AU begins 175th year with freshman class of 520, 80 transfers

ALFRED—Alfred University welcomed 600 new students during opening convocation ceremonies Friday, Aug. 23. Lynn Petrillo, adjunct associate professor of composition, opened the University's 175th year by reminding the students of the important contributions they will make to the AU community.

"You are Alfred University. This is already true. You are Alfred University's Class of 2014, now first-year students and someday — sooner than it seems — graduating seniors and then Alfred alumni," Petrillo told the group of 520 freshman and 80 transfer students gathered in the McLane Center gymnasium.

Petrillo urged students to make the most of the opportunity they have before them as they begin their time at AU, to be themselves and pursue their unique goals and ambitions, which will in turn build and strengthen the Alfred University community.

"Let's give some attention and honor to these individual personal selves we are, for this talk is intended to represent the first lecture of your university education, and a good college education, after all, teaches us to investigate thoroughly, to perceive sensitively, to intensify our awarenesses, and to embrace our possibilities," she said. "You. You are gifted one life. One life with its one corresponding chance to express your radiance, to actualize your potential, to become yourself, to be yourself. You."

"How you respond, how you receive and give and represent and become while you are here will create more than your personal experience of this campus. It will also directly and significantly contribute to making this institution itself," Petrillo said. "In turn, as you make Alfred University and represent Alfred

Merrill Field, Alfred University's home to the football, soccer and lacrosse teams, has new turf and new bleachers.

University wherever you go, Alfred University will help make you too."

Ana Devlin-Gauthier, Student Senate president, asked incoming new students to take full advantage of the opportunities that will be presented to them while at Alfred. She urged them to take their studies seriously, but also to pursue other interests.

"Value your education and give the University the respect it deserves. Focus on academics, but remember there is a lot to learn outside the classroom," Devlin-Gauthier said. "Alfred is the type of place where if you give, it will give back tenfold. I hope that in four years, when this group is back here, you will have created your own masterpiece that you can carry with you for the rest of your lives."

In welcoming the new students, Charles Edmondson, University president, described convocation as "the occasion that celebrates the rebirth of Alfred University for a new academic year." That occasion, he said, is important not only to the students, but also to the University's faculty and staff.

The 520 students making up this year's freshman class represent an increase over the 470 that made up last year's class. Returning students will arrive on campus this weekend, with classes slated to begin Monday, Aug. 23.

Alfred State College welcomes 1,500 new students

ALFRED--Alfred State College faculty and staff welcomed this year's incoming freshman class of 1,500 students during the 17th annual New Student Convocation. This year's speakers were Dr. Daniel Barwick, ASC Director of Institutional Advancement; Alfred J. ("AJ") LaMere, Rochester, Student Senate president; and Jennifer Lorow, ASC class of 2008.

In his remarks, Barwick told a story about a situation in his past that paralleled one his father had faced some 10 years prior to that. His father, it seems, held to his principles, losing his job by refusing to falsify a report. Barwick, faced with a similar situation as a young adult, buckled under the pressure from his supervisors and compromised his principles to keep a job.

The difference, he says, is "20 years later, I regret my decision every day; 30 years later, my father does not regret his. One of the hardest things you can do is to stay true to yourself, but it is also the most important thing you can do for yourself."

LaMere, taking the podium for his second new student convocation, began by congratulating the assembled freshmen on their choice of colleges.

He went on to recount the local, regional, and global disasters that made headlines last year, as well as the efforts made by Alfred State students, faculty, and staff to alleviate the suffering through commitments of time, energy, talent, and money.

"The satisfaction we feel when we are able to successfully help one another, despite the effort it might have taken, encourages us to do more. Unfortunately, the effort, time, and commitment often seem to be in short supply. So I challenge the students here today to take advantage of the time we have here, not only to succeed academically, but to succeed as humanitarians. This year you are going to be asked again and again and again — What's your passion. What makes you feel alive. And I want you to be able to name it and to share that passion with others around you!"

Lorow began by reminiscing about her years at Alfred State and how the experiences she enjoyed "inspired me and gave me the tools to help me find success after graduation."

Although she was "planning on getting involved on campus, the idea of jumping in from day one hadn't occurred to me."

Encouraged by her adviser to apply as a writing tutor, Lorow says, "I ended up loving the job. It felt rewarding to see the proverbial light bulb flash as the students gained understanding. The experience helped to reconfirm that I wanted to become a teacher. From there, I sought more experiences in my field by writing pieces for the newspaper and magazine. At my adviser's suggestion, I entered essay and scholarship contests. These activities helped develop my writing skills and earn some much needed financial aid."

MARGARET K. J. OHARA
Founded, coached women's swim team at Alfred University
ALFRED--Margaret "Maggie" Ohara of Alfred, died on Saturday, 14 August 2010, while recovering from heart surgery at Rochester General Hospital. She was born on April 14, 1928, reared and educated in Hawaii.

As a young girl, she performed as an aerial and acrobatic artist at civic organizations and a popular circus in Hawaii as well as the USO during World War II. An accomplished swimmer and diver, she held a Swimming National Championship which qualified her for the Olympic Games. A major disappointment was the cancellation of the Games because of the war.

Maggie was a certified civil service employer with positions at Pearl Harbor, Hawaii; Veterans Administration, Internal Revenue Service, Army Signal Corp--all in Philadelphia; and Fort Jackson, S.C. Her last employer was Alfred University where she worked in the business office.

But her main contribution is the AU Women's Swim Team which she founded and coached successfully.

The lasting images of Maggie are a graceful dancer and a gracious hostess. She loved dancing especially the fox trot, rumba, waltz, jitterbug--the old dances which she felt required precision and grace. She also loved to entertain family and friends, and this was expressed primarily through her dinners, simple and sumptuous. Cooking was almost a passion, and her favorite Asian-Hawaiian dishes were best realized at her annual Chinese New Year buffet supper. Many called her "the perfect hostess" or "the best cook." Whatever, she was dearly loved by many, and that includes her surviving family: her husband of 58 years, Dr. David M. Ohara, Emeritus Professor of English and Film at AU; daughter Stacey Kiyo Ohara of Los Angeles, CA; son Darren and his wife Deb; grandson Justin; and great granddaughters Mackenzie and Jaden.

According to Maggie's wishes, there will be neither a viewing nor a memorial service. Instead of flowers, please donate to the Alfred Ambulance Company or the charity of your choice.

To send a remembrance please visit www.brownandpowersfuneralhomes.com. The family is being assisted by Adam E. DuBois. Funeral arrangements are entrusted to the Robertson Funeral Home of Hornell.

VICTOR C. BIRD
Lifelong Alfred farmer
ALFRED -- Victor C. Bird, 90, passed away Monday (July 26, 2010) at St. James Mercy Hospital.

Mr. Bird was born on July 8, 1920 in Burns to Elmer and Esther (Deiter) Bird. He was a 1940 graduate of Canaseraga Central School. He married Louise Free-land, who survives.

Victor was a farmer in Alfred his entire life.

In addition to his wife, Victor is survived by three sons, Stewart (Katherine) Bird of Wellsville, Beryl (Marcia) Bird of Canaseraga and Elmer (Jo Ann) Bird of Nunda; four daughters, Sandra DeNovellis of Albuquerque, NM, Esther Howard of Tampa, FL., Mary (Jud) Stearns of Alfred Station and Vicky (Jack) Wells of Rochester; 20 grandchildren, 32 great grandchildren, and several nieces, nephews and cousins.

He was predeceased by two sisters, Marilyn Horr and Helen Wellington; a son, Edward C. Bird; a son-in-law, Albert Howard; and a great granddaughter, Jayme Ormsby.

There will be a private funeral service held at the convenience of the family. Burial will follow in Hillside Cemetery. Arrangements are under the direction of Baker-Swan Funeral Home in Andover.

JUDITH BURDICK DOWNEY
Sister of Carol Burdick
HAGERSTOWN, MD--Judith Burdick Downey, 78, of Hagerstown MD, passed away, Saturday, July 24, 2010, at the Ravenwood Lutheran Village, Hagerstown.

Born June 10, 1932, in Almond, New York, she was the daughter of the late Harold Ormond Burdick and the late Hannah Shaw Burdick. Her husband, Dr. William Downey preceded her in death.

She was a member of Unity Church in Palmyra, PA. While serving in the United States Army, she received her Physical Therapist Degree. Until recently she operated her own Holistic Therapy practice in Camp Hill, PA.

She is survived by her two sons, Thomas Downey and wife, Suzanne of Smithsburg, MD and Michael Downey of Hagerstown, MD; two grandchildren, Brian Downey of Reston, VA and Gretchen Downey of Smithsburg, MD.

She was preceded in death by one sister, Carol and one brother, Kenneth.

