALFRED, NY – Stroll through Alfred, NY, Friday, Feb. 2, between 6 and 9 p.m. to view exhibitions in eight galleries and venues scattered throughout the village.

The event is free and open to the public. Participating venues include:

The Alfred Ceramic Art Museum. Two exhibitions open that evening.

Fosdick-Nelson Gallery, Alfred University. Queering Space exhibition. Curated by Loren Britton, Christie DeNizio, Sara Ferguson, Asad Pervaiz, Res and Erica Wessmann.

Robert C. Turner Gallery, Alfred University. “Visibility,” student-curated from LGBTQ and allied artists; “Happiness Without Struggle,” by Charlie Best and Brittany Belvette.

Cohen Gallery, Alfred University, 55 N. Main St.

Gallery 2 Gifts of Distinction, 43 N. Main St.

The Rosebush restaurant, North Main Street: “Behold, a Lady,” by Adrianna Enoch, Lauren Havel and Corran Shrimpton.

Alfred Sculpture Park, North Main Street: Works by Glenn E. Zweygardt, professor of sculpture emeritus, New York State College of Ceramics, Alfred University.

Bret Llewellyn Gallery at Alfred State College Engineering Technology Building, Third Floor, Room 312 “Queering Space Lounge.” Student-generated space responding to realities of living queer in rural Alfred.