Originally from Denver, Colorado, she received a BA in liberal arts from Carleton College in Northfield, MN, and an MFA in Printmaking at Rhode Island School of Design in Providence, RI. Paloma's work adapts and appropriates the vernacular of the many regions she's called home and traces the self-conscious search for cultural roots as a first-generation American.

AU Libraries System Migration: Week of July 1-5

The AU Libraries are migrating to a new SUNY-wide library system during the week of July 1-5. The libraries will remain open during this time (excluding the July 4 holiday) but there may be periodic disruptions to library services including the library websites, library search tools, and other search interfaces such as Google Scholar.

We will be updating website links as quickly as possible, but you may find broken links or experience automatic redirections to new services. Links to electronic resources may be somewhat unreliable for a period of a week or more. You may receive email notices from the libraries that are unfamiliar to you.

We appreciate your patience as we complete the migration process. If you have questions or if you need to report a problem, please don't hesitate to contact any of the librarians or call the libraries directly at 607-871-2184 (Herrick) or 607-871-2492 (Scholes).
