New Updates to Accident/Incident/Near-miss Reporting Forms

Please review the new updates to the Accident/Incident/Near-miss Policy. A NEW form has also been created which you can find on the Public Safety, Enviro Health & Safety and Human Resources websites.

Please use the new form to submit all accidents, incidents, and near-misses to EHS via secure fax 607.871.2190 or email haasec@alfred.edu within 48 hours of any report.

Training for supervisors will be held in February; all supervisors should plan to attend if you have not already done so in the past year. Watch Alfred Today for dates and times.

American Red Cross Blood Drive

Sooner or later, most of us will face a time of great vulnerability in which we will need blood. Why not donate Thursday, Jan. 30, any time from noon until 6:30 p.m. at Ade dining hall? Your donation will take between an hour and 75 minutes.

If you would like an appointment, please sign up using the Web site below. WALK-INS ARE WELCOME TOO!

Can't donate, but still want to help? We need volunteers too. Please contact studentaffairs@alfred.edu to find out about volunteering some time.

Thank you to the Athletics training group for sponsoring this blood drive.

'New Mythologies: Supernatural States and Polar Explorations'

The Fosdick-Nelson Gallery at Alfred University is proud to present "New Mythologies: Supernatural States and Polar Exploration," an exhibition featuring the photographs of Scott Alario, Simen Johan, Sarah Anne Johnson, Lydia Anne McCarthy, and Grant Willing.

The exhibition, curated by Lydia Anne McCarthy, will open with an artist's reception on Friday, Jan. 31 from 7-9 p.m. and will be on view through Sunday, Feb. 23, 2014.

Sarah Anne Johnson will be giving an Artist's Talk prior to the opening reception on Jan. 31 at 4:30 p.m. in Nevins Theater.

Lydia Anne McCarthy and Scott Alario will give a Gallery Talk on Wednesday, Feb. 12 at noon.

All events are free and open to the public.

The artists in the exhibition re-imagine the Nordic landscape using photography to create alternate realities that both dazzle and quietly threaten. Inspired by the stark environment, extremes of dark and light, folklore, personal history and contemporary culture, each artist eschews the bounds of the traditional photograph in exchange for an experimental, manipulated approach, constructing place and disorienting the viewer. While the tools used are varied, each artist's work alludes to the uncertainty of our present moment and its convergence with the past.

The Fosdick-Nelson Gallery is located on the third floor of Harder Hall on the Alfred University campus. Gallery hours are Monday through Friday 11 a.m. to 4 p.m., and 1-3 p.m. on Saturday and Sunday.

For more information about this show or upcoming events visit the website at: fosdicknelson.alfred.edu or contact Director, Sharon McConnell at mcconnells@alfred.edu.

Film Screening: 'The Black Candle'

Date: Thursday, Jan. 30

Time: 5:30 P.M.

Place: Nevins Theater

Synopsis: "The Black Candle" is a landmark, vibrant documentary film that uses Kwanzaa as a vehicle to explore and celebrate the African-American experience.

Narrated by world renowned poet Maya Angelou and directed by award-winning author and filmmaker MK Asante, "The Black Candle" is an extraordinary, inspirational story about the struggle and triumph of family, community, and culture.

Filmed across the United States, Africa, Europe, and the Caribbean, "The Black Candle" is a timely illumination on why the seven principles of Kwanzaa (unity, self-determination, collective work and responsibility, cooperative economics, purpose, creativity and faith) are relevant today.

The first feature film on Kwanzaa, "The Black Candle" traces the holiday's growth from the first celebration in 1966 to its present-day reality as a global holiday embraced by over 20 million celebrants.

With vivid cinematography and an all-star cast that features NFL Legend Jim Brown, Hip Hop icon Chuck D, Kwanzaa's founder Dr. Maulana Karenga, artist Synthia Saint James, and many others, "The Black Candle" is more than a film about a holiday: it's a celebration of a people!
