

Here comes the Sun!

The editor of the Alfred Sun, Dave Snyder, AND his car, read the newspaper, while waiting for the Traffic Light Festival parade to begin. At one point, Dave inadvertently started his windshield wipers, thereby "wiping out" the Sun. The Sun WILL rise again, however.

MASTER'S: Provost to address Downstate grads

BROOKLYN--W. Richard Stephens, provost and vice president for academic affairs at Alfred University, will address graduates of Alfred University's Downstate program during the annual exercises at 11 a.m. Saturday, June 14, at the Brooklyn Bridge Marriott in Brooklyn.

During the ceremony, 105 students will receive their master's degrees in counseling or literacy education or a certificate of advanced study in mental health counseling. They join the 579 students who have completed their master's degrees from Alfred University through the Downstate program since it began in the fall of 2006.

Students enrolled in Alfred University's Downstate programs attend classes weekends at locations in Brooklyn and on Long Island, and spend two weeks in the summer on Alfred University's main campus in Alfred, taking additional courses.

Stephens is completing his first year as AU provost, coming to AU after serving as chief provost at Catawba College in Salisbury, NC. Since coming to AU, Stephens has re-introduced the Allen Term during the mid-winter break between semesters, and has actively promoted expansion of off-site programs and on-line courses.

Additionally, he was instrumental in guiding the final phase of the recent campus self-study that successfully led to Middle States reaccreditation for the University, and hosted the review team that visited campus in April.

While at Catawba, Stephens expanded summer school offerings; led the review, revision and implementation of the general education curriculum; led the redevelopment of evening and graduate offerings to include off-site programs; and encouraged a focus on instructional technology and classroom pedagogy.

ALFRED--Alfred State recently announced promotions for faculty and staff in the Division of Administration and Enrollment. Promoted were: Thomas Ames, Hornell, general mechanic, Facilities Services; Barbara Bennett, Hornell, head janitor, Facilities Services; Kristine Clark, SUNY campus worker, Facilities Services; Shawn Cline, Alfred Station, SUNY campus worker, Facilities Services; Mark Cragg, Almond, instructional support associate, College Farm; Daniel Foster, supervising janitor, Facilities Services; Dominic Gallicchio, calculations clerk 2, Procurement & Payment Services; Mike Houghtaling, Arkport, supervising janitor, Facilities Services; John Kaffitz, Wellsville, general mechanic, Facilities Services; Laura Kernan, Almond, keyboard specialist 2, Facilities Services; Nicole Parise, agency program aide, Student Records & Financial Services; Lawrence Perkins, Andover, maintenance supervisor, Facilities Services; Steven Scott, maintenance assistant, Facilities Services; and Laurie Spike, janitor, Facilities Services. Pictured are (standing from left) John Kaffitz, Mike Houghtaling, Dominic Gallicchio, Tom Ames and (seated from left) Laurie Spike, Nicole Parise, Barb Bennett, Laura Kernan.

Work could begin on AU art museum this month

ALFRED--Construction will begin this month on a $10 million Alfred Museum of Ceramic Art. The University has received a private donation to cover the cost of the new museum, said Charles M. Edmondson, president of Alfred University.

"The new museum will greatly enhance our educational programs, particularly those in ceramic art, for which we are already internationally known," said Edmondson. The University has had a museum of ceramic art for a number of years, but exhibition space has always been limited. "For the past 30 years, much of the collection has been in storage because we have not had sufficient space to display many of the objects at the same time."

Second, the new building will provide the University's fine arts program with a signature building, just as the Miller Performing Arts Center and Theater do for the performing arts program. "We are exploring the synergies between fine and performing arts, trying to develop new academic programs that will enrich both."

The museum design is the work of Architect Bruce Wood of Kallmann McKinnell & Wood Architects, Boston, who designed the performing arts buildings. The museum design echoes that of the Miller buildings; all are brick, with large expanses of glass and dramatic roof lines.

The new building will be located on the site of the former Davis Gym, on Pine Street just past its intersection with Main Street. The front of the building will face west, toward Main Street. The proximity of the site to the School of Art & Design facilities made it the ideal location for the new museum, said Edmondson.

Plans call for a 20,000-square foot, two-story building. The 4,000-square-foot main gallery will be located on the upper floor, which will be accessible from Pine Street. On the lower level will be the collection storage and management areas, administrative offices and restrooms, said Michael Neiderbach, executive director of capital projects for the University.

Neiderbach said the design is "elegant in its simplicity." In addition to being attractive and functional, it will also be "green." The University will be seeking LEED --Leadership in Energy & Environmental Design -- certification. LEED is a green building certification program that recognizes best-in-class building strategies and practices. The new museum will have a geothermal system for heating and cooling, and an energy-efficient roof system.

A construction contract was signed late last month with LeChase Construction of Rochester, the same firm that built the Miller Theater. Neiderbach estimates actual work could begin by the middle of the month, and will take about a year to complete.

Artists' rendering of the 20,000 square foot, two-story ceramic art museum that is expected to be completed in July 2015. The main gallery, accessible from Pine Street, will be on the second floor.

OBITUARIES

'Peg' Hover took up nursing after retiring from a teaching career at HHS, A-A, Arkport

MARY L. "PEG" HOVER

Long time teacher, nurse
HORNELL—Mary L. "Peg" Hover, 74, passed away unexpectedly Sunday morning (June 1, 2014) at her home on Riverside Drive, Hornell.

Born in Hornell on March 10, 1940, she was a daughter of the late Jacob and Hazel Haffner Bash. On Aug. 20, 1960, she was married in Hornell to James Hover, who predeceased her on June 4, 2001, after nearly 41 years of marriage. Besides her parents and husband, she was also predeceased by her brother, Emmett Bash; and her sister, Edna Kohnke.

A lifelong resident of Hornell, Peg was a graduate of Hornell

High School, where she was the valedictorian of the Class of 1957. She also attended the University of Rochester and Alfred University and received a master's degree in education.

Peg was employed as a teacher for the Hornell City School District, Alfred-Almond Central School and retired from Arkport Central School. After retiring, she graduated from Alfred State College where she received an associate degree in nursing and was valedictorian of her graduating class. She was employed as a registered nurse for Southern Tier Hospice, Hornell Gardens and as a substitute school nurse for the Hornell City School District and Arkport Central School.

She was a very active member of the United Presbyterian Church in Hornell, where over the years she served as a deacon, elder, Sunday School teacher, director of the children's choir and was a member of the adult choir. Peg was also a member and past president of the Arkport Exchange Club, was instrumental in forming the Ecology Club at Arkport Central School, and also served as a group leader for educational tours to Europe.

Music played a large role in Peg's life, but among her other interests were her love of animals, gardening and knitting; in fact, Peg probably knitted well over 100 of her 'famous' Christmas stockings for family and friends over the years. She was often considered as an adventure seeker and was willing to do just about anything, including skydiving at the age of 72. Peg will be remembered most of all for being a loving wife, mother, grandmother, sister and friend.

Her loving family includes her four children, Dr. Jim (Sandy) Hover of Almond, Carol Hover of Hornell, Kathy (Frank) Ames of Saranac, and Rick (Amy) Hover of Canton, Ohio; her five grandchildren, April (Greg) Bundrick, Andrew Hover, Elizabeth Hover, Kaelyn Hover and Alayna Hover; her two great-grandchildren, Gregory and Danika Bundrick; her longtime companion, Gus Zito of Emporium, Pa.; her brother, Jerry Bash of Maryland; her sister, Dorothy Sayles of Florida; also her nieces, nephews and cousins.

