Media Mondays: The Watermelon Woman

In the film The Watermelon Woman, Cheryl is young, Black, and lesbian, working in Philadelphia with her best friend Tamara and consumed by a film project: to make a video about her search for a Black actress from Philly who appeared in films in the 30s and was known as the Watermelon Woman. Following various leads, Cheryl discovers the Watermelon Woman's stage name and real name and surmises that the actress had a long affair with Martha Page, a White woman and one of Hollywood's few female directors. As she's discovering these things, Cheryl becomes involved with Diana, who's also White. The affair strains Cheryl's friendship with Tamara. More discoveries bring Cheryl (and us, her audience) to new realizations. This film is FREE and open to all! A short discussion will follow the film.

A 50-minute, one woman show, 'The Story Box' by the award winning actor/director Suzi Takahashi, explores the immigrant experience and its reverberations through a family's history. A Japanese-American woman finds a mysterious box left to her by the previous generation, and through it, a voice for her family's history of immigration, internment, and silence. Set just after 9/11, it follows the story of a Japanese-American woman who seeks refuge from NYC in the months following the attack. Building on Alfred University's heritage as the first truly co-educational institution in the nation, the Women's Leadership Academy (WLA) provides opportunities for Alfred University students to explore, develop, and fulfill their potential as leaders personally, professionally, and within their communities. The WLA is an elite group of AU students who combine academic coursework with experience-based leadership.

- Receiving priority access to funding for internships, conferences, and research projects?
- Improving your resume?
- Examining the ways in which gender impacts leadership?

If the answer is YES!, apply today using the attached form or via the JLC's AU Connect page. This year's application form is available under "Documents." Applications will be accepted until March 11th. However, it is STRONGLY recommended that you apply as early as possible.

We seek students of all gender identities who are intellectually curious and ready to participate in an academic and experience-based study of leadership. A particular GPA is not a prerequisite for admission, but please note that academic and judicial records will be reviewed.
