Atlas new director of Honors Program

Dr. Gordon Atlas, professor of Psychology, will be the new director of Alfred University's Honors Program. His appointment was announced by Dr. Suzanne Buckley, Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs.

Dr. Atlas will succeed Dr. Paul Strong, professor of English, who has been director of the program for much of the time since its inception more than 25 years ago.

"I want to thank the selection committee for all its work," Buckley said. "I am certain Dr. Atlas will carry on the tradition of excellence established by Dr. Strong, making our Honors Program one of the distinctions of an Alfred University education."

Film Screening with Accompanying Talk

"Alligator on the Zipper": Film screening with accompanying talk by the Producer and Director. Saturday, April 5 at 6:30 p.m. in Nevins Theater in the Powell Campus Center.

Women truck drivers aren't usually thought of as American folk heroes, yet the seven women portrayed in this documentary evoke the qualities of modern day cowboys. Courageous, tough and with a fierce love of freedom, they heed the call of the road that speaks to their independent spirit. The film is followed by a brief talk by Jessica Chornesky (Producer) and Ivo Stainoff (Director). Made possible by a generous contribution from Silk Road Transport, Arkport, NY.

Women's Leadership Academy - Apply Today

Join Us on A Journey!

Leadership is a journey. Few of us are born leaders, and the Women's Leadership Academy is not intended for those few who have (or think they have) mastered the skills of leadership.

The Academy is a learning community where through collaboration and common effort we explore the meaning of leadership, investigate ways in which gender may or may not influence leadership, and create opportunities to enhance our leadership skills.

Interested? First-Year and Sophomores apply by Monday, April 7. Contact us at wlc@alfred.edu or 607.871.2971 if you have questions or would like an application. The application is also linked below.

WLA is more than a series of events, it's a network of women who help each other succeed!

Women of Influence: Women in International Trade

Join us in welcoming Deborah Wilkinson, Global Business Development Manager for Broward County Office of Economic Development, as she presents "Keeping Your W.I.T. About You: Lessons Learned from Women in International Trade".

Thursday, March 27 at 4 p.m., at the WLC.

As women move forward in the globalization of the U.S. and the world, support for women leaders internationally is essential. Substantive professional development, career enhancement, and networking are critical. Through her experiences in the world of international trade, Ms. Wilkinson has met women leaders from across the globe, including Ghana, India, Vietnam, China and Canada. She feels strongly that each of us has an important role to play in creating opportunities for women in our global economy. Come hear her views and learn from her experiences.
