Censorship in Art Discussion this Wednesday

With a recent neon art piece on display in Harder Hall, a great debate has begun about censorship and when art "goes too far." As an educational community, this is a perfect opportunity to discuss and share perspectives regarding the topic.

The artist, supporters, critics, and the curious are all invited to be a part of the discussion moderated by Dan Napolitano, 1993 BFA grad and current member of the Bias Response Team. 5:30 p.m., Wednesday, in the Mocha Joka (2nd Floor of Harder Hall)

Staff and Student Volunteers Sought for Hot Dog Night

Last year's outdoor concert redefined Hot Dog Day. This year a new twist will require lots of help.

On April 26 (beginning at 7 p.m. and lasting until 11) the event will feature a BMX Show, Breakdancers, Free* Ice Cream Truck, Free Barbecue*, Mechanical Bull, Live DJ's, Fireworks, and an Amusement Park Ride.

We are looking for event staff to help set up, tear down, and/or work the event.

* Free food vouchers will be given to the first 750 AU/ASC students to arrive. Similar vouchers will be given to faculty/staff volunteers and their family members.
