

Student recital is Sunday in Miller Performing Arts Center

4/21/05

Alfred University Performing Arts students in voice and instrumental music will perform in a recital at 3 p.m. Sunday in Room 301 of Miller Performing Arts Center. Cellist Stephen Peifer and Pianist Erin Paradis will perform "Allegro from Divertimento in B-flat Major" by Mozart and "The Entertainer" by Joplin. Peifer, a junior mechanical engineering major, is the son of Kathleen and Guy Charles Peifer of Fishkill, NY. He is a graduate of John Jay Senior High School. Paradis, a freshman in the School of Art & Design, is a graduate of Vestal Senior High School, is the daughter of Rosemary Paradis of Grippen Hill Road in Vestal. Peifer and Laurel Buckwalter, an instructor in Performing Arts, will perform "Allegro from Trio in G-minor" by Smetana. Peifer will also play a Faure elegy. Bassoonist Terri Seyfried, a senior biology major, will play a Chopin etude. She is the daughter of Joseph and Paula Seyfried of Alpine Drive, Webster, NY, and is a graduate of Webster Schroeder High School. Soprano Jaimie Pinkham, a sophomore theater major, will sing "Bewtiched" by Rodgers and Hart, and "Anyone Can Whistle" by Sondheim. She is the daughter of Debra Lynn Pinkham of Happytown Road and Bryon C. Pinkham of Mud Creek Road, both of Ellsworth, ME. She is a graduate of Ellsworth High School. Soprano Heather Rivera, a sophomore early education major, will perform "O del mio dolce Ardor" by Gluck. A graduate of Hornell High School, she is the daughter of Cynthia Stiles of Emmett Street, Hornell. Jennifer Pors, a soprano, has chosen "An die Musik" by Schubert and "Sure on this Shining Night" by Barber as her selections. She is a junior in the School of Art & Design. The daughter of William and Suan Pors of Somerset Street, Fleetwood, PA. Pors is a graduate of Fleetwood Area High School. Soprano Betsy Van Deusen, a senior in the School of Art & Design, will perform "One Life to Live" and "My Ship," both by Weill. Daughter of Karlene and William R. Van Deusen V of Dresser Road in Adams Basin, NY, Van Deusen is a graduate of Brockport High School. Barbara Bickford, a soprano, has chosen "One Perfect Rose," and "Nara Yama," a Japanese folksong, for her performance. She is a sophomore in the College of Liberal Arts & Sciences, and a graduate of Hill Regional Career Magnet School. Her parents are James and Theresa Bickford of Platt Street in Milford, CT. Baritone Nathaniel Smith, a freshman theater major, will sing "Danza, Danza fanciulla" by Durante, and "Deep River," arranged by Burleigh. He is the son of L'Tanya L. Portlock of Los Angeles, CA. and is a graduate of Beverly Hills High School. Tenor John Kalish, a junior in the College of Liberal Arts & Sciences, will perform "Vittoria, mio core!" by Carissimi and "Prairie" by Guion. He is the son of John William and Jeanne Marie Kalish of Roosevelt Place, Newburgh, NY, and is a graduate of Newburgh Free Academy. Pianist Danielle Sayegh will play "Nocturne in F-minor" by Chopin. A sophomore majoring in mathematics, Sayegh is the daughter of Mr. Jean J. Sayegh and Ms. Alice Farris, both of Fortune Drive in Allegany, NY, and is a graduate of Allegany-Limestone Central School. "Allegro" from "Sonatina in C-major" by Kuhlau and "Song without Words" by Mendelssohn are the piano selections chosen by Jessisa Goff, a junior psychology major. She is the daughter of Randel and Linda Goff of Main Street, Randolph, NY, and is a graduate of Randolph Central School. Junior business administration and economics major Joseph D. Underhill will perform Chopin's "Funeral March." He is the son of Richard and Jeanette Underhill of La Rue Road in Bath, NY, and is a graduate of Prattsburgh Central School. Paradis will also offer a piano solo; she's selected "Capriccio" by Brahms.