

Lady Saxons finish Oneonta State tourney with two losses

10/13/02

ONEONTA The Alfred University volleyball team, competing in the Gold Medal pool of the Oneonta State Invitational, lost two games Sunday to Richard Stockton College and Clarkson University. The Lady Saxons (2-20, 0-7 Empire 8) dropped the first match in four games to Richard Stockton, 26-30, 31-29, 31-33 and 18-30. Freshman outside hitter Elizabeth Sanger (Greece/Arcadia) led Alfred with 11 kills and 29 digs, while freshman outside hitter Catherine Rieck (Walworth/Gananda) chipped in with 12 kills and 23 digs. Senior outside hitter Erin Murray (Candor/Candor) added 35 assists and 15 digs. In their final game of the tournament, AU lost to Clarkson in three games, 10-30, 26-30, and 21-30. Sanger led the team, totaling nine kills and 20 digs, while sophomore outside hitter Kathryn Lee (Winthrop, WA/Liberty Bell) had four kills and 11 digs. Murray chipped in with 11 assists and Rieck added five kills and six digs. The Lady Saxons will next be in action Tuesday, Oct. 15 when they travel to Keuka College for a 7 p.m. match.--30--