Mock Interview Week - Career Development Center

The Career Development will be holding Mock Interview Week, March 26-30.

This is the perfect opportunity to practice, brush up, or hone your interviewing skills prior to the real thing!

If you are in a class that participation is required or offering extra credit, sign up early as slots fill quickly. On the afternoon of Friday, March 23 only 1/3 of the time slots were still available.

Appointments are available on a first-come, first-served basis on Saxon JobLink. Attached is detailed information on how to sign up.

Business formal attire is preferred but business casual will be acceptable.

Reading by award-winning novelist

Join us for a reading by award-winning novelist Diana Abu-Jaber, the author of "Arabian Jazz," "Crescent," and "The Language of Baklava." She has a new book entitled "Origin" which will be published by W.W. Norton this summer.

Ms. Abu-Jaber grew up in Syracuse, NY, where she was raised by her American mother and Jordanian Father. Her Jordanian heritage and the stories her father shared with her are major influences on her writing.

Sponsored by NEH, the English Division, the WLC, and the Writing Center. Reception with book signing to follow.

Location: Susan Howell Hall
Event Date(s): 03/28/2007

Time: 5:30-6:30 p.m.

Women's Leadership Academy

As an Academy member you will devise a plan for leadership that suits your needs and interests. You will also learn skills that are essential to success in any field, including how to speak with confidence, how to manage your time and manage stress, how to lead and inspire others, and how to use technology effectively.

Women's Leadership Academy is more than a series of events, it's a network of women who help each other succeed!

Interested? Apply by Wednesday, April 4, 2007. Click on the link below to download an application, or contact the Women's Leadership Center at 871.2971 or wlc@alfred.edu for more information.

Last chance to register for self-defense!

Saturday, March 31, 2007
3 to 5 p.m.
Location: WLC In the Commons Building

Join the WLC for an afternoon of self-defense! Learn self-defense tactics and then use them on a padded "attacker."

Elise Flynn, together with a team of instructors from Alfred Martial Arts, will teach the basic elements of self-defense. The workshop will include some simple self-preservation strategies and an array of practical, effective techniques (with a focus on techniques for women). Participants will have ample opportunity to practice. Each participant will receive a certificate of completion. All are welcome.

Space is limited so register now for this fabulous (FREE) workshop! Call the WLC at 607.871.2971 or E-mail us at wlc@alfred.edu.

Senator Catharine M. Young to speak on campus

Faculty and staff are cordially invited to hear NYS Sen. Catharine M. Young speak at the Women's Leadership Center on Thursday, April 5, 2007 at 4:30 p.m. Her talk, entitled "Reflections on Leadership," is part of the Women of Influence speakers' series.

Sen. Young will reflect on her own path to leadership, and the challenges and opportunities for women leaders in general and in elected office in particular. All of us who are involved with the Women's Leadership Center are extremely pleased to host Sen. Young, and hope that you will be able to join us for this special event.

Please contact the Women's Leadership Center at x2971 by Tuesday, March 27 if you would like to attend this talk.

Student tickets are now available in the Powell Campus Center on a first-come first-served basis.

Thank you,
Kathy Woughter

Student Alert

Dear Faculty and Staff,

I just wanted to remind you all that the Student Alert Web form is available for you to use at any time over the course of the semester. The purpose of the Student Alert system is to ensure that a network is created to assist students in a timely way who might be dealing with academic and/or social issues.

Once the Web form is submitted it is automatically sent to the Dean of Students, the Director of Special Academic Services, the Director of the Counseling Center and the Director of Retention who, along with the members of the Persistence Committee, coordinate the outreach efforts.

The Web form link is located off the Faculty and Staff drop-down menu at our.alfred.edu.

If you have any questions or comments please e-mail Liz Lawton, Director of Retention, at lawtone@alfred.edu.

Thank you!

Liz

Nominations for University Judicial Board Members,

The Office of Judicial Affairs would like your assistance in recruiting new members for the University Judicial Board (UJB). Our system is designed to hold students accountable for the Student Code of Conduct, change problematic behavior through a structured educational process, and protect the University community and property. The UJB enables the campus community to take an active role in the judicial hearing process.

University Judicial Board members provide an important link between students and the University Student Judicial System and should reflect our diverse campus community. A nominee needs to possess strong interpersonal and communication skills, sound judgment, personal integrity, and demonstrate respect for others. The student nominee must also be in good academic standing and any past judicial history will also be taken into consideration. Given the high standards of this position, it is essential that the student must also possess maturity, inspires respect, sets a good example in attitude and general role modeling, and communicate well with others.

If you would like to submit a nomination of a student or faculty member to serve on the University Judicial Board, call or e-mail Norm Pollard (2132 or pollard@alfred.edu) by Friday, April 6, 2007. When doing so, please note that training for new board members will take place on Sunday, April 22 from 6:30 until 8p.m.

If you have any questions about the nomination process or student judicial system, please don't hesitate to contact me as well.

Norm Pollard, Ed. D.