The Bishop & Johnson Funeral Home, Inc. in Hornell is honored to serve the family of Mary L. "Peg" Hover.

Calling hours were 4-7 p.m. Friday, June 6 at the Bishop &

Johnson Funeral Home, Inc., 285 Main St., Hornell. A funeral service was held in her memory at 11 a.m. Saturday, June 7 at the United Presbyterian Church, 150 Main St., Hornell, with the Rev. Virginia Murray officiating. Private committal services and interment were at Rural Cemetery, Hornell.

In lieu of flowers, those wishing may contribute in her memory to the choir of the United Presbyterian Church, 150 Main St., Hornell, NY 14843 (envelopes will be available at the funeral home and church) or to a charity of the donor's choice.

Online condolences or remembrances are welcome at www.bishopandjohnsonfuneralhome.com.

Long-time maintenance supervisor

GERALD A. TORRENCE

Retired from College of Ceramics

ALMOND—Gerald A. Torrence, 80, of McHenry Valley Road, Almond, passed away Sunday (June 1, 2014) Jones Memorial Hospital in Wellsville.

Born in Hornell, Jan. 18, 1934, the son of Fay and Illa Allen Torrence, he had resided in Almond since 1960. During Gerald's formative years he lived on Keuka Lake helping his family run a boat livery service. He was one of the first patients in the area to undergo open heart surgery in 1963. Gerald was a partner and helped operate the Torrence & Son Hardware in Almond until its closing in 1964 and also began his 30 year career as the maintenance supervisor at the New York State College of Ceramics at Alfred University.

One of his favorite hobbies was to collect and restore outboard motors.

In addition to his parents, Gerald was predeceased by one brother, Richard Torrence.

He is survived by his wife, Lorraine Williams Torrence, to whom he was married for 54 years; one son, Bruce (Laurie) Torrence of Greece; one daughter, Brenda (Martin) Naumilket of Medina, Ohio; one brother, Darwin (Barbara) Torrence of Fremont; six grandchildren, Jesse, Jacob, Natalie, Ella, Ava, and Alexander; and nieces and nephews.

To send a remembrance or to light a candle in Gerald's memory, visit www.brownpowersfuneralhomes.com. The family is being assisted by Adam E. DuBois, director.

Honoring Gerald's wishes there were no calling hours. A private service was held at the family's convenience.

Friends may make memorial contributions to the Almond Volunteer Fire Department, 1 Marvin Lane, Almond, NY 14804.

Dr. Poppo named ASC vice-president

ALFRED—Dr. Kristin Poppo, of Belmont, Mass., has accepted the position of vice president of Academic Affairs at Alfred State, effective July 16. Most recently, Poppo has been associate provost and executive director of regional centers and the National Institute of Teaching Excellence at Cambridge College. "Dr. Poppo's student-centered approach to leadership, and her focus on preparing a 21st-century workforce, aligns perfectly with Alfred State's values and goals," said Alfred State President Dr. Skip Sullivan. "We are delighted that she has accepted our offer and that she will soon be an essential part of supporting our mission."

"Alfred State's emphasis on civic engagement, experiential learning, sustainability, and relevant degree programs is visionary and serves as a model for all of higher education," Poppo said. "I am passionate about teaching and learning and found the opportunity to provide academic leadership at an institution that is closely aligned with my values irresistible."

Poppo has an extensive background in both education and community service. She has held teaching positions at colleges in Vermont, North Carolina, and Washington. She has also been a minister at Madura Congregational Church in Wakefield, Kan., and an associate minister at Second Congregational Church in Beverly, MA.

"As both a teacher and a leader, my goal is to empower others to grow and thrive while improving their lives and building stronger communities," she said. "My deepest passion is to create a more just and compassionate world and to inspire others to share this commitment. My work in faith communities, non-profits, and higher education has been about service and providing all people the opportunity for success. I will be deeply committed to every student and work diligently to help them complete degrees that will enhance their lives."

Poppo has served in the Solomon Islands as a community development worker/medical discharge with the U.S. Peace Corps and has held chaplaincy internships at Northeastern Vermont Regional Hospital and Goddard Chapel at Tufts University.

Poppo received her Ph.D. in the social and philosophical foundations of education from the University of North Carolina, Greensboro; her master's in divinity from Harvard Divinity School in Cambridge, Mass.; her master's in teaching/environmental communications from Antioch University – New England in Keene, N.H.; and her bachelor's degree in philosophy and religion with a minor in women's studies from Colgate University in Hamilton, N.Y.

Dr. Robert Curry named dean at ASC

ALFRED—Dr. Robert Curry has been appointed dean of the School of Arts and Sciences at Alfred State, effective July 1.

"We are extremely pleased to have someone of Dr. Curry's caliber in this position," said Interim Vice President of Academic Affairs Craig Clark. "Bob's time at Alfred State has prepared him well for the challenges of a dean's responsibilities. His dedication to teaching and learning will be a tremendous asset to us and will unquestionably enhance the educational opportunities available to our students."

Curry joined the Alfred State faculty in 2004 and served as department chair for English and Humanities from 2008-2013, and as interim dean of the School of Arts and Sciences in 2013-2014. He is New York's higher education representative to the Partnership for Assessment of Readiness for College and Careers (PARCC) and serves on PARCC's Core Leadership Review Committee and New York's English Language Arts Content Advisory Panel—groups that guide development of state and national Common

Core-aligned assessments. He has also worked on Common Core-aligned standards and assessment projects for the U.S. Department of Education and with the GED Testing Service. His other scholarly interests include technology and education, competency-based education, and the study of literature and environment.

"I'm honored to be appointed dean for the School of Arts and Sciences at Alfred State. We have an excellent faculty and staff who are deeply committed to the success of our students, and I look forward to working with them in this new role," Curry said.

As dean, Curry is responsible for leading more than 70 faculty and staff. The school, with an annual budget of about $3 million, includes seven departments (Agriculture and Veterinary Technology, English and Humanities, Mathematics/Physics, Nursing, Physical and Life Sciences, Social and Behavioral Sciences, and the Student Success Center) offering 19 programs to more than 1,250 students.

Curry holds a Ph.D. in English from the University of Connecticut; a master's in English from California State University, Chico; and a bachelor's in creative writing and comparative literature from San Francisco State University.

Farm Market under new management

On Saturday we drove out to the newly reopened, under new management, Jenkins' Farm Market. It looks much the same, carrying mostly the things the old market had. I bought a pint of fresh blueberries, my favorite. They are absolutely delicious—firm and juicy. I didn't ask where they were from but, of course, our local ones are not ready yet.

The staff were just as friendly and helpful as the old staff. We certainly recommend you pay a visit.

This recipe I found on the internet. It was from the Recipe 4 Living site.

Red, White, and Blue Salsa

- | | |
|----------------------------------|--------------------------------|
| 1 c. fresh blueberries | 2 T. jalapeno pepper, stemmed, |
| 1 c. strawberries, diced | seeded, and finely chopped |
| 1 c. jicama, diced | juice of 1 large lime |
| 1/3 c. cilantro, chopped | salt to taste |
| 1/4 c. red onion, finely chopped | tortilla chips for serving |

Mix first 8 ingredients and chill well. Serve with the chips.

