

Alfred University student group looks at sex traffic during 'Roundtable' program

1/22/07

Alfred University's Women's Studies Roundtable opens the spring semester of programming with a discussion on sex trafficking, from 12:20-1:10 p.m., Friday, Jan. 26, in the Women's Leadership Center. The session is free and open to the public. Discussion presenters will be members of SHADES, an AU student support group for women of all colors. For more information, contact Roundtable coordinator Dr. Sandra L. Singer, chairman of the Modern Languages Department and professor of German at fsinger@alfred.edu.