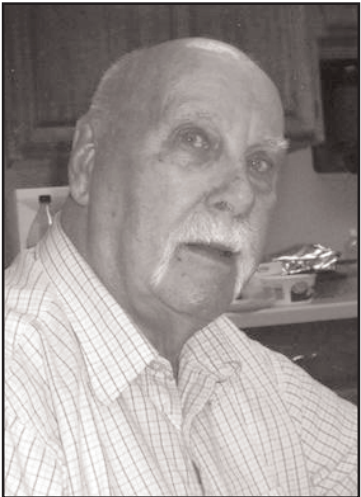

Memorial services will be held on Sunday, Sept. 12, 2010 at 1:00 PM at the Unity Church 37 East Main Street, Palmyra, PA with the Rev. Julie A. Vance officiating.

Memorial donations may be made to the World Wildlife Fund 1250 Twenty-Fourth Street, N.W.

P.O. Box 97180 Washington, DC 20090-7180.

Arrangements have been entrusted to the Douglas A. Fiery Funeral Home 1331 Eastern Blvd. North, Hagerstown, MD.

VICTOR E. STUCK
Grew up in Alfred
ARKPORT--Victor E. Stuck, 87, formerly of the Arkport-Canaseraga area, passed away Thursday (August 19, 2010) at Jones Memorial Hospital in Wellsville.

Born in Town Of Ward, February 17, 1923, the son of Sherman and Edith Turybury Stuck, he had resided his early life in Alfred later residing in the Attica-Batavia areas for several years. While there, he was employed as a truck driver for Agway. Victor has served his country as a member of the United States Army during World War II.

He was predeceased by his wife, Lucy Burdick Stuck in 1994, his sister, Bernice Dick and his brother Evert Stuck.

He is survived by his sister, Beatrice Palmiter of Wellsville as well as several nieces and nephews.

To send a remembrance to the family, please visit www.brownandpowersfuneralhomes.com. The family is being assisted by Gerald R. Brown, Director.

The family received friends from 1-3 p.m. Wednesday, August 25 at the Bender-Brown & Powers Funeral Home, 354 Canisteo St, Hornell where funeral services followed calling hours at 3 p.m. with Pastor Kenneth Chroniger officiating. Burial with military honors was at Alfred Rural Cemetery.

Friends may make memorial contributions to the charity of the donor's choice.

PENELOPE FRASER WEISS
Granddaughter of Binns
CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA--Penelope Fraser Weiss died Wednesday, July 21, 2010 in Charlottesville, Virginia, of ALS (Lou Gehrig's disease). She was the youngest of 17 grandchildren of Charles Fergus Binns, founding director of the New York College of Clayworking and Ceramics at Alfred University.

Penny was born August 20, 1933, in Charlottesville, daughter of the late Alexander David and Norah Binns Fraser. She was preceded in death by her brother, Douglas Fraser.

She graduated with a Bachelor of Fine Arts degree in Ceramics from Alfred University in 1955.

She is survived by her husband of 53 years, David W. Weiss; a daughter, Hilary Weiss Swinson, and her husband, Richard, of Charlottesville; a son, David W. Weiss Jr., and his wife, Debra, of Williamsburg, Virginia; and two granddaughters, Katherine Swinson and Emily Swinson, both of Charlottesville. Seven of Penny's Binns cousins also survive her.

In lieu of flowers, memorial gifts may be made to Hospice of the Piedmont (675 Peter Jefferson Parkway, Suite 300, Charlottesville, VA 22911) or to your local food bank.

A memorial service will be held at 11 a.m. Saturday, August 28, at Alfred Rural Cemetery.

EDWARD G. "EDDIE" SACKETT
Beloved Andover bus driver
ANDOVER--Edward G. "Eddie" Sackett, 61, passed away unexpectedly Friday (Aug. 20, 2010). Mr. Sackett was born on June 18, 1949 in Wellsville to S. George and Margaret (Holmes)

Sackett. He was a 1968 graduate of Andover Central School.

Eddie worked for Andover Central School as a school bus driver from 1970 to the present. He was also a part time mail carrier for the Unites States Postal Service.

Eddie is survived by a sister, Mary Jane (Kenneth) Wylie of Reston, VA.; a brother, Robert (Cherie) Sackett of Pella, IA.; four nephews, David Dugan, Kevin Wylie, Eric Sackett and Christopher Sackett; and one niece, Kara Wylie.

He was predeceased by a sister, Patricia Dugan.

Eddie was an avid hunter, fisherman, and trapper and enjoyed going to auto races.

He was a 39 year member and current president of Andover Volunteer Fire Department, a 28 year member of Andover Rescue Squad, past president of Allegany County Fireman's Association and Andover's representative on the Allegany County Fire Advisory Board. He was also secretary of Andover Rod and Gun Club, vice-president of Allegany County Federation of Sportsman Club, a member of the National Rifleman's Association and served as a Red Cross volunteer. But more than these, he was a dear friend to all who knew him.

Friends may called Wednesday, Aug. 25 from 2-4 p.m. and 6-8 p.m. at Baker-Swan Funeral Home in Andover. A funeral service will be held at 11 a.m. today (Thursday, Aug. 26) at the First Baptist Church of Andover with Rev. Frank Troutman, officiating. Burial will follow in Valley Brook Cemetery.

Memorial contributions in Eddie's name may be made to Andover Volunteer Fire Department, PO Box 714, Andover, NY 14806. Condolences may be expressed online at www.baker-swan.com.

Concrete Block...A Sure Foundation

Reason #8:
The Concrete Block Foundation is Non-Toxic!
Moisture loves wood. And experimental new plywood foundations are no exception. To preserve them and delay the rot and decay which naturally occur when wood is exposed to moisture, today's wood foundation walls are treated with arsenic. A cumulative poison, arsenic is ingested and stored in the body. When you choose your new home, don't experiment. Look for a genuine all-concrete block basement, your best assurance of safety, durability, economy and strength.

Scene About Alfred

An occasional column inviting readers to identify the scene and appear at Tinkertown Hardware with the correct answer, the first of whom will receive a monster cookie. The identity of the event or scene will appear in the next edition of the ALFRED SUN.

Bob Volk, with whom I have many adventures, traveling about this wonderful world, enjoys running one race per month. During the last week of July, we were enjoying sights and events in western Pennsylvania and eastern Ohio. He found a 5k (3 mile) race in Andover, Ohio, on the shore of Pymatuning Lake. I found these two pleasant gentlemen after we completed the race and couldn't resist taking a photo of a familiar name in an unfamiliar place. Warren Gibson and Brandon Albright donated their time to be available in case anyone got into trouble at this "Run for Em" event. Em is a local youngster who is battling leukemia for the second time, and all proceeds of the run, a bicycle ride, a bake sale, and a lunch were designated to help with the costs of her care. It was a lovely community-coming-together event.

Blueberries: think outside the muffin, pancake

Blueberries are an excellent source of vitamin C, a good source of dietary fiber and they contain substances that have antioxidant qualities. And, maybe more importantly, they taste wonderful.

This recipe is courtesy of BC Blueberry Council and was found on the internet.

- Frosted Blueberry-Banana Soup

2 ¼ c. blueberries, divided	½ c. whole milk
1 ripe banana, roughly chopped	½ c. frozen vanilla yogurt
1½ c. ice	2 tsp. sugar
1 tsp. lemon juice

In blender, combine 2 cups of blueberries, banana, ice, milk, frozen yogurt, sugar and lemon juice; whirl until smooth. Into four soup bowls pour soup, dividing equally. Scatter remaining ¼ cup blueberries over soup. Top with small scoop of frozen yogurt, if desired. Serve immediately.

Alfred Area Food Pantry needs beans

By LUAN ELLIS
(Special to the Alfred Sun)
ALFRED STATION--Do you ever get frustrated? With yourself? With someone else? Well, the next time you get frustrated, how about saying “Oh Beans!” And when you do, go to your pantry and get out a can of beans –kidney beans, black beans, baked beans, pork & beans, navy beans, great northern beans, garbanzo, pinto beans, green beans – any kind of beans - and put that can aside to drop off at the Alfred Area Food Pantry.

That is just one of the food items needed by the Food Pantry. This summer has been rather hard on the supply of food. In the first 3 weeks of August we have had 41 family units come to the Food Pantry. We can use any item of nonperishable food.

So – the next time you get frustrated, just say “Oh Beans” (which may sound nicer that what you usually say), and remember the Food Pantry. We can also use any monetary contributions to purchase items that can be stored in the freezer or refrigerator.

Items for the Food Pantry may be left at the Alfred Station Seventh Day Baptist Christian Education Building (the brick Quite frankly, we want to keep the Dream Alive!

Back in 1884, a simple item appeared in the Alfred Sun that said, “Wanted, one thousand subscribers to the Sun.”

That goal suggested by Sun co-founder and legendary Editor and Publisher Frank A. Crumb, was met before the new millennium. But now we'd like to keep the dream alive. So we've set a goal of 125 new subscribers to mark the SUN's 125th anniversary.

During Frank Crumb's Dream Campaign, we offer new subscribers 13 months for the year's subscription price of $27 ($30 outside of Allegany County). That's $25 off the news stand price. And you'll read hometown news and interesting stories found nowhere else!

