Are You Involved in Community Service?

The Office of Communications is working on an upcoming edition of Alfred Online which will feature articles on alumni, student, and faculty/staff involvement in community service and volunteer work. If you are one of those people, please contact Debbie Clark at clarkd@alfred.edu, or Ext. 2040 and relate your story, including the type of work you do and where you volunteer. Some of the responses will be followed up with a request for a photo shoot. Thanks for your cooperation.

Puerto Rico

Global Awareness Roundtable Presents: PUERTO RICO

Date: OCT the 13th

Place: Knight Club Campus Center

Time: 7 to 8 p.m.

Presenter: Nick Jimenez

The presentation will cover a broad range of topics dealing with Puerto Rico's history, culture, politics, language, and more. It is designed as a first introduction but will also deliver a unique perspective on the presenter's native country.

The Global Awareness Roundtable is a monthly event designed to introduce the Alfred community to a variety of cultures from around the world. This informal gathering gives our international faculty, students and alumni the opportunity to introduce participants to countries as diverse as Japan, Guatemala and Tunisia. Students who have lived, studied or worked abroad also share their experiences and observations.

Presentations cover a wide range of topics including history, traditions, art, music and food. This event is supported by the Liberal Arts College.

Author Visit: Nancy Lynch Steele - 'Vietnam Mailbag'

Tuesday, Oct. 12 at 7 p.m.

Nancy Howe Auditorium

David A. Howe Public Library

155 N. Main St., Wellsville

585.593.3410

Author Nancy Lynch Steele will discuss her book "Vietnam Mailbag" that was developed from letters she received for her column in the Wilmington Morning News about men and women who served in Vietnam during the war years. It tells the story of troops at war - through the letters they wrote a generation ago and through a series of moving interviews with veterans who now share their views on how the Vietnam experience shaped their lives.

This library-sponsored program is free and open to the general public.

Appalachia Concert: Bruce Molsky

Thursday, Oct. 14 at 7 p.m.

Nancy Howe Auditorium

David A. Howe Public Library

155 N. Main St., Wellsville

585.593.3410

Alone or with fellow musicians, Bruce Molsky has been exploring traditional music from an astonishing broad range of cultures over the past two decades with guitar, fiddle, and banjo. While mostly identified with traditional American old-time music, Molsky's influences range from Appalachia, Delta blues, to Irish and Eastern European music.

Lincoln Center, the Smithsonian Folk Festival in Washington DC and Prairie Home Companion radio program are among a few of the sites that have hosted Bruce. He has toured extensively internationally including Scotland, Ireland, Finland, and England.

This library-sponsored concert is free and open to the general public.
