

Alfred University College of Business to host talk by alumna, trustee Patricia St. George 4/04/19

Patricia St. George '89

ALFRED, NY – The Alfred University College of Business is hosting a presentation by alumna and University Board of Trustees member Patricia St. George on Wednesday, April 10, at 7 p.m. in Olin 302.

St. George, who earned a bachelor's degree in accounting from Alfred University in 1989, has enjoyed a successful career with KPMG accounting firm. In her talk on Wednesday, she will discuss her career path from Alfred University, leadership challenges today, and advice for students on making choices in their careers.

After graduating from Alfred, St. George joined KPMG in 1989 and was promoted to partner in 2003. She serves as a management consultant in KPMG's Federal Advisory Practice and is the lead for many of the firm's largest defense-contracting-related clients. She is a member of the Association of Government Accountants, the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, and the American Society of Military Comptrollers.

St. George began serving on the Alfred University Board of Trustees on July 1, 2018.