If you would like to help keep Frank Crumb's Dream alive, send your name and address or that of a loved one with check payable to “Alfred Sun” to: Frank Crumb's Dream, c/o Alfred Sun, P.O. Box 811, Alfred, NY 14802. We thank you and Frank thanks you!

Built on conquest sites

Dear Editor:

An Islamic poem says, “The mosques are our barracks, the domes our helmets, the minarets our bayonets and Muslims our soldiers...”

A placard stated: “Mosques are built on sites of victories and conquest.” Can you blame Americans for becoming suspicious of a mosque proposed at Ground Zero?

Cordoba is significant to Islamic history. Cordoba was the place in Spain where Islam first invaded Europe. There, they took over a cathedral and turned it into a large mosque and to this day, it remains a symbol of Islamic conquest and victory. Is it just coincidence that the mosque positions itself as the Cordoba Initiative?

With the trade towers leveled, the mosque plans to tower over the point of attack. Does this sound like an act of good will or Islamic triumphalism?

The mosque’s imam, Feisal Rauf, guest speaker at Chautauqua Institution and praised by Joan Brown Campbell of Chautauqua Institution as a moderate voice, will not say if Hamas is a terrorist organization. Can you fault a popular talk show host for calling the proposed mosque, “Ha-mosque?”

The imam feels America must be more sharia compliant. I guess America isn’t “Saudi Arabia” enough. Will Mayor Bloomberg keep insisting that it will add cultural diversity to his city?

There’s no Islamic neighborhood in the area, so what’s the purpose of putting a mega-structure there?

Developers of the mosque haven’t ruled out taking money from Saudi Arabia and Iran. They say that the mosque is about community outreach and bridge-building. What kind of bridge are the developers building when they refuse to listen to public concerns, steamroll their sensitivities, and reject Governor Paterson’s request to relocate?

They plan to dedicate the mosque on September 11, 2011. Would you call this an olive branch of peace or a stick in the eye?

Now, Nancy Pelosi wants to investigate people asking questions.

At least this controversy has people examining Islam more closely. More Americans see Islam as the truest Muslims do.

Islam is a form of totalitarianism dominating every component of life from economics to politics. The Constitution protects Muslims, but Islam opposes the Constitution. According to the freedom of religion, no one can legally force them not to build the mosque, but freedom of speech affords us the opportunity to persuade them otherwise.

Meanwhile, a Greek Orthodox Church destroyed during 9-11 still waits on city authorities for a place to rebuild their church.

Keeping the Dream Alive

Frank Crumb’s Dream Subscription Campaign Update

79 down, 41 to go

Back in 1884, a simple item appeared in the Sun that said, “Wanted, one thousand subscribers to the Alfred Sun.” It’s been 125 years since legendary Sun Editor Frank A. Crumb, with the Sun from 1883 to 1951, set the millenary goal.

Not knowing of Frank Crumb’s Dream, I, too, had set a goal of 1000 subscribers when I joined the paper in 1976. That goal was finally reached in January 1999. But we want to keep Frank’s dream alive.

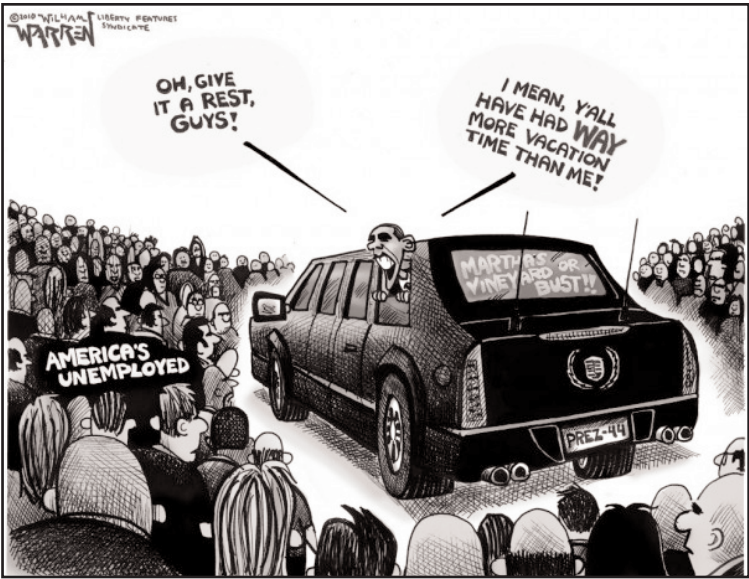

The late Eugene T. Van Horn, who owned the newspaper from 1951 until 1973, told us one time that circulation peaked in the 1960s at 700. It’s now over 900. We’ve added 79 new subscribers since Jan. 1, 2009.

After regularly reading this newspaper for about a month, a new subscriber said, “I feel so much more connected to the Alfred community.”

There’s a good reason for that. This newspaper is a local community paper. It is “Of the Community, For the Community, By the Community.”

Get connected to this community. If you would like to contribute to Frank Crumb’s Dream, send your name and address or that of a loved one together with your check payable to “Alfred Sun” to: Frank Crumb’s Dream, c/o Alfred Sun, P.O. Box 811, Alfred, NY 14802. Thank you!

FROM THE DESK OF DAVID PULLEN

By DAVID PULLEN
Allegany County Legislator

HEALTHY PROGRESS

On August 2nd Public Health Director Lori Ballengee sent an e-mail to some Legislators and members of the County Board of Health. Her memo contained information regarding the financial turn-around that has occurred in the County Health Department. Lori Ballengee and her staff have done an outstanding job of saving money while improving services provided by the County Health Department.

There are multiple ways of measuring progress. By almost all standards the Health Department has come a long way. Here are some salient points from the Public Health Director’s memo:

1. In 2007 the Health Department paid $108,840 in overtime during the period covered by the first 16 payrolls. In 2010, for the same 16 payrolls overtime amounted to $16,522, a reduction of $92,318. These savings were achieved across-the-board.
2. Total overtime paid in 2007 was $130,116. In 2010 we are projected to pay only $27,000 overtime. For 2011 only $35,000 is budgeted for overtime, and we hope to expend only a portion of that. Some of these savings are the result of senior management covering “on-call” duties for the Health Department. They don’t receive any extra compensation for assuming this responsibility.
3. In 2006 the Health Department had 47 full-time county staff. In 2010 there are 19 full-time county staff. Overall staffing, including “contract” employees has been reduced from 60 to 36, a reduction of almost 42%. This represents savings on salaries, health insurance, pension, and other benefits.
4. In 2007 the Health Department ended the year $191,955 in the red. Fiscal 2008 ended $847,481 in the black. This was entirely due to cost cutting and savings since the Home Care Agency wasn’t sold until May 2009.
5. For 2009 Health Department revenue exceeded projections by $161,052. It also reduced expenditures by an additional $950,287. The total Health Department surplus for 2009 was $1,111,339.
6. In 2009 the Health Department sold the Certified Home Health Agency. That generated additional income for the County. If that payment is counted as revenue the Health Department didn’t cost County taxpayers anything at all in 2009.

My first year on the Legislature was 2006. The Health Department was running deficits and facing other problems. Today we can see the results of outstanding leadership by Lori Ballengee and her management team. Change requires initiative and involves risk. They faced opposition and criticism. Time has proven the wisdom of their policies and approaches. I want to personally recognize and applaud Lori, Tom, Laurie and all of the others in the Health Department who helped accomplish these outstanding results. We are in your debt.

There are some lessons to be learned from our experience with the Health Department. Some of those lessons include the following:

- a. Some really good things are happening in Allegany County government. We should encourage and support those good things when we learn about them. It is too easy to be negative and critical.
- b. Good leadership is critical to bringing about positive change. Selecting good leaders is one of the most important things that the Legislature does. Good leaders bring vision, openness to innovation, and positive motivation to their spheres of responsibility.
- c. Most problems can’t be solved overnight. Substantive change takes time. Our society is impatient with things that take more than a few days or weeks. That is unfortunate. Quick changes typically don’t provide lasting results.
- d. Two, three or four successes won’t translate into dramatic tax reductions. NYS is still shifting costs and mandates onto local government. Wages and costs keep going up. However, over time there should be a cumulative effect from all of our individual successes. We have cut health care costs, addressed past deficits, and generated surpluses. Our bond rating has improved. Tax increases have been kept small.

We still have a long ways to go, but we have made a good beginning. With continued hard work, other successes will come.

I Don’t Have a Garden Full of Weeds,
I Have a Weed Patch with a Few Vegetable Plants

My friends have a garden that puts mine to shame;
In deference to them, I won’t mention their name,
But they live right out there on the north end of town,
And their garden’s a ‘traction of local renown...

Theirs always looks like the Garden of Eden;
Mine always looks like the Jungle of Weedin’.
They tickle the ground and it laughs with a harvest;
I beat on mine nigh unto death, yet I starvest.

Don’t know how much sweat their soil makes them exert,
But God made my soil two parts rock, one part dirt.
What grows in their garden by all is admired;
But all I can grow in my garden is tired.

At last I’ve had beans (couldn’t plant them too soon –
I was vanquishing woodchucks till well into June);
And though weeds that have flowers can make for nice scenery,
I’m hoping tomatoes might be ‘hind that greenery.