Alfred DeLIGHTful

To the Editor:

Thank you Alfred, thank you everyone for such a terrific celebration of our light, our community. Only the weather outshone our community gathering on Friday June 6.

The traffic light will go on, perhaps not even realizing the fete at its feet last week. The light is no different now than it was days, weeks or years ago. Yet, we as friends, neighbors, a community may never see our single traffic control device in the same way again. The light will still run on a fifty-two second cycle. We will still wonder why NPR is so scratchy near the light, but beneath its three way changes and two way flashes. But underneath, we are a community and we meet there regularly. What fine commentary on the light and our village we heard from Rick Stephens, Gary Horowitz, Virginia Rasmussen, Gary Ostrower, Craig Clark, and Justin Grigg.

All proceeds for the festival will benefit the repairs to the Village's Mike Kenyon Children's Park. The Alfred Montessori School is taking the lead on those repairs. Support the gracious efforts of Montessori, with your purchase of Traffic Jam or ordering additional T-shirts. Contact Becky Prophet for Traffic Jam, 587 8833. Traffic Light T-shirts may be ordered through Traffic Light Festival Facebook page or e-mail waterwellsalfred@hotmail.com for $10 for local pickup.

We came together as a community to celebrate Community! Thanks to all who joined in the good times. Thank you, too, to The Alfred Sun, the other real light in town. Thanks, Hal Snyder, for the wagon! Thanks Alfred Police Department, and the Village of Alfred. Thanks to Alfred State and Alfred University. Thanks to University Relations and AU Alumni Office and all alums who joined.

Thanks to the past mayors, both for their service and to our enlightenment that night. Just think, Gary Horowitz travelled three hundred miles and saw only three traffic lights, "ours" the third!

Thanks to the businesses who keep our village heart alive. Thanks to SOUND FOUNDATION for wonderful music. Thanks and thanks again to A.E. Crandall Hook and Ladder Company and to all of the area fire companies who participated. Thank you parade participants. Thank you parade watchers. Thanks volunteers who handled, sold, led, shaped so much of the event.

Thanks Hope Zacaggni, Bob and Sherry Volk, Craig and Becky Prophet, Laurie McFadden, Cheryl Foster and Joe Dosch. But most of all, thanks to the kids who were there, who can now brag to friends from other places that they grew up in a one traffic light town that had the sense to celebrate the fact and honor our ways of life and light.

She walks through the door, but I don't recognize her;
The hair's not familiar—oh, but maybe the eyes're....
As paternal detection begins to lock in,
I cry, "Look at your hair! Now you've killed it again!"
She replies (hands on hips), "It's not dead, Dad, it's dyed."
"Uh-huh, that's exactly what I said: it died!"

So yes, that's who it was – she, my own precious daughter
With new-looking hair...you'd think I'd've taught her
When your hairdo looks different and other folks see ya,
They ask who you are, cuz they've got no idea.

They think that you might be their brother's girl Maisey,
Or that cousin whose hiccup-laugh drives people crazy,
Or maybe the neighbor-girl, come here to borrow
A half cup of sugar she'll bring back tomorrow (Cuz back home she'll discover she's fresh out of butter;
But come begging again? No, the thought makes her shudder).

Or maybe, just maybe, it's Great-Great Aunt Ruth Who's gone out and discovered the Fountain of Youth –
Which we realize now – I mean, who woulda thunk? –
That the modern-day version's the Fountain of Punk...

So I oughtta be thankful it's only the hair
'Stead of piercings and vulgar tattoos who-knows-where,
While arrayed in, perhaps, combat boots and a tutu,
With three shirts (of which one would most likely fit you too);
Or jeans, magic-markered and new scissor-holed,
Together with leather with feathery mold;
Or fishnets and silk shorts, with tee shirt and tie,
And the blackest mascara encircling each eye,
And decked out in bracelets, all studs and spikes,
And such chains as an old biker's biker babe likes.

Yeah, I oughtta be thankful it's only the hair
'Stead of that AND an outfit that says "I don't care."
And I oughtta have learned to prepare for the worst –
If I don't check her Facebook for new selfies first!

It's hard to believe that the traffic light has been around for forty years. The light was installed under the watch of then Alfred Village Mayor Gary Horowitz when I was a senior in high school. It was about that time that I passed my driver's road test, although it's too long ago to remember exactly when that occurred. Is it too presumptuous on my part to assume the light was installed to slow me down going through town?

I do remember at that time I was likely driving the brown 1964 Plymouth Fury that was passed around among my siblings for a few years.

It was the early summer of 1975 that I finally purchased my own car. $50. At an auction. Opening bid. They say one man's trash is another man's treasure. I purchased the 1962 Plymouth Valiant with a Slant-6 engine and push button automatic transmission at the estate auction of Laverne Kenyon. It was like yesterday that the auctioneer explained that the car (which had been in storage in a damp basement and certainly qualified as a "rust bucket") might have some transmission problems. It seems the owner had been down to the Old Mill Inn one night and before getting the car out of the parking lot, had managed to hit six cars. Well, at least that's how I remember it. I think it was written up in the Alfred Sun.

So the auctioneer asked if anyone would offer $100. No one moved. After a look of frustration came upon the auctioneer, I raised my hand and said I'd offer him $50 for it. He looked relieved. And after a brief call for any other bids, he banged the gavel and declared, "Sold!"

I was thrilled. Upon completing the necessary paperwork, I took the car to my cousin Ron, who looked it over and concurred that there was indeed a transmission problem--there was no transmission fluid! After topping it off, the transmission worked just fine. Once again, I was thrilled!

As it turned out, the 1962 Plymouth Valiant, which was a rusty gray with a red interior (and the radio worked great), served me faithfully for two or three years with all my trips back and forth to Morrisville my senior year at MATC. The brake lines had suffered during the long period of time in damp storage so occasionally my rides became adventurous, necessitating me to carry a can of brake fluid in the car at all times.

As it turned out, a few other problems developed and eventually I sold my first car...for $75...as I "upgraded."

I've gone through plenty of vehicles since, but the 1962 Plymouth Valiant--my first--will always remain one of my favorites. In fact, my 2001 Chrysler PT Cruiser often reminds me of that first car, just the way it handles and how I sit low in it like a go-kart, so unlike all of the mini-vans I've driven over the years.

Come to think of it, the PT Cruiser was acquired in similar fashion as that first automobile purchase. A couple summers ago, I was over at Amy Daze and bought it--at a yard sale!

Allegany County Legislator

FACILITIES UPDATE

For the past several years I have served as Chairperson of the Facilities and Communications Committee ("F&CC") of the Allegany County Legislature. One of the major responsibilities of that committee is to analyze and respond to issues involving the various county facilities. In this article I want to review some of the recent capital facilities projects handled by the F&CC.

The biggest project that the County has undertaken in recent years was the Jail or Public Safety Building. That project actually commenced before I was elected to the County Legislature, but was completed during my first year on the Board. That $23 million facility houses both the County Jail and E-911 Program. Both are functioning well. The capital expense for the Jail has been covered by revenue collected from federal agencies for housing their prisoners. The Sheriff's Department is not making money, but at least the building is not costing local taxpayers anything out-of-pocket, at this time. Hopefully this pattern will continue until the facility is totally paid for.

