

BAFA students to exhibit work

12/01/00

An exhibition of work by students enrolled in Alfred University's Bachelor of Arts in Fine Arts (BAFA) program opens Tuesday, Dec. 5, in the BAFA studios, located in The Brick. A reception will be held from 4:30 to 6 p.m. to mark the opening. Students enrolled in the following classes: "Seeing, Perception and Interpretation;" "Image, Text and Culture" or "Public Art," will be exhibiting their work. The exhibition will be open to the public, free of charge, from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. Wednesday and Thursday, Dec. 6 and 7, and from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. Friday, Dec. 8.