But why ’m I complaining? It’s my own mistake –
Not buying me land that was once under lake,
All fertile and rock-free and ready to grow...
But I didn’t do it, and well...now I know...

'Three Sopranos and a Pianist' to open AU performing arts

ALFRED--Luanne Crosby, professor of voice at Alfred University, will join with her former voice professor, a former colleague, and a young pianist to present a series of recitals, "Three Sopranos and a Pianist," with the group to open Alfred University's 2010-11 Performing Arts season at 8 p.m. Friday, Aug. 27, at Howell Hall on the AU campus.

In addition to Crosby, the performers will include Christine McMasters, a former professor of voice at Fredonia State College, where Crosby completed her undergraduate education; Laurie Tramuta, an adjunct professor of music at Fredonia; and Adam Potter, a recent graduate of Houghton College, who is the pianist.

Potter now teaches high school music in Dansville, and is a member of the piano staff at Interlochen Arts Academy's summer camp in Michigan.

McMasters, who resides in Fredonia, has a multifaceted singing career, performing in North and South America, Asia and Europe. She is an expert on Russian song literature, and will be performing pieces by Rachmaninoff and Tchaikovsky during the program.

Tramuta teaches elementary music in Fredonia, as well as voice at the School of Music at Fredonia State College. She has performed with Western New York Opera Theater, Greater Buffalo Opera, Erie Opera and Opera Sacra.

Crosby, a member of the AU Performing Arts faculty since 1992, earned a Doctor of Musical Arts degree from Cleveland Institute of Music/Case Western Reserve University.

In addition to the recital at Alfred University, "Three Sopranos and a Pianist" was presented at 4 p.m. Wednesday, Aug. 25, at the Chautauqua Institution; and will be presented at 4 p.m. Sunday, Aug. 29, at the School of Music at Fredonia State; and at 8 p.m. Monday, Aug. 30, at Houghton College.

Alfred University opens its 2010-11 Performing Arts series with "Three Sopranos and a Pianist" at 8 p.m. Friday, Aug. 27, in Howell Hall on the AU campus. Performers include, from left: Laurie Tramuta, Christine McMasters, pianist Adam Potter, and Luanne Crosby.

Too 'pop' for folk people, too 'folk' for pop people

Singer/songwriter will perform at Angelica cafe

ANGELICA--Too "pop" for the folk people, too "folk" for the pop people. If it sounds a little like country to you, just know that the people in Nashville disagree.

Talia Segal is a singer/songwriter with a unique sound and perspective who will appear at Black-Eyed Susan Acoustic Café on Saturday, August 28 from 7:30 – 9:30 pm.

A full-time professional musician, Talia plays the acoustic guitar and sings original compositions. Her sound is influenced by the likes of Antje Duvekot, Mindy Smith and Alison Krauss.

But her lyrics are influenced, she says, by, "everything I do, everyone I meet, and every life experience I have. Sometimes a great song comes out of a seemingly random, insignificant series of events."

Her music is winning awards and accolades, including being named a finalist in the 2010 Telluride Troubadour Songwriting Contest and the 2009 John Lennon Songwriting Contest. Her songs have won Honorable Mention at the 2010 Rocky Mountain Folks Fest Songwriters' Showcase; 2009 Mid Atlantic Songwriting Contest; and the 2009 North Carolina Songwriters' Co-op Contest.

She was a featured performer with Lamont Dozier at the BMI/Songwriter's Association of Washington Showcase at The Smithsonian Institution in Washington, DC.

TALIA SEGAL of Washington, DC will perform acoustic pop music "with teeth" at Black-Eyed Susan Acoustic Café on Sat., August 28th.

She has performed at such notable venues as the Baird Auditorium at The Smithsonian and the Telluride Bluegrass Festival in Telluride, CO. Closer to home, she has been seen at the Dormann Library in Bath; Emack & Bolios and Sage College in Albany, and weekly at Potbelly Sandwich Works in her hometown of Washington, DC.

Don Ash of Black-Eyed Susan remarks, "Talia is a hardworking musician and songwriter whose talent for crafting solid lyrics is exceptional."

Black-Eyed Susan is open all day Saturday, from 11 a.m. to 11 p.m. for lunch, dinner, specialty coffees and desserts, with music beginning at 6 p.m. There is no cover charge, but guests are expected to contribute to the musician's tip jar. Reservations for dinner -- while never necessary -- are strongly encouraged.

Coming Events at Black-Eyed Susan:

Thursday, Sept. 2--ACOUSTIC OPEN MIC NIGHT hosted by Bob & Gena Decker. 7-10 p.m. All are welcome. Free admission. Café will open at 6:00 for light meals, espresso, desserts. Saturday Sept 4--JIM CLARE -- folk music, pure and simple. 7:30-9:30 p.m. Balladeer Jim Schwartz opens at 6 p.m. No cover. Café is open from 11 a.m.-11 p.m. for lunch, dinner, espresso and desserts.

Black-Eyed Susan is located at 22 West Main Street in Angelica's Park Circle National Historic District. The café is open for lunch Monday through Friday beginning at 11 a.m. and all day Saturdays: 11 a.m. to 11 p.m. Guests can dine in with a beautiful view of Park Circle, al fresco on one of the porches, or have a meal delivered to their home or workplace. Menus are posted on-line.

Black-Eyed Susan Acoustic Café seats 90 and can host a multitude of events. For more info call 585-466-3399 or visit www.black-eyed-susan.com.

AU Chorus welcomes members from surrounding communities

ALFRED - Luanne Crosby, professor of voice and chorus, invites members of the community in and around Alfred who enjoy singing to join the Alfred University Chorus during the Fall 2010 semester.

Rehearsals will be Monday evenings, starting on Aug. 30, from 7 to 8:30 p.m., in the new choral space in Miller II (Room 126).

There will be two concerts this semester, one on Friday, Nov. 5 that will feature popular music by Burt Bacharach, and one Saturday, Dec. 4 which will include a major work, "Gloria," by Francis Poulenc. The music for "Gloria" can be purchased at the AU Bookstore.

For more information contact Crosby at fcclarke@alfred.edu or by calling 607.871.2572.

LOIS

In despair with the atmosphere in which I was living and working, late in 1968 I sought a job someplace where I would feel more at home. At the time I was in charge of cataloging at the Kresge Library at Oakland University. Situated on a former Belgian horse farm, it was a commuter campus for employees, five miles from Rochester, Michigan, and about thirty miles north of Detroit.

When I had moved to Rochester two years earlier, it meant that I had to own a car for the first time in my life. By preference, I had always lived within walking distance of my jobs. In the case of New York City, I had used public transportation.

Although I made some good friends on the Kresge Library staff, I discovered nothing like a neighborhood where I was living. In my two story apartment house, I was only acquainted with the three person family on the ground floor just below me.

The son was a child prodigy on the piano. To my delight, as he practiced classical music the sound came up into my apartment. I had no TV and could not get classical music on my radio. His mother was horrified on the only occasion when she visited me, and he began audibly and repetitiously hitting the keys. I assured her that I enjoyed it. I was also fond of their large dog, whose wooly hair she collected for spinning into yarn.

Once two government men knocked on my door to acquire information about the young man living across the hall from me. I believe he had applied to work for the FBI. I knew him not at all, and could tell them nothing useful.

It was the era when various civil rights issues involving skin color were still at the forefront of many people’s minds. Prejudice was rife around the area. When Martin Luther King was assassinated and riots broke out in Detroit, we could see the smoke rising over the city from the second floor of the Kresge Library.

One of the library assistants, with her husband and little boy, lived in a trailer park a few miles from our campus. Unbeknownst to her, assuming the riots would spread to their quarters her husband equipped himself with a gun. When the gun, but not rioters, killed her husband, she was arrested. Several library staff members were to be character witnesses on her behalf at the trial for his murder.

As the trial was scheduled and postponed over and over, staff vacations and other plans were repeatedly upset. All of us were on edge. Ultimately, the verdict was “Not Guilty.”

An assistant of mine, a young black man, did not arrive on time one morning. He soon phoned to relate the cause of his delay. Coming out of a program on campus the night before with some black friends, a white campus cop had caught them conversing while one or two leaned on a parked car belonging to none of them. When they hurriedly started to drive off in the car they had arrived in, the officer illegally pursued them beyond campus boundaries. My assistant was now stuck at a police station trying to straighten it out.

My mother had a librarian friend who had been happily working at the State University of New York at Oswego for years. She provided me with contact information for a man whose job was connecting candidates with open SUNY librarian positions. This resulted in my coming to Alfred, New York, for an interview in Binns-Merrill Hall. Several of its rooms had been co-opted over the years for use by the growing library of the New York State College of Ceramics.

The staff was much smaller than the one at the Kresge Library. The cataloger, a woman named Lois Murdough Smith, stood out for her cordiality and obvious know-how. She conveyed to me the appealing existence of a local town/gown relationship. I started work in March 1969, and she began introducing me to the multitudinous agreeable aspects of life in Alfred.