The next big project involved the Court Facilities. The first step of that $14.5 million project involved constructing an addition to the courthouse. Once that addition was completed the court operations moved into the new space, and the courthouse was renovated. All of that work has been completed, along with several additional renovation projects. The Department of Motor Vehicles moved into newly renovated space in the Courthouse. The District Attorney's Office relocated from the County Office Building ("COB") to the Courthouse Addition. The County Attorney's Office facilities were enlarged and renovated in the COB. The Probation Department's offices, located in the basement of the County Courthouse, are being renovated while remaining in service. This was all completed under budget.

The F&CC has several other projects currently underway. The County Museum has moved from its location across Court Street from the Courthouse. That old building is scheduled for demolition over the next several months. That space will be used to provide additional parking. Many of the historical artifacts from that building were recently moved to the County Fairgrounds in Angelica. Those items should be available for inspection over the next several years. We are also exploring ways to meet record storage needs for all County agencies. Records storage is an ongoing challenge.

The most recent "controversial" facilities project involves upgrades to the old Jail elevator in the COB. A 40-year old public elevator provides access to the 3 lower floors of the COB. The top floor of the COB served as the County Jail for about 30 years. A separate elevator that only opens onto the ground floor and top floor of the COB, provides the only handicapped access to the third floor. Lack of appropriate access has been a barrier to development of the old Jail space for other departments. However, the single greatest need in the COB was for a back-up elevator to use if/when the main elevator was out of service. The public elevator has broken down on several occasions over the past few years.

The old "Jail elevator" is now being renovated to provide a second means of ingress/egress to all floors of the COB. The ground floor entrance has been reconfigured to provide better security screening, and more efficient traffic flow. Otis Elevator Company is upgrading the elevator. When renovations are completed the elevator doors will open on all four floors, providing 2 different options for access to other floors.

Once the elevator work is completed we can begin analyzing the best ways to renovate the old Jail space. We are exploring options that will allow us to do that in innovative and cost effective ways. Alfred State College has agreed to have their design program assist us in evaluating our space needs and in designing new facilities. We also hope to use the technical trades programs available in the County to perform construction services.

Amazingly, the County is completing these "smaller" projects without borrowing, and without raising taxes. That's the best news of all.

NOTES from the BOX OF BOOKS

By ELIZA ORDWAY
Box of Books Library Director

Searching for the Library--How many of us know how to search for items in our libraries? For fiction items it isn't hard if you know the author and the title but non-fiction does require a little research. StarCat is fairly easy to navigate once you get familiar with the lay out. I found out quite by accident today that my son thinks to find a book at the library you simply ask the librarian and she gets it for you. WHAT? Don't get me wrong I don't mind helping patrons find items in the library and sometimes it is just easier but I do think that learning how to search for items in the library is a very useful tool. So if you are one of the patrons who gets my let me show you how to use starcat lessons don't take offense, it just means that I know you can handle the task at hand.

If you are interested in learning how to use StarCat you can always get a lesson from myself or Rima. We are both quite good at hunting for books. You will also be amazed at the amount of information available to you with in the system. I am already planning library scavenger hunts for my kids when we go to the libraries to help build their library skills. I know that there will be a scheduled library day for my kids this summer to help them build their skills.

Check out our chart in the library entry way to check our progress on the Access Project. For the project we will be leveling the sidewalk at the entrance and getting automatic door openers for our front doors. This project will cost close to $6500, we currently have $900 from the Foundations for Southern Tier Library System, $2100 from the Friends of the Box of Books, and an anonymous donor has offered to make up the difference of what we don't raise to cover the expenses. If you would like to donate money to the Accessibility Project here at the library just write access on the memo line of your check and mail it to Alfred Box of Books Library, 1 West University St, Alfred NY, 14802. Please contact Eliza with any questions.

We will be continuing Story Time on Wednesday's at 10 am. Story time is a great mix of stories, music and rhymes for birth to 5. All are welcome and no registration is needed.

June 19th at 4:30 pm- Bon Voyage Bob Party! This annual event is where the kids can say goodbye to Bob the Bookworm and welcome the incoming Summer Reading Program mascot. This year's Summer Reading Program theme is Fizz, Boom, Read! What/who do you think that mascot will be? Participants are asked to register for this POTLUCK held out front of the BoB (weather permitting) There is no theme for the PotLuck this year just bring a dish you'd like to share.

June 21st - As Seen on Pinterest will be held at 10 am. Cork Crafts, variety of different craft ideas using corks are on our As Seen on Pinterest board on Pinterest. Please register at the desk for this event, bring a glue gun and any corks you may have.

Almond 20th Century Club Library

New Happenings at the Almond Library
By SANDRA ROBINSON

Almond Twentieth Century Club Library Director

Thank you, Alfred-Almond voters, for once again supporting the Almond Library! Although I expressed our sentiments on Facebook, I was remiss in including it in last week's article. So, belatedly, the Board of Trustees and I again want to voice our heartfelt appreciation to our wonderful voters who consider community, education and libraries important. We will continue to do our best to become an even more valuable resource for all of you to enjoy.

Presidential Campaign Posters is the topic of discussion by Michael Snowden of Hornell at 6 pm tonight (Thursday, June 12) here at the library as part of our Geek the Library speaker series. A portion of his collection has been on exhibit here.

"Fizz, Boom, Read," our 2014 Summer Reading Program, starts off with a bang on July 2. Children are invited to hear stories, watch demonstrations, do hands-on experiments and activities, enjoy snacks, and have lots of fun! Wednesdays, 10 am-12 pm:

July 2: A Wet Slimy Experience: Liquids and Density.

July 9: Seeing is Believing: Optics and Microscopes.

July 16: An Attractive and Shocking Experience: Magnets and Static Electricity.

July 23: Fizz and Boom: Air Pressure and Gases.

Tuesday, July 29, 6:30 pm: Closing Program: A Sweet, Ice Cold, Big-Bang ending. We are seeking volunteers to help in any capacity (provide snacks, read, registration, assist during activities, etc.).

Be part of something big, and help us win a new tablet computer! From June 3-18, the Big Library Read invites you download (for free) A Pedigree to Die For, a mystery by author Laurien Berenson. You'll be joining millions around the world who will be reading it simultaneously. Then the library with the largest percentage increase in digital circulation within the Southern Tier Library System will receive a tablet computer! It's easy to do from the starcat.stls.org digital catalog, using your library card and pin.

This month's calendar:

June 3-18: Big Library Read.

June 14, 10am: Kids' Pumpkin Patch: transplanting seeds for our children's garden with Mary Lu Wells.

June 17, 5pm: Book Club. Reading All Souls. Everyone welcome.

June 23, 10 am: Community Coffee. Lots of conversation and laughs.

June 24, 6:30 pm: Monthly Board of Trustees meeting, all welcome.

June 26, 6 pm: Sci-Fi Book Club—Infinity and Beyond. Reading I, Robot. All welcome.

June 28, 10 am: Paul Bunyan Day. Come for a story about his fantastic deeds!

Mondays 10am: Preschool Storytime. Stories, songs, and a craft.

Look for our calendar on Facebook and our website, almondlibrary.org.

Library Hours: M, W, Sat 9:30am-1pm. Tu, Th 1-7pm. We geek libraries!

