

MC 24

Harold F. Bopp

Friend of the school

Collection

Acquisition: Mrs. Ann Bopp

Processed: Elizabeth Gulacsy, 1989

Updated: Laura Habecker, 2020

Access: Any of the glaze and body recipes in this collection must carry the proper credit to Mr. Bopp or his source.

The New York State College of Ceramics at Alfred University, Scholes Library

Harold F. Bopp

(1900-1986)

Born: 1900 Lombard, Illinois

Died: December 29, 1986

Married: Ann Bopp

Children:

Parents:

Education:

High School: Dundee, Illinois

University of Illinois, B. S. in Ceramic Engineering

Works:

1929-1939 Rookwood Pottery, Cincinnati, OH. Head of Color and Chemistry Laboratory, later Superintendent of the facility in Cincinnati.

1939-1942 Kenton Hills, Porcelains, Inc., Erlangen, KY. Originally the Harold F. Bopp Manufacturing Company.

1942-1965 Corning Glass Works, Corning, NY. Glass research and development

Series Descriptions

Recipes and notes of his work at Rockwood and Kenton Hills Pottery Collection

Box 1

Correspondence

Haegar Pottery

Kenton Hills Porcelain Co.

Pottery Miscellaneous

Recipes 1

Recipes 2

Recipes 3

Rookwood Pottery

Theses

Trademark

Recipe Books.

Tichane. Reds, Reds, Copper Reds.

Tichane. Those Celadon Blues.

Peck, Herbert. The Book of Rookwood Pottery.