For her birthday the following September the library staff members took her to lunch at the Little Red Hen, a small restaurant in Alfred Station. Now a 100th birthday observance is in the works for Lois, and friends are asked to submit items for a remembrance book. These mullings today, which include one thousand thanks to Lois from the person she calls Martha, are intended for it.

ALFRED—In a new take on study abroad, Alfred State College senior carpentry students enrolled in the College’s Building Trades programs embarked on a “Semester in the South” where they will use the skills they acquired during their first year of study to help rebuild two cities ravaged by Hurricane Katrina five years ago: New Orleans, LA, and Bay St. Louis, MS. Under the direction of Assistant Professor Norm Ellis, and in conjunction with the Episcopal Diocese in the 7th Ward, New Orleans, and Habitat for Humanity in Bay St. Louis, 14 students will spend the next 15 weeks sawing, hammering, and building houses for those who continue to be displaced by the storm. Pictured here, getting ready to hit the ground running are, from left, Doug Baker, Mt. # Archaeologist from Italy to visit Alfred State College Friday

ALFRED--Alfred State College will host two visitors from Italy on Friday, Aug 27. Archeology Professor Ilaria Tartaglia and her colleague Maria Chiara Giovenco will tour campus in the morning, and at 1 p.m. Tartaglia will give a presentation in the Engineering Building, room 215.

Her talk will focus on the work that she and Giovenco do as staff archaeologists at the excavations of Pompeii. Additionally, she will discuss the course she teaches to Alfred State’s study abroad students at Sorrento Lingue International Language Institute where she serves as an adjunct professor.

The course, "Cities of Fire," which focuses on the rich heritage of Roman antiquities in the Sorrento area, is very popular with students because of frequent class field trips to the numerous archaeological and geological sites around the Gulf of Naples.

This presentation, and the subsequent reception, is open to the public free of charge. The reception will be held from 3-5 p.m. in the Allegany Room of the Central Dining Hall.

AAUW chapter honors essay contest winners, high school graduates

HORNELL--The annual Alfred-Hornell AAUW awards dinner was held recently at the Hornell Knights of Columbus. This event honors area fourth grade student winners of the essay contest, "The Woman I Most Admire" and graduating high school senior girls that have excelled in math and/or science.

The evening was opened with announcements from branch president, Pat Soper-Oakes. Soper-Oakes paid tribute to Jane LeMon, a long time member of the group and a former teacher of Soper-Oakes at Canisteo Central School who passed away during the past year. Branch program vice president, Mary Jane Lloyd shared warm remembrances of her former student, Kelli Schwert, who lost her battle with cancer earlier this year. Ms. Schwert's mother, Trudi Schwert, is a dedicated member of AAUW.

After a delicious meal, presenters Shirley Ferris and Pat LaPiana awarded certificates to this year's essay contest winners.

Hannah Roy, from Jasper-Troupsburg, was the first to read her essay in which she honored her teacher Mrs. Linn Taft.

Next up was Ashley Lindeman from the Hornell Intermediate School, reading her account of the woman she most admires, her mother, Mary Lindeman.

Payce Hooker, from St. Ann School in Hornell, wrapped up the essay readings with his eloquent account of his mom, Melissa Hooker.

Six area high school seniors were honored in recognition of their achievements in math and science through their school years. This annual event is the highlight of the AAUW program year and supports the mission of "breaking through barriers for women and girls." This year's award recipients certainly reflect that mission.

Lauren Powell, from Alfred-Almond Central School, is the salutatorian of her graduating class. In addition to excelling academically, Miss Powell has been on the varsity track, cross-country and skiing teams, participated in a number of school clubs, has been inducted into the National Honor Society and is active in community causes. She will attend the University of Vermont in the fall, studying Veterinary Science.

The valedictorian of this year's graduating class from Andover Central School, Kelly Vars, was unable to attend the event but was honored in absentia for her accomplishments in athletics, band and academic distinction.

Arkport Central School's Rebecca Dennis has been a member of the varsity track and volleyball teams, is a member of the National Honor Society, has served on a number of committees through high school and is very active in the community. She loves helping others by tutoring in Math and has worked with young children by coaching summer soccer and participating in Big Sister/Little Sister programs. Miss Dennis is attending SUNY Brockport this September and will major in Accounting.

Emily Congdon of Canisteo-Greenwood, National Honor Society President is also the Spanish Club Vice President, member of both the cross-country and track varsity squads and active in her local church group and public library.

Hannah Eggleston, from Jasper-Troupsburg, is a member of the National Honor Society and Foreign Language Club and has served as captain on the varsity soccer team. Miss Eggleston will be attending Brockport in September, studying Education and Human Development.

Our sixth honoree, Hannah Mikolajczyk, was unable to attend the dinner but was honored for her numerous achievements in academic, athletics and social community venues. Congratulations to all participants and honorees.

Local AAUW programs will start up again in the fall and the schedule will be announced soon.

On October 23, the Women's Leadership Center at Alfred University will host the Women's Conference 2010. The event will emphasize skills that every young woman leader should possess. Organizers hope to inspire a spirit of confidence and determination in emerging women leaders. The one-day conference will be composed of presentations, skills workshops and panel discussions.

The Alfred-Hornell AAUW branch has provided financial and will provide physical support for this event. Our Program VP, Mary Jane Lloyd will serve as a table captain during the networking lunch. If you are interested in this event, email wc2010@alfrd.edu or call (607) 382-6015.

AACS Class of 1945 holds annual gathering

Submitted By BETTY HICKS SCHWARTZ
of the Alfred-Almond Class of 1945

ALMOND--The graduating class of 1945 from Alfred-Almond Central School celebrated their 65th year by enjoying a luncheon at the Valley Grill in Canisteo on Friday, August 6. Fourteen classmates and friends shared memories and thoughts of the passing years.

A favorite memory written by Elaine Gardiner Decker, Class of 1945 Salutatorian, was read and is included below. A very important classmate, Dave Ferry, has been faithful through the years to travel from his home in St. Louis and has kept class members updated with newsletters and addresses and, due to ill health, he was sadly missed for this year's celebration.

Class members and friends who attended were: Anna Marie Snyder Trowbridge; Martin (Bud) Gillette; Phil and Doris MacMichael; Paul and Betty Burdette; Frank Snyder; Thelma Mix; Fran and Betty Hicks Schwartz; and attending from Florida were Ken and Joan Wirt; Don Zirklebach and friend Betty Young.

Plans are being made for the class's annual get-together at Cartwright's Maple Tree Inn in Short Tract in March.

In bidding farewell, Betty Schwartz said to the class, "We have grown old together."

Elaine Gardiner Decker wrote about a favorite memory:

"Our class put out the first hard cover yearbook at AACS. We really worked hard to sell them. I remember making the rounds of classrooms before classes started in the morning collecting installment payments (often 10 cents a week) and keeping all the records. (We also sold 10 cent war savings stamps). Then the books were delayed because of the war and we delivered them after school was out. Mr. Andrews, Adele Wightman, Dale Miller, Phil Gregory and I loaded them in Mr. Andrews' station wagon and drove to Alfred and Almond and up and down the valleys. Some of them had imprinted names on them and others had not been completely paid for, so it was rather complicated but lots of fun!"

She shared a humorous memory: "Getting to out of town basketball games during as rationing was not easy. Cottie Brown had a coupe with a partition to the trunk removed. I remember the looks of people watching out of the windows at the Big Elms Restaurant in Hornell the night that nine students clambered out of Cottie's coupe when we stopped for a snack after a game."

CWST anthology now available

WELLSVILLE--"Pearls of Wisdom" 30th Anniversary Anthology, which was written, edited and compiled by the members of Creative Writers of the Southern Tier (CWST), is now available at the Wellsville Creative Arts Center.

This collection contains the original photography, poetry, stories and articles by sixteen local writers. Art work is computer graphics.

The anthology is dedicated to the memory of Betty Jane Harder, M.D., who died in May 2006, and to Norman Ives, who died in 2007, and some of their creative efforts are included.

Anthology committee consists of Roberta Bartlett Corcoran and Andrea Lozinsky Schoenthal, co-chairs; Rosalie Arnold Moore Ames, Debra L. Sherwood and Melvina Musto Tyler, who typed up the submissions, organized the layout and created the cover design. The books were printed by Staples in Olean, New York.

Meetings of Creative Writers of the Southern Tier are held on the second Saturday of each month, from 2 to 4 p.m. March through November. The group is currently meeting at Trinity Lutheran Church, North Main Street, Wellsville. For more information, contact Ms. Schoenthal at 585-593-2084.

Alfred State College welcomes 1,500 new students

"During all four semesters, I participated in the International Club which welcomed people of all countries to come together to get to know each other. It was fun exchanging stories and seeing my culture through their eyes. All of these extracurricular activities were not only fun but also complemented many of the communication skills that I would later need as an educator.