FIFTY YEARS AGO, JUNE 11, 1964

The Alfred University Board of Trustees has approved a $15.5 million Master Plan providing increased endowment and construction of buildings costing $9.5 million during the next ten years, President M. Ellis Drake announced today. The Trustees projected a $6 million increase in endowment funds during the coming decade, primarily for student scholarships and faculty salaries. The Plan also anticipates a 25 percent increase in enrollment of undergraduate students within five years. New buildings costing $6 million are listed as first priority needs to be met by 1967. Public funds are expected to finance $3.5 million of that amount...

Alfred Station—Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Pierce, Eric and Wendy Sutton spent the weekend with Mrs. Pierce's sister, Mrs. William Jones, and family at Conneaut, Ohio...Mr. and Mrs. Burr Woodruff and family of Medina, Simon Aldrich and family, Leighton Austin and family, and Mrs. Agnes Woodruff were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Austin...Mr. and Mrs. James Pickering and daughter Laurie of Rochester were Sunday overnight and Monday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Emerson...

Carleton Gillette, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Gillette of Almond, will graduate this week from Orange County Community College at Middletown. He is a member of the first class to be graduated from Orange County Community College in the correction curriculum. Presently senior boys training supervisor of Annex Training School in Goshen, Gillette has been affiliated with the State Correction Department for over ten years. Gillette plans to attend school this summer and next fall at New Paltz College of Education to complete requirements for his bachelor's degree. He is married to the former Fay Steinbrecker of Hornell. They have three children.

The June 16th meeting of the Alfred Garden Club which was to have been held at Miss Nelson's farm on Hartsville Hill is postponed due to the illness of Miss Nelson's sister, which has called her to New England.

Alfredians—Mrs. Madeleine Burdick left yesterday for Fairport to visit Mr. and Mrs. William Crandall for a couple of weeks...Mr. and Mrs. Ben F. Crump of Milford, N.J. were guests of friends and relatives over the commencement weekend...Mrs. Glenn Alty Crafts made a brief trip from Snyder to see her father, J.W. Jacox, and to attend the 25th reunion of her class at the alumni banquet, Saturday evening...Dr. Ray Wingate and Mrs. Peggy Rase will spend the weekend in Washington, D.C., where Dr. Wingate will play the new carillon in Mt. St. Alban's Cathedral for the Guild of Carillonneurs of North America...Dr. and Mrs. Burton Crandall of Milton, Wis., were guests for the commencement weekend of Dr. Ben Crandall and witnessed the ovation given Dr. Ben at the alumni banquet on the celebration of the 65th anniversary of his graduation from Alfred University...

Births—Dr. and Mrs. Richard Pearce are parents of a daughter, Emily, born June 2, 1964 at Bethesda Hospital, North Hornell. Dr. and Mrs. Peter Finlay are parents of a son, Douglas Stevenson, born June 2, 1964 at Bethesda Hospital, North Hornell. Mr. and Mrs. David Gregory are parents of a daughter born June 2, 1964 at Bethesda Hospital, North Hornell. My, busy day wasn't it?

Miss Jean Carpenter and John Leathersich, Alfred-Almond Central School seniors, were chosen king and queen of the annual senior ball held Saturday evening in the school gymnasium. Some twenty-five couples danced to the music of Ray Hedges and his orchestra. The floor was decorated in a South Pacific theme, with an island mural adorning one wall. Punch and cookies were served by hostesses in Polynesian dress. Eleventh grade attendants for the royal couple were Rita Brownell and Chris Frechette, and tenth grade attendants were Diane Bertch and Darryl Cornelius. General chairman of the dance was Mary Obuhanich, assisted by Cynthia Rogers, decorations; Betsy Phelan, advertising; Donna Rossman, refreshments; Roger Van Horn, clean-up; and Miss Rossman, Miss Obuhanich, and Pat Richmond, queen and chaperones.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO, JUNE 15, 1989

Alfred-Almond Central School District voters Wednesday approved a $4,450,201 budget by a 2 to 1 margin and overwhelmingly approved a school bus purchase in the District Election and Budget vote. John Buckwalter was unopposed and received 327 votes in being elected to a five-year term on the Board of Education. Buckwalter had been appointed to complete term of Mario Prisco last year. The budget vote was 250 yes, 130 no, while the school bus purchase was 293 yes, 81 no. The 1989-90 spending plan is an increase of $262,219 over the 1988-89 budget...

The Alfred Ad Hoc Planning Group will "graduate" and become the "Alfred 21st Century Group" at a meeting scheduled for 9:30 a.m. Friday, June 23 at the Union University Church Center. The group's initial effort will be to seek citizen input in developing a comprehensive plan for the Village and Town of Alfred...A public forum held last month by the Village of Alfred served as a springboard for the group—which was initiated in July 1988 by Alfred University President Edward Coll "to develop a cooperative long-term partnership which would focus on planning for projects to improve the physical appearance of our area..."

Alfredians—Dr. James F. Curl, professor of counselor education at A.U. and Suszan Szczerbacki, manager for the Alfred Housing Committee, both of whom reside in Wellsville, won seats on the school board there. Dr. Curl won a three-year term, Mrs. Szczerbacki a one-year term...The Hartsville Museum has opened for the season, as announced by Richard Call and Randolph Webb...Many from Alfred were in Hornell last Sunday morning to attend the fly-in breakfast held at the airport. Dave Schwert proved himself in the fried egg department...The Arun K. Varshneya family has taken off to India for a three-month visit...Guests of Harriet Saunders over Alumni Weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Philip Saunders and their daughters and their families of Scottsville, and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Fish of Wichita, KS...The Joe Canale Combo provided music of the '30s, '40s and '50s for the listening and dancing pleasure at Howell Hall for returning alumni on June 3...

Is there another English professor anywhere who this year won both a national award for teaching and another for an ability to milk cows? This dual recognition went to Dr. Aniko Vincze Constantine of Dansville, professor of English at Alfred State College. Dr. Constantine, a member of the faculty since 1974, is the first Alfred State recipient of the Jaime Escalante Award, established by the American Association of Higher Education...The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Vincze of Laurens (retired dairy farmers), she proved she hasn't lost her "touch" by defeating all other faculty members competing in a milking contest in conjunction with National Ag Day...

David R. Gignac of Alfred has been named to the Dean's List at Alfred University for earning a 3.30 (out of a possible 4.00) or above grade point average as a full-time student during the 1989 spring semester. A junior in the NYS College of Ceramics, Gignac is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul A. Gignac of Alfred.

Nikolas J. Ninos of Alfred has been named to the Dean's List at Alfred University for earning a 3.30 (out of a possible 4.0) or above grade point average as a full-time student during the 1989 Spring semester. A junior in the NYS College of Ceramics, Ninos is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Ninos of 34 Hillcrest Drive, Alfred.

Fifty Years Ago, June 8, 1939—Driving south from Alfred Station on Route 17-F, five miles from Andover, passersby see a sign "Octopus Tree" that piques their curiosity. Crossing the Erie tracks to the home of Charles Lusk, retired Erie track foreman, they find a unique collection of oddities in stone and tree root, together with amusing cement models made by the owner of the small museum. Added to this, Mr. Lusk's fund of local historic facts and community folk lore, makes the trip, three miles beyond Alfred Station, well worthwhile. Picking you way across the creek that comes down the Old Gorge Road, you find the grass and fern covered way of the first road built from Railroad Valley to Alfred in 1815, running to the right of the Gorge Road as Alfred People knew it, but still discernible. Along the cool, leafy path, watching for deer tracks sometimes to be found, you come to the site of the first grist mill built in Alfred by Stephen Coon in 1821. It was fed by water from the Gorge Creek and the Withey Cold Spring. The flood of July 1935 washed away earth enough to show the remains of thirty feet of the old mill's wall, and the spillway. A grass-filled depression still marks the wheel-pit. On the site, Mr. Lusk cast a cement historic marker...

