

Chamber Singers to perform at Wellsville Arts Center

10/10/08

The Alfred University Chamber Singers, under the direction of Dr. Luanne Crosby, professor of voice and chorus, will perform at the Wellsville Creative Arts Center, Main Street, on Friday, Oct. 24. Doors open at 7:30 p.m. with music starting around 8 p.m. Accompanied on the piano by Laurel Buckwalter, technical specialist and carillonneur at AU, the group of 32 singers will present works for full choir, including jazz standards including "Skylark," "At Last," "Sing, Sing, Sing," "Blue Skies," and "Georgia on My Mind." There will also be selections from "Wicked" and "Phantom of the Opera." Select members of the group will also perform in quartets, trios, duets, and a solo. Buckwalter and Crosby are members of the Division of Performing Arts, School of Liberal Arts & Sciences at Alfred University. There is no entrance charge; donations will be accepted toward the next Chamber Singers tour in 2011. The Creative Arts center will have beverages and desserts on sale.