After graduation, Lorow "transferred to an undergraduate program at Binghamton University. Soon after transferring, I gained a strong appreciation for Alfred State's sense of community. Binghamton demonstrates its own unique charm, but with class sizes sometimes boasting 150 to 200 students, I felt like a number in the crowd. It wasn't easy, but a lot of my success at Binghamton stemmed from opportunities that were first granted in Alfred."

Thanks to ASC's "smaller class sizes, I was able to receive extra attention in classes that had a history of being challenging for me, like math and science. I was also able to get a solid understanding for what a research paper should be like. The extracurriculars at Alfred played a major role in giving me an edge for teaching positions and internships. For example, my experience in the International Club coupled with tutoring skills learned in the writing center, helped me land an awesome job as a teaching assistant for an English as a Second Language classroom. I also interned at a local high school for an elective class called Cultural Exploration Program. These teaching and volunteer experiences were not only personally fulfilling but also helped me gain acceptance in to my graduate program where I am specializing in childhood education and literacy.

"My best advice is to enter Alfred with a spirit of adventure. Find clubs that interest you and explore all that Alfred has to offer. Be the best student that you can be. But still take time to be a part of Alfred traditions like Hot Dog Day. Talk to people in your residence halls. That's how I met my fiancé!

"Now it's time for you to go forth and carve out your own adventure."

ALFRED—Moving-in day at Alfred State College saw hundreds of families hauling their students' belongings to campus to begin the new academic year. Instead of the traditional linens and clothing packed in a tidy footlocker, students these days need trucks and trailers to transport today's college necessities, including computers, refrigerators, and the myriad electronic gadgets that make life "bearable." Pictured here, a student "muscles" his belongings up a low rise and into the residence hall on a warm August afternoon.

Evangelista named associate provost

ALFRED - Nancy Evangelista will be Alfred University's associate provost during the 2010-11 academic year, Provost William Hall announced today. But that's only one responsibility Evangelista, who served as acting associate provost during the 2009-10 academic year, will fulfill. In addition to being associate provost, Hall said Evangelista will continue her duties as chair of School Psychology, a position she has held since 2006; she will also be interim dean of the College of Business, and dean of the Graduate School.

Evangelista will assist will strategic planning and assessment, and will support international programs and initiatives. "Nancy Evangelista has worked very hard over the past year to create a responsive and engaged set of support services," said Hall. "She has been willing to take on new challenges and work diligently to develop comprehensive support for our academic programs. She is committed to excellence and works in a collaborative manner with all members of the Alfred University community.

"I am confident she will provide excellent leadership in her new role as interim dean of the College of Business and will continue to provide a high level of leadership as chair of the School Psychology program," Hall said.

Evangelista joined Alfred University in 1997 as a member of the faculty in the Division of School Psychology; she was promoted to full professor in 2008.

She co-chaired the University's student learning assessment committee and chaired the 2006 provost search committee. Prior to coming to Alfred, Evangelista was a senior psychologist at the Developmental Evaluation Center at the Health Science Center in Syracuse and adjunct professor at Syracuse University.

Evangelista is a member of the American Psychological Association Division 16 for School Psychology; the National Association of School Psychologists; the New York Association of School Psychologists; the School Psychology Educators' Council of New York and "Zero to Three," the National Center for Clinical Infant Programs.

Evangelista has been the recipient of several grants, individually and with other members of the School Psychology Division.

She is the author or co-author of several publications and has been chosen to present at several conferences and workshops.

She is a member of Phi Kappa Phi national scholastic honor society; received the Legislative Leadership Certificate from the National Association of School Psychologists; is a two-time winner of the Presidential Service Award from the New York State Association of School Psychologists; and received the Ted Bernstein Award from the New York Association of School Psychologists.

A summa cum laude graduate of Western Michigan University with a B.S. degree in special education, Evangelista earned her M.S. and Ph.D. degrees in school psychology from Syracuse University.

Hot dog stand making a big comeback?

A Dundee family is reviving the traditional hot dog stand, taking a step back from the past 50 years of fast food enterprises. The former Wixson's Honey Stand on Rt. 14 near Glenora has been transformed into R.E.D.S. HOTS. R.E.D.S. actually stands for Ray, Everett, Daniel and Sandy. Owner Ray Spencer calls the new version of a vintage hot dog stand "A Finger Lakes Weinery."

Financial Peace University to hold classes in Alfred at Seventh Day Baptist Church

ALFRED - Financial Peace University (FPU), a 13-week program taught by Dave Ramsey, has helped more than one million families positively change their financial future. This life-changing program teaches families and individuals how to handle their money through common-sense principles and small group accountability. FPU is available for churches, companies, military bases, financial literacy programs, Spanish speaking organizations and community groups. FPU classes will be held in Alfred at:

- First Seventh Day Baptist Church, Alfred located at 5 Church Street in Alfred. The classes will begin Thursday, August 26, 2010 at 7:00 PM. Contact Pat Bancroft at (607)587-9430 for more information or to register.

As they work on a Total Money Makeover, the average family pays off $5,300 in debt and saves $2,700 in the first 91 days after beginning FPU and is completely out of debt, except for the mortgage, in 18 to 24 months. "We've actually relieved ourselves of over $50,000 worth of debt in two years just from using these principles," said Russ Lee, former FPU participant.

Dave Ramsey began teaching FPU classes in 1994 every night around Nashville, Tennessee. In 1997, FPU was made available on video across the country with thousands of classes around the nation today.

The program is made up of 13 life-changing lessons taught by Dave on DVD in a fun and entertaining way. "I like to put the cookies on the shelf where everyone can reach them," says Ramsey. After each lesson the group meets to help each other plan budgets, discuss successes and temptations, and support each other in their journey to beat debt and build wealth. Topics covered include:

- Saving for emergencies
- Budgeting
- Relationship and money issues
- Buying big bargains
- Getting out of debt
- Understanding investments
- Understanding insurance
- Retirement and college planning
- Buyer beware
- Real estate mortgages
- Careers and extra jobs

Each class participant needs a kit. Special rates are routinely available online at www.daveramsey.com or by calling 888-227-3223. Included in the cost of the kit is a lifetime family membership to FPU, allowing the participant to return to any class at anytime for a refresher course. The kit also includes an FPU workbook, an FPU envelope system, 13 audio lessons, bonus CD, budgeting forms, debit card holders, and Ramsey's best-selling book – Financial Peace.

"FPU classes are changing lives across the country every day," says Louis Falzetti, executive vice president of Financial Peace University. "There is something for everyone in this program whether you are barely making ends meet, just trying to plan for retirement, or seeking to build wealth. No matter what your financial situation, you will find FPU to be the best motivational tool available across the nation to help you attain financial peace."

In The Alfred Sun 50, 25 and 10 Years Ago

Compiled By DAVID L. SNYDER

Alfred Sun Editor and Publisher

FIFTY YEARS AGO, AUGUST 25, 1960

Alex Yunevich has invited 40 players to report for the opening of pre-season football practice at Alfred University on September 1. Starting his 20th season of coaching at Alfred, Yunevich plans morning and afternoon sessions until classes begin. He will have seven lettermen plus 17 promising members of last year's freshmen squad. Returning letter men include: Steve Crossman, halfback from Fayetteville; Dick DeMott, quarterback from Sayville; Dick Falcigno, halfback from White Plains; Ronald Hatch, center from Portville; Ron Pagan, a guard from Dunkirk; John Pfeiffer, center from Allegany; Alex Zoldan, tackle from Middletown. "We should be better than we were last year," says Yunevich. "For one thing, we look for an interesting pre-season period what with our sophomores battling the old hands for starting positions." Alfred is facing a schedule of eight games. The Saxons open Sept. 24 against Cortland State at Cortland. Other teams to be faced are Union, St. Lawrence, Hobart, C.W. Post, Brockport, Ithaca and Up-sala in this order.

Alfred's summer soccer team concluded its year recently, capturing its first Southern Tier Amateur Soccer League championship. The playoff wins followed a so-so regular season record of 3-5. In the semi-finals, Alfred came alive to defeat Angelica 3-0 with goals scored by Chris Smith, Joey Canale and Eric Purdy. Jay Morris recorded the shutout in goal. In the first of a best-of-three game series final against Belmont, Morris again claimed a shutout in a hard-fought contest in which Keith Holmok drove home the winner with 14 minutes to play. Doug Mattison also tallied a goal for Alfred. In the second game, Belmont struck back with a 2-1 win. Alfred's lone goal was scored by Chip Robinson. In the final game, Alfred fought to overcome a 1-0 deficit to win, 2-1. Alfred's first goal was scored by John Mal-laber, late in the first half. The winner was scored by Steve Allison midway through the second half. Pete Colella had a fine performance in goal for Alfred. During the regular season, Alfred defeated Hornell 4-1 and 7-1, won a forfeit over Belfast, while losing to Angelica twice, 4-1 and 2-1 in overtime, losing to Belfast 1-0 in overtime, and losing to Belmont 4-1 and 5-1.

Anderson awards 'Innovation Award' to Craig Clark

ALFRED—In a departure from traditional opening remarks, Alfred State College President Dr. John M. Anderson this year kicked off the fall semester by sharing his vision of the future with assembled faculty and staff.