TEN YEARS AGO, JUNE 10, 2004

Alfred University will build its new Schein-Joseph International Museum of Ceramic Art at Alfred University on the site where Davis Gym now stands, AU President Charles M. Edmondson announced today. "There were several reasons behind our decision to move the proposed location for the new museum, not the least of which was the community's response to the South Hall site," said Edmondson. Initially, the University had proposed to tear down South Hall, which had been built in the early 1900s as the Alfred community school, but in recent months, community residents petitioned the University to reconsider its plans. "Residents raised valid concerns about parking and traffic," said Edmondson. "We agreed that there might be other locations with greater visibility from Main Street and better access and parking for visitors." In addition, use of the South Hall site would have forced the University to tear down and rebuild Crandall Health Center. "That would have been an additional expense not included in our original estimates," he said. Alfred University received a total of $9.2 million through the State University of New York Construction Fund to build the new facility...Edward G. Coll, Jr., chairman of the Committee of 44, an economic development advocacy group that includes representatives of industry, higher education, non-profit agencies and government, said he endorses the new site because of the enhanced visibility the Davis Gym site will afford the Museum...

Sunbeams—Editor David Snyder attended the Sixth Great International Obituary Writers' Conference June 3-5 in Las Vegas, NM. He was invited to the session by the organization's founder, Carolyn Gilbert of Dallas, TX, after introducing and getting acquainted with Gilbert at a session on obituary writing at the spring convention of the New York Press Association. Snyder found the 40+ fellow participants to be a lively group...Ellen E. Baker of Andover has returned home after two weeks spent with her daughter, Melinda and H. Richard Baker and family in Holly Springs, GA. While there, she spent an afternoon with Sheila and Bob Snyder, formerly of Alfred, at their home in Atlanta...

Thirty-year celebration absolutely 'delightful'—

(By Becky Prophet) Thank you, to the Alfred community and those who joined us from the surrounding area, for making the 30th anniversary of the installation of our one and only traffic light such a wonderful event for all of us to celebrate our village and our small town ways...In short, Thank you Alfred! Who? Alfred, NY! None of us will ever look at the traffic light in the same way again. Maybe, at least for a while, the 20 to 40 seconds that we sit there, won't seem so long as we remember what a privilege it is to live in Alfred.

The Prigmores in 2004.

The final chapter of 2004 A-A Varsity Softball was written on the field at Clifton Common Saturday, June 5, where the Lady Eagles faced the Emerald Knights from Hamilton in the New York State Semi-final for Class D. As it turned out, the first inning decided the outcome, as Hamilton issued back-to-back singles up the middle to score their leadoff runner who had reached on an error. Those were the only hits given up by Eagle ace, Casey Curran, as she struck out five and the Eagles' solid defensive play the rest of the way took care of the rest. A-A's own offense threatened on several occasions, but sparkling defensive play by the Knights held the Eagles scoreless through the rest of the game. Jody Ninos and Lindsey Moretti were the lone hitters, but Katie Flint, Chelsea Murray, and Casey all had nice long out-field hits snared by spectacular fielding. Jody and Casey were named to the all-tournament team. Hamilton experienced the same frustration in the final, losing 1-0 to perennial powerhouse Chapel Field...

Ten Years Ago, June 9, 1994—Cellular telephone service comes to Allegany County...three cell sites have been installed in the towns of Angelica, Cuba and Wellsville...cover as well as Belmont, Belfast and Friendship and along Routes 17, 19, 417, 244, 305...A fourth cell site is planned by Rochester Tel. Mobile Communications... Word has been received of the death of former Alfred resident Frank Beaton on Monday, June 6, 1994. He retired several years ago after serving as faculty member and administrator at Alfred State College...

Dr. Mixture named ACerS Fellow

ALFRED—Dr. Scott T. Mixture, Inamori Professor of Materials Science and Engineering in the Kazuo Inamori School of Engineering at Alfred University (AU), has been named a Fellow of The American Ceramic Society (ACerS).

Fellows are selected by the ACerS Board of Directors for outstanding contributions to the ceramic arts or sciences; through broad and productive scholarship in ceramic science and technology; by conspicuous achievement in ceramic industry; or by outstanding service to the Society. Fellows must have reached their 35th birthday and been members of the Society at least five years continuously at the time of their nomination.

The author or co-author of some 140 publications, Mixture has given more than 340 presentations at professional meetings, including some 30 invited talks at international assemblies. He has served as a session organizer for several international meetings and chaired more than 25 sessions at international conferences.

His primary interests center on structure characterization of oxides, especially in-situ measurements using synchrotron radiation, neutrons, and laboratory x-ray sources. Mixture's current research includes study of oxide nanosheets for photocatalytic and electro-chemical applications and solid oxide fuel cell catalysts. Most recently, he has been engaged in understanding self-assembly of nanosheets and characterizing their interfaces with gas and liquid environments.

Mixture is a Fellow of the International Centre for Diffraction Data, as well as the current chairman of its board of directors and a contributing editor to the Powder Diffraction File. He is a member of the Denver X-Ray Conference Organizing Committee and conducts full-day workshops on in-situ diffraction and diffraction optics. He has also served as an ex-officio member of the U.S. National Committee for Crystallography of the National Academy of Sciences since 2008.

Mixture serves the materials science community as a principal editor of the Journal of Materials Research and recently chaired the Basic Science Division of The American Ceramic Society as well as its Membership Committee.

An AU alumnus, Mixture earned a bachelor of science degree in ceramic engineering in 1990 and a Ph.D. in ceramic science in 1994. He was a post-doctoral research fellow at Siemens Corporate Research in Munich, Germany and at the High Temperature Materials Laboratory at Oak Ridge National Laboratory, Roane County, TN, before returning to AU in 1996.

Mixture was named AU's first Inamori Professor in 2008. A $10 million gift from the Kyocera Corp. in honor of its founder, Dr. Kazuo Inamori, led to the creation of four Inamori Professorships in the School of Engineering at AU.

More than 9,500 scientists, engineers, researchers, manufacturers, plant personnel, educators, students, and marketing and sales professionals comprise The American Ceramic Society from more than 70 countries. The Society provides members and subscribers access to extensive periodicals and books, meetings and expositions, and online technical information. The Society educates and provides forums to connect individuals working in ceramics-related materials.

'Light' to sing at Alfred Station church

ALFRED STATION--They're coming back again. They are LIGHT!

LIGHT is a Summer musical choral tour group from California Baptist University, Riverside, California. Alfred Station is an annual stop on the tour in which LIGHT shares in song and testimony their commitment to the "Good News" concerning the Lord Jesus Christ.

This year's team includes Connor Smith, San Dinis CA; Jake Mizner, Tuare, CA; Desmond Cark, Riverside CA; Kristen Enge, Concord CA;

Amanda Tabora, Milpatas, CA; Sarah Brant, Victor Vine, CA; Rebecca Orr, Lake Forest, CA; and Natalie Prins, Modesto CA.

