

Alfred University alumnus to present at Environmental Studies Speaker Series

9/10/18

ALFRED, NY – Alfred University alumnus Mark Shelton, president of Shelton Associates Inc., a wastewater treatment company in Lancaster, PA, will speak at this week's Environmental Studies Speakers Series, scheduled for 12:20 p.m. Friday, Sept. 14, in Roon Lecture Hall, Science Center, on the Alfred University campus.

Shelton earned a bachelor's degree in political science and environmental studies from Alfred University in 1993. He will give a presentation titled "Our Formula for Making Industries from Automotive to Mining Want to be Green."