Reiterating the theme of small college, big dreams, Anderson envisioned, among other things, the following for the College: a continued rise in the US News and World Report rankings; continuing increased demand for its programs; expansion of ASC's study abroad programming; increased national and global recognition through student participation in national competitions, hosting national and international symposia on campus, and impactful civic service, not only in the United States, but in other countries as well; and some major infrastructure additions to both campuses.

"After all," Anderson noted, "imagination is the first step to reality!"

Other "business" conducted at the event included the introduction of new faculty and staff as well as the presentation of the President's "Innovation Award" to Craig Clark, dean, School of Applied Technology, and executive director, Wellsville campus. Clark was cited for his quiet demeanor which belies his ability to "get the job done," including securing millions of dollars in funding for the college.

Clark has been associated with Alfred State College since 1979, serving in a variety of teaching and administrative capacities, including professor and department chair, Civil Engineering Technology, as well as interim vice president for academic affairs.

Since 1996, Clark has served as dean of the School of Applied Technology in Wellsville, where he oversees the college's satellite campus with an annual budget of over $3 million with 65 faculty and staff. Clark also works closely with the Ed Foundation that owns the campus.

Clark holds a master of science degree in civil engineering with a major in construction engineering and management from North Carolina State University, a bachelor of science degree in civil engineering from the University of Colorado, and an associate of science degree in engineering science from Jamestown Community College. He has completed course work at Carnegie-Mellon University, College Management Program, Heinz School of Public Policy and Management. He is a candidate for the PhD in civil engineering with North Carolina State University.

Clark is a member of the American Society for Engineering Education, the American Concrete Institute, the Association for Career and Technical Education, and SkillsUSA. He serves as New York State director for Postsecondary SkillsUSA and is a licensed Professional Engineer in New York State.

Clark also serves as the mayor of the Village of Alfred.

Did not get a chance to get to a Red Wings game with A-A and GRTC Hall of Famer, Big D a couple of weeks after the A-A alumni banquet. No call from the Dodger fan until he was back in Florida! Homesick I guess.

The Baltimore Orioles and "AAA" Norfolk Tides have renewed their working agreement thru the 2014 season. A-A grads Mike B. Gieldin and Scott O. Lorow work for the Tides.

K-Rod of the New York Mets ... missing a few marbles.

The Seattle Storm, with ex-UConn stars Sue Bird and Swin Cash plus Australian Lauren Jackson are running away with the regular season WNBA top record.

The Buffalo/Toronto Bills were "nipped" in their NFL exhibition season opener, 42-17 by the Washington Redskins.

Kristy Kaznowski of Cary, NC is off to Western Connecticut University to play soccer. The daughter of Tom and Patti Kaz. Didn't realize it at time but daughter of mom-daughter combo we shared a table with in Inlet, is also off to WCU via Cary.

Some NYS vanity plates spotted: MITCHSYS ... Guppy, PECANSAN, UMM OOPS ... most of Frank's tee shots, ICE MOM ... travel hockey, 2121 IBA and 1936RAMS.

The Cardinals of SJ Fisher are the pre-season pick for first in the Empire Eight coaches football poll. The Saxons of AU are the second choice. The two were co-champs last year, Alfred went to the NCAA's and they meet at Merrill Field this season. Like AU's chances!

Backing up to the A-A alumni banquet ... good time as always and very well run event! Had a chance to chat with Leo Vanderhoef and Dick Whitford, many others. Excellent time seeing former classmates for two days but had hoped to see Marge (Johnston), Linda (Rough) and Pam (Powers) there as well. Gatherings at Cafe 'ZA, GJ's and Muhleisen's in Almond prior to the banquet at ASC. The awesome looking dining hall at Alfred State! Good time catching up with my sister, Robin as well and Beth (Goodridge) Menelle after banquet at GJ's!

Took in the hiking trail at North Ponds Park in Webster last week as Lauren in training for upcoming soccer season. I walked two miles around the loop, 3L walked one and ran two. Beautiful area.

3L and I took in the Webster Community Days event on Main Street in the village on Saturday past. Excellent time. Had a chat with guy who makes Adirondack fudge and come to find out he lives in area not far from Indian Lake. Good talking to him about the ADK's. Fudge ... awesome! One of Lauren's former Webster Schroeder soccer teammates, Katie Germano was there as she is departing for college at Belmont in Tennessee. Good seeing her again.

ALMOND COMMUNITY DAY ... August 28th !!!

Unis to direct AU admissions

ALFRED—Corry D. Unis, who has been associate director of Admissions at LeMoyne College in Syracuse, will join Alfred University's Enrollment Management division as director of Admissions, effective Monday, Aug. 9.

"Corry has an excellent range of experiences relating to Enrollment Management," said Earl Pierce, vice president for Enrollment Management at Alfred University. "He has a background as an Admissions counselor and increasingly responsible positions as an assistant director and then associate director at LeMoyne College. He has overseen events, communications with prospective students, and trained and supervised professional staff. His familiarity and comfort with technology also make him an excellent choice for the Alfred University Admissions office."

The most important goal Unis hopes to accomplish as he begins his tenure at Alfred University is to "continue on the great track Alfred is on, attracting the best students, the right students who will benefit from an Alfred University education."

Coming from LeMoyne, which has 2,800 undergraduate students and 800 enrolled in graduate degree programs, Unis understands the challenge in distinguishing among the plethora of small to mid-size, private colleges and universities in New York State, and across the nation.

Unis earned his bachelor's degree in Political Science from LeMoyne College in 2003, and a master's in higher education administration from Syracuse University in 2009.

the East River with the Statue of Liberty standing guard over them as they passed beneath her. As they continued around the Island great views of Lower Manhattan, Jersey City, Staten Island and the Brooklyn Bridge were brought into focus.

Rounding the southern tip of Governors Island the swimmers faced the challenge of cross currents and a rising tide along with the wakes of several boats passing by. These natural elements made it a challenge for the swimmers to stay on course.

Patrick, however, overcame these obstacles and completed the 2 mile open water swim by powering up the Buttermilk Channel in the Hudson River to finish in seventh place out of 209 international competitors. In addition, his time of 40:52.08 was good enough to snap up first place in the men's 15-19 year old age group.

Sixteen year old Patrick is a member of the local swim club - Kanakadea Valley Aquatic Club (KVAC) and Alfred Almond Varsity swim team. He is the son of Doug and Rosetta Greaney.

der...very definitely a good way to celebrate and worship, for sure! Bev's "African Worship Song" nicely brings in the feel of the African plains..."I was lost but am found in you. I know that your eye is on me. I know that your life was the key that would open to me."

Pastor Steve used Philemon, the book with only one chapter, as his reference for the message. It's a personal letter from Paul and the only one which made it through the early church's selection process for the New Testament. Onesimus was a runaway slave. Somehow he made his way to Rome, probably to mix in the life of a big city to be unnoticed. While there, he became a believer. Did he hear Paul speak? Was he already a part of the church when Paul visited? They became close friends.

Onesimus helped Paul during his house arrest in Rome--Paul taught O. in his growing faith. Then something happened--maybe someone recognized Onesimus as a runaway, so Paul convinced him that he should return and make things right. Paul could not go back with him so he wrote a letter to Philemon urging him to accept O. back, but as a friend and a brother in Christ, not as a slave.

Upon reflection, we can see that Paul was one of those people who brings out the best in others. Have you known people like Paul--they draw out the qualities and characteristics in us that just seemed to make life easier. You feel really good in their presence.

First, to do this we need to have faith and trust in Christ. The capacity to bless and refresh others doesn't begin with us; it begins with the source of all blessings, Jesus. Refreshing spirits come from those who live Christ-centered lives, not self-centered lives.

The second thing needed is a genuine love for people--this allows us to see others in a different light. This love allows us to find the strength to forgive when it may not be possible for other people. When we love others as we love Christ we can give others the benefit of the doubt and the door for amazing things to happen.

Third, we need to understand that our faith in Christ and love for others may sometimes ask us to do something rather unexpected. "Stepping out in faith" is the phrase. Paul asked Philemon to do something which at first seems foolish. Radical expectations then....and radical today. We never know when God might open a door for us into something unexpected, but when you have this love of others and Christ, you learn to expect the unexpected. Follow through and be refreshed...and refreshing.

"Friends will sometimes come, friends will sometimes go. But there is one friend I want you to know...Jesus is the real friend, indeed." Can I hear an Amen?

THE GLORY OF AMERICA

Thursday, August 26

Abraham Lincoln’s old friend, Joshua Speed, recalled an incident in the summer of 1864. Seeing Lincoln reading a Bible, Speed remarked, “I am glad to see you so profitably engaged... if you have recovered from your skepticism; I am sorry to say that I have not.”

Lincoln put a hand on his friend’s shoulder and said, “You are wrong, Speed. Take all that you can of this book upon reason, and the balance on faith, and you will live and die a happier man.”

Another great weekend of swimming for Kanakadea Valley Aquatic Club

SYRACUSE--It was another weekend of fine swimming for the Kanakadea Valley Aquatic Club as they travelled to the outdoor Burnet pool in Syracuse for the Niagara District Long Course Championship meet.