LIGHT presentation of popular Christian choral music is not diminished because of the college age of these young adults, but is enhanced by the enthusiasm and energy. This is a moment for you and yours to celebrate the love of God.

LIGHT will be singing at the Alfred Station Seventh Day Baptist Church, "A 3 C church: Connect-Care-Community". LIGHT will be at the 11a.m. Sabbath

Worship Hour on Sabbath (Sat.) June 14. Come early so you will have a choice of seats. A Free Will offering will be taken to support LIGHT's ministry.

The church invites all to bring a dish to pass and join friends and neighbors at the monthly fellowship meal after the 11 a.m. Worship Hour.

The Alfred Station Seventh Day Baptist Church meeting-house is the big white building located at 587 route 244 Alfred Station. If you would like further information, please call the church office at 607-587-9176.

Sunbeams

You know it's a small town when...Directions are given using "the" traffic light as a reference.

It was good seeing former Alfred University history professor/Alfred Village Mayor/Alfred Sun Publisher Gary Horowitz in town last weekend, called here for the Traffic Light Festival and AU's Alumni Reunion. The one-time Alfred resident now lives in Frostburg, MD, a mountaintop college town in Allegany County, MD, just off Exit 33 of I-68. Hmm...at first glance it's almost like Gary never left Alfred, an uplands college town in Allegany County, NY off Exit 33 of I-86. And, were Sue Bergren alive, she'd get a kick out of the fact that Gary resides just five miles from the state of West Virginia!

Your friends and neighbors at the Alfred Station Seventh Day Baptist Church, "A 3 C church: Connect-Care-Community" invite you to "Live Life to the Fullest: Eat Dessert First." This will be a multi-dessert event; pie, cake, candy and other specialties. This is all you can eat as long as the desserts last. (There will be plenty.) So you're coming? You need to know where and when! The "Live Life to the Fullest: Eat Dessert First" is from 12 noon to 2 p.m. Sunday, June 22 at the meetinghouse of the Alfred Station Seventh Day Baptist Church at 587 Route 244 Alfred Station. What is the cost of this delicious and delightful event? It will cost a donation which will be used for the ministry of the Alfred Station Seventh Day Baptist Church. If you would like further information, please call the church office at 607-587-9176.

The next meeting of the Catherine Schuyler Chapter of the NSDAR will be held at 12:30 p.m. Thursday June 19 at Sprague's Maple Farms in Portville--Route 305. Try to arrive by 12:30 p.m. so that ordering can be underway as soon as possible. Those attending can chat and order at the same time. The meeting will begin at 1 p.m. and continue after lunch. Hostesses are Terri Batt and Alice Wright, and the program is a special one given by Mrs. Batt and Cindy Keeley, from the Portville Historical & Preservation Society. They will share their story of the renovation & preservation of the Bedford Corners Schoolhouse--and all will have a "field trip" to Bedford Corners!

Don't be afraid of Friday the 13th. It is time for a picnic. LIGHT, a musical tour group from California Baptist University, Riverside, CA and Seventh Day Baptist group Stained Glass will spend Sabbath eve, Friday, June 13th together at Camp Harley Sutton in Alfred Station. Area residents are invited to meet these young people and picnic with them. Bring a dish to pass, grill meat and just the best down home welcome possible. The plan is to begin eating at 6:30 pm. For further information, call Pastor Ken 607-222-6023.

Plans are in the making for the fourth annual Texas Hot Day to raise funds for Cuba's Historic Opera House. It is scheduled for August 9, 2014 from 10:00 AM to 5:00 PM. Vendor sites are still available at $15.00 each. There are seven locations in the opera house and eight outside. Vendors who set up outside are responsible for their own shelter. Call 585-968-2812 to request an application or to get more information.

Average retail gasoline prices in Rochester have fallen 0.3 cents per gallon in the past week, averaging $3.79/g on Monday, June 9, according to GasBuddy's daily survey of 319 gas outlets in Rochester. This compares with the national average that has fallen 0.9 cents per gallon in the last week to $3.63/g, according to gasoline price website GasBuddy.com. Including the change in gas prices in Rochester during the past week, prices yesterday were 11.0 cents per gallon higher than the same day one year ago and are 3.6 cents per gallon lower than a month ago. The national average has increased 0.3 cents per gallon during the last month and stands 0.4 cents per gallon lower than this day one year ago.

THE GLORY OF AMERICA

Thursday, June 12

John Winthrop's Model of Christian Charity was as important a document as the Pilgrims' Mayflower Compact. At its heart was this summation:

"Thus stands the cause between God and us: we are entered into covenant with Him for this work. We have taken out a Commission; the Lord hath given us leave to draw our own articles.... Now the only way to avoid shipwreck and to provide for our posterity, is to follow the counsel of Micah: to do justly, to love mercy, to walk humbly with our God. For this end we must knit together in this work as one man... So shall we keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace."

SUMMER MUSIC & ART

The Dugout

By DOUG LOROW

Alfred Sun Sports Columnist
dugout2@gmail.com

It was off to Lake Placid and the Olympic Village this past weekend on a spectacular double-dipper of "summer" days in early June! Daughter Lauren was competing in the 10th annual Lake Placid Half-Marathon, her second straight, as we embarked to the quaint town that hosted the 1932 and 1980 Winter Olympics. Have been to the village now about 4-5 times and it just amazes me they were able to host the Olympic gathering, twice. Not so much in 1932, probably but the 1980 "Miracle on Ice" competition is crazy when you think about it because Lake Placid is tiny. Very nice and picturesque ... but tiny!

Picked 3L up in Saratoga Springs at the famed race track as she takes a MegaBus ride in from NYC. Can't beat the price and extremely convenient to get to. Got there early, wandered around the facility for awhile, but did not spot Coach Wiggins anywhere. Too early I guess. The bus arrives, then Lauren and I off to Druthers in Saratoga for lunch. What a great outdoor place. Steph Bergin, a soccer teammate of Lauren's at SUNY Geneseo, told her about this place and it hasn't disappointed. Second visit for us, with first the same weekend last year. Food is great, staff is awesome and can't beat the unique setting. No time for wandering around Saratoga this trip so it was off to Lake Placid with a stop in Queensbury slated on the way. "No Help" at the Verizon store with phone and app for Lauren to be used overseas. A Verizon app at a Verizon store and clueless!

We departed from the Aviation Mall with plans on zipping thru Lake George. Bad plan. It was Americade Weekend in LG as the annual motorcycle rally took over the tourist town. Yikes. Bikes galore. No stopping in Lake George this trip and it was off to Placid, arriving in the village and heading to the Olympic Center for Lauren to get her race bib and other info.

All squared away, checked into the Econo Lodge again this year and off to a late dinner at the LP Pub & Brewery. Went there last summer after the Ragnar Adirondack race and thoroughly enjoyed it. Lauren, her five teammates and the Jock's from the Plattsburgh area. Parents of soccer teammate, Rian and Mike who trains/teaches at Exceed where 3L works in NYC. The place overlooks one corner of Mirror Lake, has three levels, multiple rooms and places to sit, dine, drink. Really sharp place. Would meet a couple of ex-Navy SEALS there for dinner, with one "special" to Lauren. Hmmm. Both great guys! Excellent meal, company and setting on a perfect nite. Early back to hotel as need to get going in morning for the race.

The race starts out on Main Street, parallel to the oval track made famous by Eric Heiden as the throng heads up thru the village, around Mirror Lake, past the LP Pub and down to the lower part of town. SEAL Jason and I head out to explore the Olympic Center, Ice Arena, after watching Lauren go by us in two different spots. Walk in and see the USA Rink, the 1932 Jack Shea Arena and (of course) the 1980 Herb Brooks Arena. The sounds are still echoing in there ... "USA, USA, USA." Quite the site knowing history was made there. After touring we headed back out to the oval where the race finishes and waited for Lauren to come in. She had a great run last year (1:41 range) but work has derailed her running this spring of late. Finished with a respectable time of (1:43:32) on a hotter day than in 2013, good for the 26th female overall and 13th in her division. Think there were about 1500-1700 runners in the combined Half-Marathon races with most in the H-M.

It was soon time to depart as Anthony, Jason and Lauren headed to NYC while I would take off for Webster via a different route. On a sunny, great ADK afternoon, decided to drive thru Saranac Lake-Tupper Lake-Long Lake-Blue Mountain Lake and down the road into Inlet and Old Forge. Have taken this entire route a few times and from Blue down, many. Love the Adirondacks and this drive is quite relaxing. Perhaps the prettiest area on this overall trip was Keene Valley on way into Lake Placid. While my trip home was solid, Lauren's great weekend came to a frustrating halt with "connecting issues" in Boston from NYC on her way to Portugal. Less-than-pleased for a variety of reasons but mainly with a ticket agent in the Boston Airport at Sata Airlines. 3L's trip delayed by one day but hopefully all well rest of week for her.

A fun weekend in the ADK's and headed back up there in about four weeks with Lauren and Jess Herbst for Utica Boilermaker Race, then week at Indian Lake. Always a good time at cabin #8 at the Lone Birch Motel.

HITS AND MISSES:

Jordan Schwartz, the son of Don (A-A) and Dee, was drafted in the 4th-round by the Oakland Athletics in the MLB draft this past weekend. Schwartz played his high school ball in Hornell, pitched last summer for the Hornell Dodgers in the NYCBL and was a junior this past school year at Niagara University. Schwartz had a 5-6 mark on the hill for the Purple Eagles with a solid 3.12 ERA and a nifty .217 opponents batting average against. Think father Don, the ex-AU women's hoop coach, was drafted by the Reds out of high school after a Hall of Fame baseball career with the Eagles. He later played in the pro softball league with the Rochester Express. Fourth-round, by the A's, sweet !!

Seth Cornell (A-A/Houghton) and Jake Kenney (A-A/Brockport) are playing ball for the Hornell Dodgers in the NYCBL as they had a record of 4-2 as of Sunday past. Did not go to Hornell-Rochester game in Webster last week but plan to at the end of this month when the two teams meet again. Get this schedule, as Hornell and the Rochester Ridgemen (formerly an Alfred team) play each other June 28-29-30-July 1st. That in itself isn't unusual but the games are, in order: in Hornell-Hornell-Webster-Hornell. Huh? There are (13) teams in this summer league with two from Geneva and two from Syracuse. Hornell is in the West Division with: Rochester, Niagara, Wellsville, Genesee, Olean and the Twins from Geneva.

Don Zimmer, a baseball "lifer" if there ever was one, passed away last week at the age of 83. Zimmer played early on in his career with the Hornell Dodgers of the Class D-PONY League and in Elmira with the Pioneers in the "A" Eastern League. He was also married at home plate in Elmira! To name the teams he has played on, coached, managed or been affiliated with would go on and on. Most recently he was with the Tampa Bay Rays as an advisor. Never met him ... wished I had. Remember Big Dale and "Foolish" Farley telling me a little about him from the Hornell days. Dodger fans.

In high school state qualifier baseball action, all five Rochester area teams beat their counterparts from the Buffalo area to advance to the "Final Four" in their respective class. AA - Victor, A - Pittsford Sutherland, B - Livonia, C it is Bolivar-Richburg (21-3) and D - Batavia Notre Dame.

The Section Five softball teams didn't make out as well as Buffalo came away with three wins. AA - Brockport, A- Geneva and Wayland-Cohocton in "B" all lost. Winners were: Bolivar-Richburg (21-1) in "C" action and Arkport (20-1) in "D" play. Bolivar-Richburg fans will need to do some traveling this weekend.

The U.S. Open golf tournament is this week with the traditional Father's Day finish. My expert predictions are as follows: Adam Scott, Matt Kuchar, Jordan Spieth, 1-2-3. Event is at Pinehurst in NC.

Aaron Codispoti (A-A) recently competed in the Virginia Wine Country Half-Marathon and finished with a time of 1:44:40. He was 152nd out of 2274 runners. Next up Codispoti, son of Bob ... "Voice of the Saxons" and Pat, with compete in the Navy-Air Force H-M in DC as "prep work" for the Niagara Falls International Marathon on October 26th.

Rashad McCants of North Carolina ... way to throw Coach Roy Williams under the bus!

The Syracuse Orange football team plays inside, in the Carrier Dome, and they need a new "indoor" practice facility?

Mark S. Gaisser (A-A) and his Dominos/Feris slow pitch softball team recently won a tournament at the Wadsworth Complex. Great memories there with the Bandits tourney team as we played in some state tournaments.

Shane Battier (Duke) will retire after this season with the Miami Heat and become an ESPN college hoops analyst. Perhaps joining Jay Williams (Duke) on the set for pre-game and half-time reports?

Mike Dunleavy (Duke) wandered into Exceed in NYC for a workout last week as a speechless 3L gawked.

NBA Finals were at (1-1) after Sunday action with LeBron James leading Heat to win in game #2. Still think Spurs are better team but Miami has the best (active) player on the planet on their roster.

Some NYS vanity plates spotted: SEEKUP ... no relation to the former first-sacker for Top Shop in the old AASPL, BLESED1 ... Our Man, PIXIE PWR and GMENMD w/Giants logo ... doc for NFL team?

The Alfred-Almond alumni banquet is set for July 26th at Alfred State College.

No travel plans this weekend but perhaps taking in the Webster soccer tournament if Caitlin Cook up from Almond. Cutter usually lets me know about 10 am on Saturday for a noon game!

Alfred State offers pair of basketball camps

Men's Basketball Coach Jerry Jusaniec will host a pair of camps this summer. The Gym Rats Camp will be held July 14-17 while the Individual Skills Camp will be August 4-6.

The Gym Rats Camp is geared for boys and girls ages 4 - 9 as a fun introduction to the game of basketball. All camp participants will get a smaller sized youth basketball and all drills and instruction will be performed on 8 ft. baskets. Gym Rats runs from 2:15 - 4:45 daily and costs $60. Every camper will get a free water bottle, t-shirt, basketball, and daily snack.

The Individual Skills camp is geared for boys and girls ages 10 -17 and is a building block on skills and fundamentals of the game of basketball. All the drill will be geared towards attaining and improving the skills necessary to play competitive basketball at the middle and high school levels. The Individual Skills Camp runs from 9:30 a.m.

- 4 p.m. daily and costs $110. Every camper will get a free water bottle, t-shirt, and a basketball.

For more information on either camp or to register contact Coach Jusaniec at (607) 587-4365.