Five KVAC athletes hit the water July 24 and 25 th in the 50 meter pool (an Olympic distance) and brought home some personal best times along with snapping up some top ten spots. The tiny team finished twelfth overall out of 22 swim teams present.

Alyssa Greaney (age 10) was the top finisher for KVAC by capturing third place in the 50 breaststroke with a time of 47.50 breaking her own record set earlier in the season by over two seconds. She would go on to finish in the top eight in the 100 breaststroke (1:51.34), the 50 fly (46.31) and 100 free (1:26.16).

Nik von Stackelberg(16) swam to a personal best in the 400 freestyle (4:39.11 )by dropping over ten seconds from a previous KVAC record set in June. Nik would also compete in the 200 backstroke (2:30.69 ) tenth place, 800 freestyle ( 9:52.05 ) fifth place and the 100 back with a fine time of 1:10.32 locking in tenth place.

In the 400 Individual Medley Patrick Greaney (16) bettered his time by over seven seconds to finish in eighth place with a time of 5:27.82. Patrick would also bring home personal bests in the 100 breaststroke (1:18.21) as well as the 200 Individual Medley (2:33.14) all the while capturing sixth place in the 200 breast in a time of 2:46.45.

Maddie McConnell(15) completed the 50 free with a time of 29.22 which was good enough to lock up fourth place. She also finished the 100 free (1:04.03) and 100 back (1:16.95) in top ten spots.

Aaron Haase (15) would round out the weekend of excellent swimming with a time of 4:52.91 in the 400 Freestyle.

The KVAC team finished up their summer season when they traveled to Chenango Forks to compete in the Southern Tier Swim League championship.

A-A 7th grader attends Saxon swim camp

ALFRED—Emily Kokot of Almond attended the Swimming Camp at Alfred University from July 5 to July 9.Kokot is a seventh-grader at Alfred-Almond Central School. She is a daughter of Mike and Tammy Kokot of Almond.

The practice sessions took place in a 25-yard, indoor pool inside Alfred University's McLane Center. Swimmers received technical instruction and learned training principles. The camp also provided advanced workouts for competitive swimmers. Campers lived in University residence halls and ate meals in the campus dining hall. Also, the campers enjoyed activities such as games, movies, picnics and campfires.

Campers received a camp T-shirt and a DVD with stroke analysis. Brian Striker, head coach of Swimming and Diving at Alfred University, served as camp director.

Founded in 1836, Alfred University became the first coeducational institution in New York State and the second in the nation. About 2,000 full-time undergraduate and 400 graduate students work and live in 52 buildings on a scenic 232-acre hillside campus adjoining the village of Alfred.

The nonsectarian University is comprised of the privately endowed AACSB-accredited (Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business) College of Business and the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences, as well as the NYS College of Ceramics (Kazuo Inamori School of Engineering and the School of Art and Design). Bachelor's, master's and doctoral degrees are awarded.

ALYSSA GREANEY, age 10, was the top finisher for Kanakadea Valley Aquatic Club by capturing third place in the 50 breaststroke with a time of 47.50 at the Niagara District Long Course Championships held in Syracuse. (Photo provided)

The Dugout

By DOUG LOROW
Alfred Sun Sports Columnist

HITS AND MISSES:

With the Ryder Cup looming and captain Corey Pavin making his four picks after Labor Day, here is who I would go with: Tiger Woods ... no brainer, Anthony Kim (if healthy), Zach Johnson and Fred Couples. Yes, the #1 player in the world is having a horrendous year, but do you leave Tiger Woods off the team? Kim would've made squad automatically if he was healthy, Johnson is tough and Couples is playing as well as he ever has! The way he drives the ball, pair him up with a great putter and away they go.

Christy Kaznowski, the daughter of former Alfred State College men's hoop coach ... "Kaz" and Patti, is a frosh soccer player for the Western Carolina University Catamounts.

Stephen Baker, the son of Alfred-Almond Hall of Famer John and Colleen, is a frosh soccer player for the University of Penn Quakers. UPenn has a scrimmage game with Temple this Saturday and is at Cornell on October 2nd.

Have been watching the Little League World Series, here and there, of late. Most enjoyable. 3L and I have been to the LL Museum in Williamsport, Pa. a couple of times but have never seen a game there. A few trips to the city to play softball in years past with Bandits traveling squad and we actually stayed one year right across the street from the museum. Slow-pitch games at Elm St. Park. Great time! LL championship game set for 8/29.

Watched some of the Mariners-Yanks on the tube Saturday and Sunday past. Seattle first sacker Casey Kotchman made an error on Saturday, his first in (forever) on a tough, tough hop. Yanks rolling when CC Sabathia and Phil Hughes on the hill but they will not win the WS this year if they have to depend on A.J. Burnett and Javy Vazquez the way they are currently pitching.

Sabathia and David Price of Tampa should be 1-2 in the A.L. C Young Award voting. Right now either one would be a great pick as they cruise along.

The Durham Bulls (Rays) had the best record in the "AAA" International League as of Sunday past while Brooklyn (Mets) paced the NY-P circuit.

Skip Sherman (A-A) is back at the helm of the Genesee Community College baseball team as they start their fall season soon. Sherman's club is at Monroe CC over Labor Day weekend for a DH. Meanwhile, his wife Kristy Sherman is getting her Brockport High girls soccer team ready for another Monroe County League campaign.

Johnny Damon has been claimed off waivers (Tigers) by the Boston Red Sox as they try to help their injury-riddled club. Wonder how the obnoxious BoSox fans will greet Damon now? Booped after leaving Boston, in NY togs, but now back in the fold. The OF helped team win two titles and they boo him on his return to Fenway Park. Real classy.

Roger Clemens won't be returning to Boston anytime soon and cold be off to jail in the future! Yikes. A 7-time Cy Youg Award winner and he probably won't make the Hall of Fame now.

Spotted some NYS vanity plates of late: 99 COBR, FAT SAMS, BEARSFAN ... in Rochester?, FISHN8 ... normal par 5 score in KY, and GOING4IT ... Frank's third shot, par four, 139-yards out, with driver in hand!

Illinois-Chicago has named Howard Moore its new men's basketball coach. Not to be confused with "Howard" Harvey in Almond nor "Doc" Moore for that matter.

2009 WNBA MVP, Diana Taurasi and her Phoenix Mercury teammates will attempt to grab their third basketball title in the last four years as the playoffs start this week.

Happened to catch paragraph in the popular "50-25-10 Years Ago" section of this paper last week as our Bandits softball team won the state "D" championship 25-years ago this summer, 1985. Wow. One of best periods of my life, playing ball with team we had, traveling around. Had solid nucleus of players like: Gervin, Vernon and Vance VanSkiver, Cutter, Z Curran, the late Jim Griffin (Griff), Gaisser and Jake Taft who played virtually all the time. Others like: Phillie, Mucker, Ivan, Bakes, Oscar, Ungawa, Dugan, Buggie, Atwell joined squad at various tournaments. Probably missed somebody and apologize for that. Guys who could play ball and lucky enough to pitch for them. During a three summer stretch, we took (1-2-3) in 28-of-32 tournaments!

Jess Herbst (Webster Schroeder) has been named one of the "top 20-players to watch" in the America East Conference. Herbst is a sophomore MF for the Vermont Catamounts women's soccer team. She made the conference All-Rookie squad last year.

Summer is just about over and time to look forward to fall sports galore. Solid summer of 2010 though ... busy with daughter Lauren as we went to the LPGA Championship, hiking in Ithaca, a Red Wings baseball game, spent a great July 4th weekend in Virginia with the Mixer family-toured DC-excellent fireworks in Maryland ... dinner at Muhleisen's with many including my Mom in mid-July ... our annual trip to the ADK's (great cookies by Julie Jock!) ... hiking at North Ponds Park ... a couple parties at the Baker household to see Stephen off ... Webster Community Day. Busy and fun. The A-A alumni for me, seeing my sister, the Hornell Macker, golfed once in Geneseo, saw Stephen Strasburg pitch with noted area photogapher Leo Nealon at Frontier Field and saw "Hilly" Moses. Can't beat that!

Looking forward to SUNY Geneseo women's soccer which gears up Labor Day weekend at St. Lawrence in a tournament. Team should be strong again, coming off a (14-4-3) slate, a SUNYAC tourney title and a trip to the NCAA's! Some key seniors are gone, as always, but if Blue Knights can replace "toughness" of Eileen Coyle up front, see no reason why Coach Wiley's squad can't be quite good again this season. With 3L a senior, am going to try and make every game this season, often heading to away games with Beale from Penfield. Missed one (Elmira away) last year so hoping to "improve" on that this season.

And, in my "spare" time ... hoping to see Baker play versus Cornell, Herbst sometime for UVM ... but have no idea when, Sherman's GCC baseball squad, maybe a Webster Schroeder girls soccer game with Coach Brown in charge and perhaps an Alfred University football game ... late in the season. Whew.
